Navajo Of Canyon De Chelly In Home Gods Field:

Navajo of Canyon de Chelly Rose Houk, 1995 The first Navajo families settled in these dramatic sandstone canyons in northern Arizona two and a half centuries ago Those who reside within the monument today are inheritors of a cultural legacy won by their ancestors at great cost It is an inspiring story of endurance and hope Navajo and Photography James C. Faris, 1996 This thorough critical examination of photographic practices calls attention to the inability of most photography to communicate the lived experiences of native people or their history Faris's survey beginning with the earliest photographs of Navajos in captivity at the Bosque Redondo and including the most recent glossy picture books and calendars points up the western assumptions that have always governed photographic representation of Navajo people Drawing on exhaustive archival research to unearth rarely published photographs as well as unpublished photographs by well known photographers Faris documents Navajo resistance to the West's view and viewfinder and persistent attempts to overcome or dismiss such resistance He challenges the photographic history of the Navajo people as presented by photographers historians and anthropologists and explores the social and legal conditions that make such photography possible Confronting many readers nostalgic expectations Navajo and Photography will appeal to all those with an interest in the juxtaposition of cultures Tall Woman Rose Mitchell, 2001 Portrays Navajo weaver and midwife Tall Woman who held onto traditional Navajo ways raised twelve children and cared for the farm throughout her marriage to political leader and Blessingway singer Frank Mitchell Trip of the Tongue Elizabeth Little, 2012-02-28 Though we speak English as a nation it's no secret that America is far from uniform Spanish in particular has long been touted as the language that will figure into our national future much has been written about the need to recognize it in our laws and schools Yet billing America as a bilingual country is a gross misrepresentation They speak Basque in Nevada Hindi in San Jose and Gullah in South Carolina We speak European Asian and Native American languages as well as hybrids like Creole and Spanglish And Elizabeth Little's home Queens New York is among the most ethnically culturally and linguistically diverse places on the planet Small surprise then that Little felt a yearning to find the cultural and linguistic soul of the country And she has done it in the most American way imaginable on a road trip This book is the result a festive roadmap of the bounties of our country We'll learn about the struggle of the French speaking population of Maine to get along with the community around them the traditional ways of the German speaking Amish in Pennsylvania and the rich history of the little known African population of Nantucket Elizabeth Little is a witty and endearing tourguide for this memorable and original trip The Earth Memory Compass Farina King, 2018-10-01 The Din or Navajo have their own ways of knowing and being in the world a cultural identity linked to their homelands through ancestral memory The Earth Memory Compass traces this tradition as it is imparted from generation to generation and as it has been transformed and often obscured by modern modes of education An autoethnography of sorts the book follows Farina King's search for her own Din identity as she investigates the interconnections among Navajo students their people and Din Bik yah or Navajo lands across the twentieth century In her exploration of how historical changes in education have reshaped Din identity and community King draws on the insights of ethnohistory cultural history and Navajo language At the center of her study is the Din idea of the Four Directions in which each of the cardinal directions takes its meaning from a sacred mountain and its accompanying element East for instance is Sis Naajin Blanca Peak and white shell West Dook o oos d San Francisco Peaks and abalone North Dib Nitsaa Hesperus Peak and black jet South Tsoodzi Mount Taylor and turquoise King elaborates on the meanings and teachings of the mountains and directions throughout her book to illuminate how Navajos have embedded memories in landmarks to serve as a compass for their people a compass threatened by the dislocation and disconnection of Din students from their land communities and Navajo ways of learning Critical to this story is how inextricably Indigenous education and experience is intertwined with American dynamics of power and history As environmental catastrophes and struggles over resources sever the connections among peoplehood land and water King s book holds out hope that the teachings guidance and knowledge of an earth memory compass still have the power to bring the people and the earth together
