Navajo Taboos:

Navajo Taboos Ernest L. Bulow, 1982 Navajo Taboos is not some scholarly work by an anthropologist but an insider's look at a body of folk beliefs shared by many Navajos illuminating their cultural priorities The taboos were collected by Navajo students for their own information and previously published in pamphlet form by the Navajo Tribe as the first volume in their Cultural Series of publications The taboos have been organized and interpreted by Ernie Bulow who has spent his entire life around Navajos and other tribes of the Southwest as a teacher writer and Indian trader The book is a respectful compilation of Navajo beliefs that set them apart from all other groups while at the same time illustrating the universal fears and concerns found in all cultures Navajo Taboos Ernie Bulow, 1991 Taboo, 2006 Taboos Fred Goodwin, 2000-08

Taboo, 2006 Taboo, 2006 Handbook for Culturally Competent Care Eric A. Fenkl, Larry D. Purnell, 2024-10-22 The second edition of this incisive book based on the Purnell Model for Cultural Competence addresses the potentially challenging topic of culture in a forthright style It is a valuable resource in today's team-based healthcare environment preparing health professionals regardless of setting to conduct in-depth assessments of individuals and families from culturally specific population groups This book will appeal to all healthcare workers in all fields and it is particularly suitable for nurses interacting with patients in very diverse settings This book delves into 32 different cultures and areas of support common to all individuals and families that health professionals must recognize and consider African American American Indian Brazilian Cuban Chinese Korean and Filipino but also Arab Hindu or Haitian as well as many European heritages are examined among others Brand new chapters explore Greek Italian Jamaican Thai and Ukrainian heritages For each culture chapters detail communication styles family roles workforce issues biocultural ecology and high risk health behaviours Also discussed are nutrition pregnancy and child bearing death rituals spirituality healthcare practices and the perceptions of traditional magico religious and bio medical healthcare providers Culture's characteristics such as age generation gender religion educational marital parental socioeconomic or even military status but also political beliefs physical characteristics sexual orientation or gender issues determining the diversity of values beliefs and practices in an individual's cultural heritage in order to help prevent stereotyping are discussed At the end of each chapter readers are provided with specific instructions guidelines tips intervention strategies and approaches specific to a particular cultural population Additionally reflective exercises help the reader reinforce the concepts presented in each chapter For this second edition most of the chapters are authored by individuals who either identify with the culture being addressed in the chapter or have personal knowledge of the culture via life experiences Navajo Omens and Taboos Franc Johnson Newcomb, 1940 Tribal Epistemologies Helmut Wautischer, 2019-01-15 First published in 1998 this collection of ten essays transforms our understanding of both the role of philosophical anthropology in modern world philosophy and the origins of tribal knowledge in their relation to contemporary assessments of cognition and consciousness Ethnographic data from geographically distant cultures such as the Maori of New Zealand the Fore of New Guinea the Sea Nomads of the Andaman the Cowlitz of North America the Maya Australian Aborigines Siberian Shamans are carefully crafted toward an empirical basis for discussing a variety of phenomena traditional labelled in Western thought as transcendent or metaphysical This anthology is a valuable source of information relevant for any theories of knowledge and a solid challenge for reductionist models of consciousness The essays enhance our recognition and appreciation of fundamental similarities as well as differences in world views and cultural perspectives related to knowledge claims This anthology illustrates unplumbed depths of human consciousness reveals experiential understandings beyond linguistic thought and stands aside from the view that behaviour and intelligence can be understood by deterministic principles This volume of essays should be read with stereoscopic vision one lens focusing on the rich ethnographic material of folk societies the other focusing on the wider awareness of how we come to know what we know It features specialists in philosophy ethnology and comparative sociology comparative religion cross cultural psychology physical anthropology environmental and marine scientists Indian affairs anthropology comparative literature shamanism and theoretical biology These contributors explore issues including individuality in relational cultures Maori epistemology shamanistic knowledge and cosmology and images of conduct character and personhood in the Native American tradition Dictionary of Daily Life of Indians of the Americas ,1981-01-01
