Navigator Of New York A Novel:

The Navigator of New York Wayne Johnston, 2003-10-14 Nominated for the Giller Prize and the Governor General's Award for fiction Devlin Stead grows up a lonely orphan in late 19th century Newfoundland When he begins receiving letters from the esteemed but mysterious explorer Dr Frederick Cook they entirely change his understanding of who he is and what he might become Invited by Dr Cook to become his apprentice Dev eagerly heads for New York City where he is introduced into society and joins his mentor in epic attempts to reach the North Pole before Cook's archrival Robert Edwin Peary When Dev is thrust into international controversy he must master a series of revelations about his family that will determine his fate In spellbinding prose the author of the acclaimed Colony of Unrequited Dreams recreates the romance the politics and the peril of the legendary race for the North Pole Brilliantly rooted in history The Navigator of New York is a fascinating exploration of the quest for discovery and how it is remembered Navigator of New York W. Johnston, 2003-09-01 Navigator of New York Proof Wayne Johnston, 2002-09-12 The Cambridge Companion to Canadian Literature Eva-Marie Kröller, 2004-02-05 This book offers a comprehensive and engaging introduction to major writers genres and topics in Canadian literature Contributors pay attention to the social political and economic developments that have informed literary events Broad surveys of fiction drama and poetry are complemented by chapters on Aboriginal writing francophone writing autobiography literary criticism writing by women and the emergence of urban writing in a country traditionally defined by its regions Also discussed are genres that have a special place in Canadian literature such as nature writing exploration and travel writing and short fiction Speaking in the Past Tense Herb Wyile, 2009-10-22 Speaking in the Past Tense participates in an expanding critical dialogue on the writing of historical fiction providing a series of reflections on the process from the perspective of those souls intrepid enough to step onto what is practically by definition contested territory Herb Wyile from the Introduction The extermination of the Beothuk the exploration of the Arctic the experiences of soldiers in the trenches during World War I the foibles of Canada's longest serving prime minister the Ojibway sniper who is credited with 378 wartime kills these are just some of the people and events discussed in these candid and wide ranging interviews with eleven authors whose novels are based on events in Canadian history These sometimes startling conversations take the reader behind the scenes of the novels and into the minds of their authors Through them we explore the writers motives for writing the challenges they faced in gathering information and presenting it in fictional form the sometimes hostile reaction they faced after publication and perhaps most interestingly the stories that didn't make it into their novels Speaking in the Past Tense provides fascinating insights into the construction of national historical narratives and myths both those familiar to us and those that are still being written To Hanoi and Back Wayne Thompson, 2014-07-15 After nearly eighteen months of the largely unsuccessful bombing campaign called Operation Rolling Thunder the US Air Force began to look for ways to overcome technological geographical and political challenges in North Vietnam and use limited air power more effectively In 1972 the two Linebacker campaigns joined with other air operations to make a dramatic although temporary difference While they unleashed powerful B 52 area bombers the campaigns also demonstrated the efficacy of newly developed laser guided precision bombs Drawing upon twenty years of research in classified records Wayne Thompson integrates operational political and personal detail to present a full history of the Air Force role in the war against North Vietnam He provides an unprecedented view of the motivations and actions of the people involved from aircrews to generals to politicians in every phase of the air campaigns He outlines for instance the political reasons for President Johnson s reluctance to use B 52 bombers against major North Vietnamese targets He also examines how the media influenced US policy and how US prisoners became the war s most celebrated heroes The war in Southeast Asia ultimately pushed the Air Force toward adopting more flexible tactics and incorporating increasingly sophisticated weapons that would shape later conflicts

Join the Revolution, Comrade Charles Foran, 2008-04-15 In Join the Revolution Comrade Charles Foran brings to the essay form the same restlessness and originality that mark his novels and non fiction Foran visits places in Vietnam that have been colonized by western war films talks to Shanghai residents about their colossal city and commiserates with the people of Bali about the effects of terrorist bombs on their island In Beijing he looks up old friends he had known back in 1989 during the days before and after the June 4th massacre Join the revolution Comrade a friend had loved to say quoting a line from a Bertolucci film Foran also encounters Miguel de Cervantes the Buddha of Compassion and the pumped up American Tom Wolfe He maps the geography of Canadian literature and pinpoints the inner Newfoundland of
