Open City 17:

Galveston's Red Light District Kimber Fountain, 2018-08-20 A local historian recounts nearly seventy years of seduction and scandal along the Texas Gulf Coast in this lively chronicle of Galveston's notorious past Known today as a colorful resort destination featuring family entertainment and a thriving arts district Galveston Texas was once notorious for its flourishing vice economy and infamous red light district Called simply The Line the unassuming five blocks of Postoffice Street came alive every night with wild parties and generous offerings of love for sale Beginning in the late nineteenth century The Line was a stubborn mainstay of the island cityscape until it was finally shut down in the 1950s But ridding Galveston of prostitution would prove much more difficult than putting a padlock on the front door In Galveston's Red Light District Texas historian Kimber Fountain pursues the sequestered story of women who wanted to make their own rules and the city that wanted to let them

Tearing Down the Streets Jeff Ferrell, 2002-10 From New York to San Francisco Times Square to the Tenderloin graffiti artists young people radical environmentalists and the homeless clash with police on city streets in an attempt take back urban spaces from the developers and disneyfiers Drawing on more than a decade of first hand research this lively account goes inside the worlds of street musicians homeless punks militant bicycle activists high risk BASE jump parachutists skateboarders outlaw radio operators and hip hop graffiti artists to explore the day to day skirmishes in the struggle over public life and public space

New Left Revisited John Campbell McMillian, Paul Buhle, 2008 Starting with the premise that it is possible to say something significantly new about the 1960s and the New Left the contributors to this volume trace the social roots the various paths and the legacies of the movement that set out to change America As members of a younger generation of scholars none of them apart from Paul Buhle has first hand knowledge of the era Their perspective as non participants enables them to offer fresh interpretations of the regional and ideological differences that have been obscured in the standard histories and memoirs of the period Reflecting the diversity of goals the clashes of opinions and the tumult of the time these essays will engage seasoned scholars as well as students of the 60s

The Film That Changed My Life Robert K. Elder,2011-01-01 The movie that inspired filmmakers to direct is like the atomic bomb that went off before their eyes The Film That Changed My Life captures that epiphany It explores 30 directors love of a film they saw at a particularly formative moment how it influenced their own works and how it made them think differently Rebel Without a Cause inspired John Woo to comb his hair and talk like James Dean For Richard Linklater something was simmering in me but Raging Bull brought it to a boil Apocalypse Now inspired Danny Boyle to make larger than life films A single line from The Wizard of Oz Who could ever have thought a good little girl like you could destroy all my beautiful wickedness had a direct impact on John Waters That line inspired my life Waters says I sometimes say it to myself before I go to sleep like a prayer In this volume directors as diverse as John Woo Peter Bogdanovich Michel Gondry and Kevin Smith examine classic movies that inspired them to tell stories Here are 30 inspired and inspiring discussions of classic films that shaped the careers of today s directors and in turn cinema history

The Constellational Novel Louis Klee,2025-08-05 A constellational novel is a novel that has an associative essayistic digressive and densely patterned prose form The Constellational Novel aims to shed light on the field of contemporary literature by offering a definitive theory of the constellational novel These novels are recognizable by the presence of a first person narrator committed to drawing affinities and making connections among disparate things Beginning with Marcel Proust Klee s argument focuses on novels published over roughly the last two decades between 2001 and 2020 by writers such as W G Sebald Lisa Robertson Teju Cole Jacqueline Rose and Olga Tokarczuk Strikingly it is often assumed that the attunement of their narrators to an unfolding web of potential interconnections holds an ethical promise of new ways of relating to oneself others and the world Klee considers this implication of ethics and associative form to be peculiar and in some important respects unprecedented in the history of the novel How is recognizing connections between things ethical exactly Could it not simply be the working of a resourceful or possibly even deranged intelligence one that obsessively sees patterns everywhere Why should the value of literature hinge on such an idiosyncratic process And what does finding affinities have to do with the more familiar categories of novelistic form like character and narrative Taking inspiration from the work of Walter Benjamin this book analyzes the distinctive ethics of affinity offered by these novels and thus seeks to clarify one of the most intriguing and consequential developments in the contemporary novel

Precarious Flânerie and the Ethics of the Self in Contemporary Anglophone Fiction Eva Ries,2022-06-21 Even though the literary trope of the fl neur has been proclaimed dead on several occasions it still proves particularly lively in contemporary Anglophone fiction This study investigates how fl nerie takes a belated ethical turn in its more recent manifestations by negotiating models of ethical subjectivity Drawing on Michel Foucault's writings on the aesthetics of existence as well as Judith Butler's notion of precariousness as conditio humana it establishes a link between post sovereign models of subject formation and a paradoxical constellation of fl nerie which surfaces most prominently in the work of Walter Benjamin By means of detailed readings of Ian McEwan's Saturday Siri Hustvedt's The Blindfold Teju Cole's Open City Dionne Brand's What We All Long For and Robin Robertson's The Long Take Or a Way to Lose More Slowly this book traces how the ambivalence of fl nerie and its textual representation produces ethical norms while at the same time propagating the value of difference by means of disrupting societal norms of sameness Precarious Fl nerie and the Ethics of the Self in Contemporary Anglophone Fiction thus shows that the fl nerie text becomes a medium of ethical critique in post postmodern times Free Global Cities

Christian H Kälin, 2025-03-20 This book proposes a new solution to the problem of the migration crisis engulfing the world by creating safe harbours or Free Global Cities In the face of the largest displacement crisis on record even the most optimistic view of the future suggests that in the years ahead more and more people will migrate in order to survive The world requires places where refugees and other migrants forced to leave their homes have the opportunity to work study create start businesses and rebuild new lives for themselves and their families Free Global Cities can deal with this growing global crisis in a completely new way They are autonomous self governed subnational entities that provide a safe environment and rule of law that will create wealth and prosperity for its residents as well as for the nations hosting them Such a model would contribute significantly to handle the largest migration crisis in history which the world will be experiencing in the coming decades The Pacific Campaign in World War II William Bruce Johnson, 2006-05-02 This is a fascinating new account of how diplomacy and politics gave way to military strategy and warfare in the Pacific Presenting previously unpublished documents this book freshly examines the key events in the fight for the Pacific Urban Economics John M.

Hartwick, 2015-04-17 This textbook offers a rigorous calculus based presentation of the complexities of urban economics which is suitable for students who are new to the subject It focuses on structural details and explains the elements that make cities such highly productive entities and also explores explores the mechanisms of labour productivity enhancement that are unique to cities Written with a focus on location theory key topics include How cities are arranged Housing prices Urban transportation Why some cities grow rapidly whilst others decline How wages adjust to local costs of living How suburbs function in relationship to the urban core Public finance This book will be essential reading for Urban Economics courses at both undergraduate and postgraduate level Miracles and Sacrilege William Bruce Johnson, 2008-01-05 Miracles and Sacrilege is the story of the epochal conflict between censorship and freedom in film recounted through an in depth analysis of the U S Supreme Court's decision striking down a government ban on Roberto Rossellini's film The Miracle 1950 In this extraordinary case the Court ultimately chose to abandon its own longstanding determination that film comprised a mere business unworthy of free speech rights declaring for the first time that the First Amendment barred government from banning any film as sacrilegious Using legal briefs affidavits and other court records as well as letters memoranda and other archival materials to elucidate what was at issue in the case William Bruce Johnson also analyzes the social cultural and religious elements that form the background of this complex and hard fought controversy focusing particularly on the fundamental role played by the Catholic Church in the history of film censorship Tracing the development of the Church in the United States Johnson discusses the reasons it found The Miracle sacrilegious and how it attained the power to persuade civil authorities to ban it The Court's decision was not only a milestone in the law of church state relations but it paved the way for a succession of later decisions which gradually established a firm legal basis for freedom of expression in the arts

New Urbanism Ilse Helbrecht, 2016-05-13 The advent of the 21st century marks the unfolding of a new urbanism of a new urban fabric in the making Bringing together a range of leading scholars from a wide range of disciplines this edited collection examines innovative urban redevelopment projects around Europe and North America which are at the forefront of this new urbanism and which are here termed New Downtowns It introduces this term and concept and addresses major questions such as What does a sustained urbanity for the 21st century look like Which strategies do politicians and planners deploy to create new synergies between planning for the public good and private interest Can market forces be co-opted for collective interests Does the imagination of a European city continue to inspire new urbanism within and beyond Europe And can a future urbanity for the 21st century be planned at all In particular it focuses on Hamburg's HafenCity which at around 155 hectares is one of the most prominent city centre development projects in Europe and will increase the size of Hamburg's city centre by 40 percent The project HafenCity serves as a starting point for a conceptually wide ranging debate on the character shape function and meaning of New Downtowns Foreign Relations of the United States United States.

Morgan, 2012-10-15 This innovative study of the Montreal novel in French looks at how imaginary and material landscapes come together to produce a city of neighbourhoods Urban and Visual Culture in Contemporary Iran Pedram

Dibazar, 2020-12-10 In Urban and Visual Culture in Contemporary Iran Pedram Dibazar argues that everyday life in Iran is a rich domain of social existence and cultural production Regular patterns of day to day practice in Iran are imbued with forms of expressivity that are unmarked and inconspicuous but have remarkable critical value for a cultural study of contemporary society Blended into the rhythms of everyday life are nonconformist modes of presence subtle in their visibility and non confrontational in their resistance to the established societal norms and structures This volume is about such everyday tactics and creativity as lived in space visualised in cultural forms and communicated through media Through its analysis of familiar everyday experiences Urban and Visual Culture in Contemporary Iran covers a wide range of ordinary practices such as walking driving shopping and doing or watching sports and spatial conditions such as streets cars rooftops shopping centres and stadiums It also explores a variety of cultural formations including film photography architecture literature visual arts television and digital media This book offers new ways of thinking about visual and urban cultures by highlighting a politics of everyday life that is conditioned on concerns over visibility and presence Port Series ,1926
