Designing Disorder Richard Sennett, Pablo Sendra, 2020-04-14 Rethinking the open city Planners privatisation and police surveillance are laying siege to urban public spaces The streets are becoming ever more regimented as life and character are sapped from our cities What is to be done Is it possible to maintain the public realm as a flexible space that adapts over time Can disorder be designed Fifty years ago Richard Sennett wrote his groundbreaking work The Uses of Disorder arguing that the ideal of a planned and ordered city was flawed likely to produce a fragile restrictive urban environment The need for the Open City the alternative is now more urgent than ever In this provocative essay Pablo Sendra and Richard Sennett propose a reorganisation of how we think and plan the life of our cities What the authors call infrastructures for disorder combine architecture politics urban planning and activism in order to develop places that nurture rather than stifle bring together rather than divide remain open to change rather than rapidly stagnate Designing Disorder is a radical and transformative manifesto for the future of twenty first century cities Making Black History Dominique Haensell, 2021-10-04 This study proposes that rather than trying to discern the normative value of Afropolitanism as an identificatory concept politics ethics or aesthetics Afropolitanism may be best approached as a distinct historical and cultural moment that is a certain historical constellation that allows us to glimpse the shifting and multiple silhouettes which Africa as signifier as real and imagined locus embodies in the globalized yet predominantly Western cultural landscape of the 21st century As such Making Black History looks at contemporary fictions of the African or Black Diaspora that have been written and received in the moment of Afropolitanism Discursively this moment is very much part of a diasporic conversation that takes place in the US and is thus informed by various negotiations of blackness race class and cultural identity Yet rather than interpreting Afropolitan literatures merely as a rejection of racial solidarity as some commentators have they should be read as ambivalent responses to post racial discourses dominating the first decade of the 21st century particularly in the US which oscillate between moments of intense hope and acute disappointment Please read our interview with Dominique Haensell here <https://blog.degruyter.com/de-gruyters-10th-open-access-book-anniversary-dominique-haensell-and-her-winning>
