Smart Cities and Tourism: Co-creating experiences, challenges and opportunities Dimitrios Buhalis, Babak Taheri, Roya Rahimi, 2022-10-01. Smart cities are cities which use different types of electronic methods and sensors to collect data. With international contributions from well respected international academics, it brings state of art knowledge on marketing management and related areas e.g. urban studies from a new modern perspective within the smart cities.

New Left Revisited John Campbell McMillian, Paul Buhle, 2008. Starting with the premise that it is possible to say something significantly new about the 1960s and the New Left, the contributors to this volume trace the social roots, the various paths and the legacies of the movement that set out to change America. As members of a younger generation of scholars, none of them apart from Paul Buhle has first hand knowledge of the era. Their perspective as non participants enables them to offer fresh interpretations of the regional and ideological differences that have been obscured in the standard histories and memoirs of the period. Reflecting the diversity of goals, the clashes of opinions and the tumult of the time, these essays will engage seasoned scholars as well as students of the 60s.
