Tourism and Cricket Tom Baum, Richard Butler, 2014-08-04 This book is the first to focus on the relationship between tourism and cricket The volume examines how cricket as a participant and spectator sport generates diverse tourism to both major and peripheral locations It will appeal to researchers students and teachers in tourism sport and leisure

Tapestry of Memory Nanci Adler, Selma Leydesdorff, 2013-08-20 In this volume contributors present narratives and explore the way they influence the perception of the past While acknowledging the debate about the validity of qualitative research based on narratives this volume aims to illuminate how truth and evidence form part of a much wider debate on the representation of history The volume includes the work of historians but the interdisciplinary nature of the contributions shows that the validity debate also applies to the broader fields of cultural studies sociology and other social sciences The distinction between memory and testimony is a crucial theme Memory though selective is the basis of testimony Testimony provides an audience with information that becomes evidence of what was seen or experienced Such evidence can form the basis of legal truth Nanci Adler and Selma Leydesdorff divide the volume into three core sections Official Testimony and Other Facts and Evidence The Creation of New History and the Integration of Collective Memory in the Story of One's Self and Claims Based on Narratives vs Official History After a comprehensive introduction by the editors the volume offers twelve essays by leading scholars This work is a new offering in Transaction's acclaimed Memory and Narrative series

The Art of Centuries Steve James, 2015-04-09 A century has always had a special resonance in all walks of life and none more so than in cricket Scoring one hundred runs is the ultimate for a batsman As former England captain Andrew Strauss admits it's incredibly hard to do for Ricky Ponting it's a transformational moment in the career of a cricketer Or in the words of Geoffrey Boycott a century has its own magic In The Art of Centuries Steve James applies his award winning forensic insight to the very heart of batting Through interviews with the leading run scorers in cricket history and his own experiences Steve discovers what mental and physical efforts are required to reach those magical three figures Despite his own haul of 47 first class tons he himself felt at times that he was poorly equipped for the task So working out how to score centuries is an art And bowlers might not agree but there really is no better feeling in cricket

BBC Sport in Black and White Richard Haynes, 2016-11-17 This book provides the first detailed account of the formative decades of BBC televised sport when it launched its flagship programmes Sportsview Grandstand and Match of the Day Based on extensive archival research in the BBC's written archives and interviews with leading producers editors and commentators of the period it provides a behind the scenes narrative history of this major institution of British cultural life In 2016 the BBC celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of its television coverage of England's

World Cup victory Their coverage produced one of the most oft played moments in the history of television Kenneth Wolstenholme's famous line 'Some people are on the pitch they think it's all over it is now as Geoff Hurst scored England's fourth goal securing England's 4-2 victory' It was a landmark in English football as well as a watershed in the BBC's highly professionalised approach to televised sport How the BBC reached this peak of television expertise and who was behind their success in developing the techniques of televised sport is the focus of this book Life: an Open Eye Poetry Book S.J. Wiley, 2013-07-01 This book is inspired by and created for the emotional honesty of one's heart It will elucidate past pains hurt disappointment and gleeful feelings For poetry stands to be the eye of the doctor that heals our inner spirit With poetry we are able to become truthful through words that string together a song of life's alterations Not one but many feels as others feel and see as others see therefore we are able to understand communicate and empathize with our agnate souls

Jesus: My Autobiography Tina Louise Spalding, 2015-06-01 I have come at this time in this place and through this being to speak my truth to speak the story of my life the true story of my life The purpose of this book is to clarify to tell the truth and to share my energies with you so that you can begin the transformation of your mind and therefore the transformation of your heart and your world It is in the misteachings that have been associated with my name that much death and pain has been caused and that much guilt and self recrimination has been expressed That was not my purpose that was not my lesson This story will begin the change It will not make the change It will facilitate turning the key in the lock but you must open the door and walk through it into a new realm that is opened by this information That is your responsibility We can only bring you the message this channel and I We can only work together to transmit the information but it is through your actions and your transformation that you will see a change in your world a change in the subjective world that is manufactured from your beliefs your thoughts and your feelings I talk about the truth of my birth and the truth of my life I cover some stories that are recounted in the Bible and tell you the true story of those events I describe some of my personal traits my human traits and I define what I am who I am and why these things happened You will be able to understand the truth and you will begin this reconditioning this retooling of your mind of your thoughts and beliefs on this subject of my life my meaning and my purpose for it is a long process The time is ripe The need for a spiritual revolution is here Jesus Life Extraordinaire: An Autobiography Hem Raj Verma, 2024-10-08 This is an inspiring autobiography of Hemraj Verma chronicling his remarkable journey from the humble village of Manvi Punjab to the corridors of power in India's Planning Commission Born in 1931 Verma's early years shaped by India's struggle for independence laid the foundation for a life of purpose and resilience From his education at Delhi College of Engineering to his experiences abroad Verma's story is a testament to the transformative power of learning and innovation Central to his narrative is his lifelong partnership with his wife Vidya whose unwavering support played an important role in his success The book highlights his significant contributions to India's development including a ground breaking rural electrification project that changed the lives of countless villagers including those in his
