

COMMUNITY QUILTS

2012 - 2014

Like quilting guilds around the world, Fairholme Quilters is committed to supplying quilts to provide warmth, comfort and a sense of security, adding to efforts to sustain people experiencing difficulty, hardship or disadvantage in our community.

Since July 2012 we have donated 100 quilts to residents of a nursing home, patients at a renal dialysis unit, and children's support groups through the Quilters Guild of NSW.

We aim to make warm, durable quilts in designs that will interest their owners.

Some of the fabric and other materials are donated, and we purchase others from the proceeds of events such as our two-yearly quilt show.

Guffey, 2014-10-15 From band posters stapled to telephone poles to the advertisements hanging at bus shelters to the inspirational prints that adorn office walls posters surround us everywhere but do we know how they began Telling the story of this ephemeral art form Elizabeth E Guffey reexamines the poster's roots in the nineteenth century and explores the relevance they still possess in the age of digital media. Even in our world of social media and electronic devices, she argues, few forms of graphic design can rival posters for sheer spatial presence, and they provide new opportunities to communicate across public spaces in cities around the globe. Guffey charts the rise of the poster from the revolutionary lithographs that papered nineteenth-century London and Paris to twentieth-century works of propaganda, advertising, pop culture, and protest. Examining contemporary examples, she discusses Palestinian martyr posters and West African posters that describe voodoo activities or Internet con men stopping along the way to uncover a rich variety of posters from the Soviet Union, China, the United States, and more. Featuring 150 stunning images, this illuminating book delivers a fresh look at the poster and offers revealing insights into the designs and practices of our twenty-first-century world.
