Really Bad Swing Thoughts:

Really Bad Swing Thoughts Paul Francis, 2012-12-11 It's a known fact that golfers shouldn't think too much before taking a shot. After all, too much thought can ruin any chance you may have at dumb luck. Whether you're thinking about work, your in-laws, or the last time you fed the dog, there's nothing more detrimental to your golf game than an overactive mind. Really Bad Swing Thoughts is a collection of thoughts, scenarios, and visualizations that would distract, discourage, and defy even the most practiced golfers. Divided into such chapters as Opposite Sex Betting, Putting, and Oops, Really Bad Swing Thoughts looks at the game through the eyes of the golfer who can't quite concentrate on the task at hand. Authors Paul Francis and Peter J. Reilly capture the humor that can be found when a variety of shots are coupled with unique situations from playing against a female golf pro to I hope I'm not wearing those World's Best Dad boxer shorts and hitting a shot left-handed. It'd be easier to put my elbow in my ear to starting the back nine when you're the worst player in a tournament foursome. I can always pretend to sprain my ankle and beg out. With visualizations to complete golf anxieties such as You're center ring at the county fair trying to grab hold of a greased pig and Picking a sunflower seed out of the Grand Canyon with tweezers, this very funny book will help golfers recognize their own foibles. A parody of countless books on how to improve the mental aspects of your golf game, Really Bad Swing Thoughts is the ideal gift for the distracted golfer. How to Win at Golf Without Actually Trying Jon Winokur, 2002-09-26 Here at last is a guide to winning at golf that tells you how to dominate your opponents not by outplaying them but by outthinking them. Golf is a complex and demanding game so fickle and perverse that even its masters never truly master it. But Jon Winokur assures us in this entertaining and eminently practical manual that if you can't play golf consistently well, you can at least win consistently. With tongue planted firmly in cheek, Winokur provides various tried and true gamesmanship techniques with which to gain the advantage from the most subtle psychological warfare to the carefully stifled sneeze. Filled with wry humor, peppered with tips, quotes, and anecdotes from golf's greats and illustrated throughout, this book is indispensable for anyone whose priority is to win at whatever cost.

The Diary of a 10 to 14 Handicapper Philip Moses, 2014-04 There is a saying that makes the claim that the only way to become an expert at something is to have first made every mistake possible If that were true then I should be the best golfer in the world I've seen good golfers and I've seen great golfers I grew up during a time when golf wasn't even on the map We played team sports for the most part like baseball basketball football and hockey At the age of eighteen I realized that these activities were going to come to a screeching halt soon and needed to find something else So I took up golf There was a problem back then for the athletes in my era We were ingrained with a baseball swing and that just doesn't cut it for golf The weight stayed on the right side and the swing was from the outside in Hitting fat shots and big roundhouse slices were the norm What could I do Rammy Cacked Again David Tinling, 2020-11-09 David Tinling takes a long look back over his decades as a mind body physician writer and conceptual artist revealing how family mentors and culture influenced his life work The Great Sweetening: Life After Thought Jan Frazier, 2016-01-31 Jan Frazier experienced a radical transformation of consciousness at age fifty in 2003 Her teachings are drawn from direct experience relying on no particular tradition or set of beliefs The Great Sweetening Life After Thought invites the spiritual seeker to ask What am I Am I what my ego and mind tell me I am Or am I consciousness itself This collection of essays explores how the sense of self is created by thought patterns memory and beliefs Frazier gently shows how the ego uses the mind to keep this self seeming real and worthy of the enormous attention it receives She offers helpful guidance about how to relate to mental activity so that painful thoughts no longer imprison The compelling reality of the self thus begins to soften making it possible to sense the larger reality within every person The profound peace that is universally longed for is innate to our humanity It's only because the mind made self seems to be what we are that this sense of well being is not realized not experienced in moment to moment life Frazier's first book When Fear Falls Away The Story of a Sudden Awakening Weiser Books 2007 is an account of her awakening as it unfolded over the first eighteen months The Freedom of Being At Ease with What Is Weiser Books 2012 offers guidance toward the reduction of suffering and the prospect of radical freedom Both books are available in paperback and eBook Opening the Door Jan Frazier Teachings on Awakening is an eBook collection of essays on the nature of spiritual awakening The book opens the reader's awareness to the possibility of a richly human life beyond what appears possible to the ego and the mind The teachings point to unresisting present moment attention where the truth of existence is known How to Quit Golf (and Get Your Life Back) Danny Cahill, 2024-03-05 Do you need to quit golf Take a short quiz 1 Do you show your golf scorecards to well uh anyone 2 At dinner do you find yourself practicing your grip on your utensils The Vs of the fork's first time for the righthander should point to the right shoulder 3 Look above you Are there marks on the ceilings of your house because you can't help but try to bust one even when you're indoors and there is no ball 4 Have you taken to reflexively calling your children pards 5 Do other golf aphorisms make their way into your personal life Examples include finding your lost car keys and with a shrug saying Even a blind squirrel finds a nut now and again or feeding your actual dog and exhorting Time to let the big dog eat 6 Does your dry cleaner never having seen your swing but processing your bill assume you are a golf pro 7 Do you think of all spatial relationships in the real world in terms of golfing distance When parking at the mall and your wife suggests you are too far away do you say What It's like a stock gap wedge to Panera from here When she disagrees do you break out the Bushnell and shoot the store's signage If you answered Yes to any of the above you really really need to quit golf Danny
