Reason Relativism And God:

Reason Relativism And God Joseph Runzo, 1986-05-19      World Views and Perceiving God Joseph Runzo, 1994-01-12 This collection of essays presents a systematic analysis of some of the foremost issues in the philosophy of religion. The focus is on the epistemology of religion, the most significant area of recent interest in the field. After developing a religious epistemology in the first half of the book, that epistemology is both further expanded and explicitly applied to salient issues in the contemporary discussion. The central question throughout the essays is how our world views affect our perception, especially our perception of God. The first essays set out a general epistemology of perception. The next two sets of essays build upon this in assessing the cognitive value of religious experience and analyzing the proper epistemic foundations for belief in God. Then, in view of the role of faith developed in those essays, the final essays address the dual challenges to traditional theism of theological non-realism and of religious pluralism.      God-Relationships With and Without God J

Kellenberger, 2016-01-01      Is God Real? Joseph Runzo, 1993-04-27      God and Realism Peter Byrne, 2017-07-05 Peter Byrne's study of God and realism offers a critical survey of issues surrounding the realist interpretation of theism and theology. Byrne presents a general argument for interpreting the intent of talk about God in a realist fashion and argues that judging the intent of theistic discourse should be the primary object of concern in the philosophy of religion. He considers a number of important ideas and thinkers supporting global anti-realism and finds them all wanting. After the refutation of global anti-realism, Byrne considers a number of important arguments in favour of the notion that there is something specific to talk about God which invites an anti-realist interpretation of it. Here he looks at verificationism, the writings of Don Cupitt, forms of radical feminist theory, and the ideas of D. Z. Phillips. The book concludes with a discussion of whether theology as a discursive academic discipline can be interpreted realistically. Offering a comprehensive survey of the topic and of the leading literature in the field, this book presents key arguments for exploring issues brought to bear upon the realism debate. Students and scholars of philosophy of religion, philosophy of language, metaphysics, theory of knowledge, and theology will find this an invaluable new contribution to the field.      The Gagging of God D. A. Carson, 2009-09-01 The Gold Medallion Award-winning book that presents a persuasive case for Christ as the only way to God in light of contemporary religious pluralism. A great majority of social commentators attempting to define modern Western culture land on a common characteristic pluralism. This isn't unique to secular culture. Many modern approaches to Christian hermeneutics or biblical interpretation have given credence to contemporary pluralism. What began as a refreshing restraint and humility in modern theology has fallen more and more into irresoluteness. It's no secret that the contemporary challenges to Christianity are complex and serious. Yet far from simple fear-mongering or cultural warmongering, The Gagging of God takes a hard look at the background and intricacy of pluralism, postmodernity, and hermeneutics and equips thoughtful Christians to have intelligent, culturally sensitive, and passionate fidelity to the gospel of Jesus Christ. In his contemplative, even-handed approach

Carson provides a structure of Christian thought capable of facing the philosophies of today and piercing their surface. It invites Christians to grapple responsibly with urgent questions of biblically grounded theology, spirituality, and the defining lines of Christianity along with its range of challenges from without and within. The Gaggling of God offers an in-depth look at the big picture, shows how the many ramifications of pluralism are all parts of a whole, and provides a systematic Christian response.

Thinking About God Gregory E. Ganssle, 2010-06-18 What is God like? What can God do? What can God know? How does God communicate? Philosopher Gregory E. Ganssle appeals to philosophy for some answers to these questions in this introduction to thinking clearly and carefully about God.

The Ocean of God Roland Faber, 2019-06-29 The Ocean of God conveys the proposition that the future of religions, if they will not want to contribute to the destruction of humanity, will become transreligious. Based on the assumption that the spiritual impulse of humanity cannot simply be eradicated, religiosity will persist in transreligious forms as secularizations, naturalizations, and transhumanist dreams only envision such transformations but fall short in their ability to replace the force of spirituality to further civilized peace of human existence on Earth and its future in evolutionary, ecological, and cosmological dimensions. In relating the contributions of religious pluralism to the concept of the unity of religions, which have arisen in this new axial age for overcoming the checkered history of religions in furthering peace, the program of a polyphilic pluralism with its transreligious discourse based on the insight of the fundamental relativity of religious truth and the special contributions of process philosophy and theology, as well as the Bahá'í universe of thought, analyses and projects a new religiosity or spirit enabling religions to overcome their deepest motives of strife and warfare.

The Places of God in an Age of Re-Embodiments Ruth Thomas-Pellicer, 2017-05-11 In an age of ecological decay, Western ontological and epistemological assumptions have to be revisited. This book offers such a revision. It opens with a critical analysis of the paradigm of sustainable development and problematically situates it within the ecocidal trajectory of Western metaphysics. In search of some tools for examining the ecological conundrum, the book develops a pool of new categories of knowledge called transpositions. Though of cross-disciplinary nature, this work must be situated within the tradition of the post-Kantian critique of reason. To develop its own framework of analysis, it relies heavily upon Nietzsche's oeuvre and that of part of his entourage, including Heidegger, Foucault, Derrida, and Plotnitsky. Major inputs also come from the work of the ecophilosopher of science Patrick Curry and ecofeminism at large. It will appeal to students and established scholars in environmental studies, ecology, and philosophy.

God and Argument - Dieu et l'argumentation philosophique William Sweet,1999-10-12 Given the challenge of anti realism anti foundationalism and post modernism is rational argument concerning religious belief still possible This collection provides a broad range of perspective on the contemporary discussion of the place of argument in philosophical discussion on God and more generally on religious belief The Logic of the Heart James R. Peters,2009-03-01 Philosopher James R Peters defends the reasonableness of the Christian faith in The Logic of the Heart He paves a middle road between the Enlightenment s worship of reason and postmodernism s emphasis on freedom and self rule He delves into the thought of theologian St Augustine and philosopher mathematician Blaise Pascal and engages the skeptic David Hume who argued against the possibility of miracles Throughout this process Peters provides an alternative to postmodern thought as well as the widespread New Atheism This work is appropriate for undergraduate and graduate students pursuing studies in philosophy of religion and historical theology Since Peters writes in nontechnical language readers interested in the relationship between faith and reason will also benefit from The Logic of the Heart

Two Dozen (or so) Arguments for God Jerry Walls,Trent Dougherty,2018-08-07 Two Dozen or so Arguments for God expands Alvin Plantinga s seminal article Two Dozen or so Theistic Arguments Each of Plantinga s original suggestions is developed here by a wide variety of accomplished scholars This collection both presents ground breaking research and lays the foundations for research projects for years to come God and the Processes of Reality David A. Pailin,2024-12-06 Can belief in God be rational David A Pailin identifies the reasons behind this questioning of theistic faith in his book God and the Processes of Reality originally published in 1989 and demonstrates how the supposed incoherences in the concept of God are due to the generalization of partial insights He establishes the basic character of the concept of God and examines the nature of the major attributes of the divine and of the relationship of God to the processes of reality looking at God as creator the relation of God to historical events and the role of God as the basis for individual fulfilment The book takes up many of the insights developed by Whitehead and Hartshorne in what is commonly known as process thought Pailin explains these insights and counters common misapprehensions about them critically sometimes radically so to present a credible understanding of the God of theistic belief and a coherent understanding of the relationship of that God to the processes of reality This book will be of interest to students and researchers of religion and philosophy The Oxford Handbook of Atheism Stephen Bullivant, Michael Ruse, 2013-11 This handbook is a pioneering edited volume exploring atheism understood in the broad sense of an absence of belief in the existence of a God or gods in its historical and contemporary expressions It probes the varied manifestations and implications of unbelief from an array of disciplinary perspectives and in a range of global contexts Post-Christian Nation Mark A. Stelter, 2024-02-15 We have been indoctrinated with the lie that belief in God is irrational As a result the United States is rapidly becoming a post Christian nation At the current rate by 2040 most Americans will no longer identify as Christian Mark Stelter relies on his professional experiences as a lawyer theologian and former college professor to carefully examine secular materialism and clearly demonstrate that it is the theistic worldview not the atheistic worldview that is most supported by the evidence Stelter explores a variety of topics that include the triumph of secularism in American culture the shift in worldviews the separation of church and state the academic assault on religion moral truth versus moral relativism the intolerance of tolerance and much more Post Christian Nation is a well documented examination of how Christianity not atheism prevails when tested by reason logic and science Why Religion? Towards a Critical Philosophy of Law, Peace and God Dawid Bunikowski, Alberto Puppo, 2020-02-11 This book examines the relation between religion and jurisprudence God and peace respectively It argues that in order to elucidate the possible role religion can play in the contemporary world it is useful to analyse religion by associating it with other concepts Why peace Because peace is probably the greatest promise made by religions and the greatest concern in the contemporary world Why jurisprudence Because quoting Kelsen's famous book Peace through Law peace is usually understood as something achievable by international legal instruments But what if we replace Peace through Law with Peace through Religion Does law as an instrument for achieving peace incorporate a religious dimension Is law ultimately a religious and normative construction oriented to peace to the protection of humanity in order to keep humans from the violence of nature Is the hope for peace rational or just a question of faith Is religion itself a question of faith or a rational choice Is the relatively recent legal concept of responsibility to protect a secular expression of the oldest duty of humankind The book follows the structure of interdisciplinary research in which the international legal scholar the moral philosopher the philosopher of religion the theologian and the political scientist contribute to the construction of the necessary bridges Moreover it gives voice to different monotheistic traditions and more importantly it analyses religion in the various dimensions in which it determines the authors' cultures as a set of rituals as a source of moral norms as a universal project for peace and as a political discourse Why Mike's Not a Christian Ben Young, 2006 Can most believers give a rational explanation for their faith Have most skeptics ever heard convincing answers to their arguments Author Ben Young creates an intriguing and insightful dialogue between a skeptic Mike and a Christian friend working through Mike s questions with thoughtful biblical answers Along the way readers will discover responses to the most common reasons people say they are not a Christian It s true for you but not for me All Christians are hypocrites Evolution is true The Bible is full of myths All paths lead to God not just one Open minded skeptics looking for answers or Christians looking for a way to articulate their beliefs more effectively will want this on hand The World According to God F.X. Cronin,2020-07-16 Cronin takes skeptics and believers alike on a delightful tour of reality starting with incontrovertible proofs for the existence of truth itself If God Made the Universe, Who Made God? Holman Bible Publishers,2012-02-01 Perhaps you remember being in a university class feeling frustrated when the respected professor dismissed questions from a student because of her religious faith Or maybe over a business lunch one of your colleagues referred to Christianity as a fairytale and you said nothing Many Christians find themselves in such situations but don t speak up because they don t fully realize the strength of their own position They feel incapable of giving reasons for the hope that is theirs Christian apologetics is the discipline and growing body of knowledge that equips believers to address their own doubts to converse with seekers and critics from a position of strength and to bear witness to Christ with confidence In the spirit of the title question If God Made the Universe Who Made God collects 130 essays written in defense of the Christian faith Contributors include some of the pre eminent apologists of our time from Lee Strobel and Charles Colson to Hank Hanegraaff J P Moreland and Ravi Zacharias The content is grouped into ten topics Apologetics Introductory Issues Jesus Christ Science and Faith Cults and World Religions The Existence of God Ethics Theology The Scriptures Heaven and Hell Evangelism
