Matlock,2019-06-15 Signs of Reincarnation provides the first comprehensive look at the belief in reincarnation and the evidence for past lives from historical records anthropological studies and contemporary research Matlock discusses various ways the evidence may be interpreted and shows that although reincarnation entails a rejection of the materialist notion that consciousness is generated by the brain it does not require the acceptance of any radically new concepts or the abandonment of well established findings in mainstream psychology or biology This book offers students scholars and anyone interested in the possibility of reincarnation an essential grounding in beliefs cases and theory while opening doors for future research into the extension of consciousness beyond our present lives How to Live and Die Lama Zopa Rinpoche,2025-10-07 In this authoritative account of one of the most important practices in Tibetan Buddhism Lama Zopa shows us how facing the reality of death and impermanence can transform and enrich our life What death is how we die what minds we need at death and what happens after death only by knowing about death and rebirth can we actually fully understand what life is and so learn how to live fully Lama Zopa Rinpoche There is arguably no truth more foundational to Buddhism than this everything is impermanent We can see this in the world all around us old systems break down relationships change Death comes for those we love and inevitably for us In this book the late beloved teacher Lama Zopa Rinpoche walks us through the traditional revelatory practices of meditating on the fact of impermanence and even especially on death itself Rather than shy away from this reality we look straight at it and thus we learn not only how to not fear death but how to live Journeys East Harry Oldmeadow,2004-04-28 Journeys East tells the story of the twentieth century s encounters between East and West by exploring the lives of many of the most fascinating scientists intellectuals artists and spiritual seekers of our time Cave In The Snow Vicki Mackenzie,2008-12-26 This is the incredible story of Tenzin Palmo a remarkable woman who spent 12 years alone in a cave 13 000 feet up in the Himalayas At the age of 20 Diane Perry looking to fill a void in her life entered a monastery in India the only woman amongst hundreds of monks and began her battle against the prejudice that had excluded women from enlightenment for thousands of years Thirteen years later Diane Perry a k a Tenzin Palmo secluded herself in a remote cave 13 000 feet up in the Himalayas where she stayed for twelve years In her mountain retreat she face unimaginable cold wild animals floods snow and rockfalls grew her own food and slept in a traditional wooden meditation box three feet square She never lay down Tenzin emerged from the cave with a determination to build a convent in northern India to revive the Togdenma lineage a long forgotten female spiritual elite She has traveled around the world to find support for her cause meeting with spiritual leaders from the Pope to Desmond Tutu She agreed to tell her story only to Vicky Mackenzie and a portion of the royalties from this book will help towards the completion of her convent The Revolutionary Life of Freda Bedi Vicki Mackenzie,2017-03-28 A fascinating biography of Freda Bedi an English woman who

Living, Dreaming, Dying Rob Nairn, 2004-08-03 The Tibetan Book of the Dead is one of the best known Tibetan Buddhist texts It is also one of the most difficult texts for Westerners to understand In Living Dreaming Dying Rob Nairn presents the first interpretation of this classic text using a modern Western perspective avoiding arcane religious terminology keeping his explanations grounded in everyday language Nairn explores the concepts used in this highly revered work and brings out their meaning and significance for our daily life He shows readers how the Tibetan Book of the Dead can help us understand life and self as well as the dying process Living Dreaming Dying helps readers to live deliberately and confront death deliberately One thing that prevents us from doing that according to Nairn is our tendency to react fearfully whenever change occurs But if we confront our fear of change and the unknown we can learn to flow gracefully with the unfolding circumstances of life rather than be at their mercy Of course change occurs throughout our life but a period of transition also occurs as we pass from the waking state into sleep and likewise as we pass into death Therefore the author's teachings apply equally to living as well as to dreaming and dying Through meditation instructions and practical exercises the author explains how to Explore the mind through the cultivation of deep meditation states and expanded consciousness Develop awareness of negative tendencies Use deep sleep states and lucid dreaming to increase self understanding as well as to train oneself in how to die so that one is prepared for when the time comes Confront and liberate oneself from fear of death and the unknown Battling the
