International Food Policy Issues United States. Department of Agriculture. Economics, Statistics, and Cooperatives Service, 1978 This document contains 10 papers and commentary presented at the Conference on International Food Policies Issues held in Washington D C April 28 and 29 1977 The conference focused on important international trade and development issues under discussion in such international fora as the World Food Council the Multilateral Trade Negotiations the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development and the International Wheat Council Issues surrounding international food security food needs of developing countries and food aid and malnutrition are delineated and alternative solutions to problems are suggested The conference was sponsored by the U S Department of Agriculture Economic Research Service Labor Literature, 1976 The New Context for International Relations Dennis Pirages, 1978 Who's Involved with Hunger Patricia L. Kutzner, Mark Lewy, Christina Miller, World Hunger Education Service, 1979 International Trade Reporter's U.S. Export Weekly, 1976 Brookings at Seventy-Five James Allen Smith, 2010-12-01 The historian James Allen Smith traces the evolution of Washington's oldest and prototypical think tank on the occasion of its seventy fifth anniversary in 1991 Dedicated to bringing expertise to bear on public policy issues Brookings has been a pioneer in bridging the disparate worlds of social science research and American policymaking But while its efforts have been made steady there have been frustrations and controversy over the years Inspired by the scientific management and government efficiency movements in the Progressive Era Brookings has evolved from an organization that consulted with government agencies on accounting and personnel practices into an institution with a wide ranging research and publishing program as well as active public policy education and media outreach efforts Smith vividly tells of the key individuals beginning with Robert Brookings who have shaped the institution He recounts its relationships with financial supporters and presidential administrations and he candidly discusses the problems surrounding efforts at funding Smith places the Brookings research program in an intellectual context and within the changing policymaking environment of Washington He reveals how Brookings has withstood seventy five years of shifts in national politics external perceptions on the institution and internal leadership to emerge as one of the most prominent sources of policy expertise in the world The proliferation of private think tanks and the expansion of governmental research agencies in the past quarter century have changed the policy environment The Brookings Institution on its seventy fifth anniversary offers a singular vantage point from which to observe the ever changing relationship between expert knowledge and political decisionmaking in our democracy
