Recasting Autobiography Barbara Kosta,1994 For all four Kosta demonstrates autobiography is at once a process of remembering and working through national and personal trauma a task of mourning and healing and an act of self invention

Recasting Autobiography Barbara Kosta,1994 In one of the first books to address the New German Cinema from a feminist perspective Barbara Kosta looks closely at two autobiographical films Helma Sanders Brahm's Germany Pale Mother and Jutta Brückner's Years of Hunger and at two books Ruth Rehmann's Man in the Pulpit Questions for a Father and Christa Wolf's Patterns of Childhood In different ways Kosta shows these works of the 1970s and 1980s have recast traditional autobiography offering fresh characters in new roles exploring innovative forms of expression and confronting long repressed themes such as the devaluation of the female voice and the horror of Germany's fascist past Borderwork

Confessions of the Critics H. Aram Veaser, 2014-05-01 The Confessions of the Critics shatters a certain silence Autobiographical criticism has until now skated relatively free from the challenges that usually assail a new literary critical method It has had this immunity from critique largely because feminists and third world liberation fighters such as Alice Walker Adrienne Rich and Jane Gallop ushered it to the North American academic stage Other women and men including Rigoberta Menchu Nawal al Sadawi Mahasweta Devi and Malcolm X wrote in the tradition and genre of testimonio These and other unimpeachably militant backgrounds gave confessional criticism a certain cache among the largely liberal community of literary scholars We have hesitated to express misgivings about a form that seemed intrinsically tied to the most vital powerful strivings Telling stories about one's own past is probably our culture's richest way of characterizing the effects of social injustice and developing what it takes to resist various kinds of victimage writes contributor Charles Altieri Confessions of the Critics provides a revealing look into the thoughts and experiences of some of the most influential and important critics of the 20th century The writers included avoid pretention and gross self misrepresentation giving way to raw sometimes embarrassing always wholly believable emotion Describing cumulative literary shocks and episodes of self recognition contributors offer insights to their ruling passions and works Powerful sensations emotions recognitions and revelations make up the heart of Confessions of the Critics It is a book that none will put aside or easily forget Contributors Charles Altieri William Andrews Michael F Berube Timothy Brennan Gillian Brown Cathy Davidson Elizabeth Fox Genovese Diane Freedman Marjorie Garber Gerald Graff Stephen J Greenblatt Michael Hill Marianne Hirsch Alice Yeager Kaplan Amitava Kumar Candace Lang Louis Menand Judith Lowder Newton Linda Orr Vincent Pecora David Simpson Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Madelon Sprengnether Jane Tompkins Marianna Torgovnick H Aram Veaser Jeffrey Williams Elizabeth Young Bruehl

Feminist Conversations Christina Zwarg, 1995 In a new account of the relationship between Margaret Fuller and Ralph Waldo Emerson Christina Zwarg recreates a feminist conversation that has gone unheard In Zwarg's view the intimate yet restrained letters between the two writers are most significant in confronting the challenges posed by gender and desire Focusing on their exploration of Charles Fourier's utopianism and particularly his concept of passionate attraction Zwarg offers the only detailed reading of Emerson's letters to Fuller

Auto/biography Studies, 1994

Reading Autobiography Sidonie Smith, 2001 German Life Writing in the Twentieth Century Birgit Dahlke, Dennis Tate, Roger Woods, 2010 Life writing an increasingly accepted category among scholars of literature and other disciplines encompasses not just autobiography and biography but also memoirs diaries letters interviews and even non written texts such as film Whether these were produced in diary or letter form as events unfolded or long after the event in the form of autobiographical prose common to all are attempts by individuals to make sense of their experiences In many such texts the authors reassess their lives against the background of a broader public debate about the past This book of essays examines German life writing after major turning points in twentieth century German history the First World War the Nazi era the postwar division of Germany and the collapse of socialism and German unification The volume is distinctive because it combines an overview of academic approaches to the study of life writing with a set of German language case studies In this respect it goes further than existing studies which often present life writing material without indicating how it might fit into our broader understanding of a particular culture or historical period Kassandra and the Censors Karen Van Dyck, 2018-05-31 In this pioneering study of contemporary Greek poetry Karen Van Dyck investigates modernist and postmodernist poetics at the edge of Europe She traces the influential role of Greek women writers back to the sexual politics of censorship under the dictatorship 1967-1974 Reading the effects of censorship in cartoons the dictator's speeches the poetry of the Nobel Laureate George Seferis and the younger generation of poets she shows how women poets use strategies which although initiated in response to the regime's press law prove useful in articulating a feminist critique In poetry collections by Rhea Galanaki Jenny Mastoraki and Maria Laina among others she analyzes how the censors' tactics for stabilizing signification are redeployed to disrupt fixed meanings and gender roles As much a literary analysis of culture as a cultural analysis of literature her book explores how censorship consumerism and feminism influence contemporary Greek women's poetry as well as how the resistance to clarity in this poetry trains readers to rethink these cultural practices Only with greater attention to the cultural and formal specificity of writing Van Dyck argues is it possible to theorize the lessons of censorship and women's writing Sites Under Construction Lisa Marie Jennings, 2004 Women, Autobiography, Theory Sidonie Smith, Julia Watson, 1998 The first comprehensive guide to the burgeoning field of women's autobiography Essays from 39 prominent critics and writers explore narratives across the centuries and from around the globe A list of more than 200 women's autobiographies and a comprehensive bibliography provide invaluable information for scholars teachers and readers International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences, 1996 Re-reading and Re-writing Multiculturalism Heike Hofmann Henderson, 1997 Penelope Voyages Karen R. Lawrence, 2018-08-06 Looking at travel writing by British women from the seventeenth century on Karen R. Lawrence asks an intriguing question What happens when instead of waiting patiently for Odysseus Penelope voyages and records her journey when the woman who is expected to wait sets forth herself and traces an itinerary of her own Lawrence ranges widely discussing both fiction and nonfiction and traversing the genres of travel letters realistic and sentimental novels ethnography fantasy and postmodern narrative In examining works as dissimilar as Margaret Cavendish's rendition of the Renaissance adventure narrative and Christine Brooke-Rose's postmodernist Between she explores not only the significance of gender for travel writing but also the value of travel itself for testing the limits of women's social freedoms and restraints Lawrence shows how writings by Frances Burney Mary Wollstonecraft Sarah Lee Mary

Kingsley Virginia Woolf and Brigid Brophy reconceive the meanings of femininity in relation to such apparent oppositions as travel home other self and foreign domestic Despite the differences historical generic political among these writers Lawrence maintains they share common insights Their accounts overturn the dichotomy between adventure and domesticity demonstrating something illusory within both the stability of home and the freedom of travel Nobody's Angels Elizabeth Langland,1995 Langland argues that the middle class wife had a more complex and important function than has previously been recognized she mastered skills that enabled her to support a rigid class system while unknowingly setting the stage for a feminist revolution Going Public Elizabeth C. Goldsmith,Dena Goodman,1995 Exploring the ways in which French women went public through publication this book shows how they contributed to the formation of the public sphere in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Going Public also takes the critical literature on the woman writer to a new level by examining the implications of print publicity The contributors investigate the intersection of gender and publicity in a wide range of printed texts from memoirs and legal briefs to novels poems and fairy tales In doing so they reveal much about why individual women drawn from the whole spectrum of society embraced the medium of print and about the impact this form of publicity had on their lives
