Stories and Portraits of the Self Helena Carvalhão Buescu, João Ferreira Duarte, 2007 In contemporary societies privatization has long ceased to be just an economic concept rather it must increasingly be made to refer to the ongoing shrinking of the public space under the impact of the representation of individual lives and images which cuts across all discourses genres and media to become one of the primary means of production of culture This volume is intended to cover such an historical social and intellectual ground where self representation comes to the fore Targeting mostly an academic readership but certainly also of interest to the general educated public it collects a wide range of essays dealing with diverse modes of life writing and portraying from a variety of perspectives and focusing on different historical periods and media It thus offers itself as a major contribution to a better understanding of the world we live in its past legacy and present configuration Contents Introduction Signposts of the Self in Modernity Part I The Representational Dilemma Christopher PRENDERGAST The Self as a Work of Art Proust's Scepticism Paulo DE MEDEIROS Re Constructing Re Membering Postcolonial Selves Aleksandra PODSIADLIK Doing Identity in Fiction Identity Construction as a Dialogue between Individuals and Cultural Narratives Clara ROWLAND Self Representation and Temporality Parabasis in Guimarães Rosa's Grande Sertão Veredas Daniel ROVERS New Man Marie Kessels Inner Portrait of a Writing Self Gaston FRANSSEN Good Intentions Ethical Commitment and Impersonal Poetry The Work of Gerrit Kouwenaar Jan RUPP For Getting Plural Selves Narrative and Identity in Caryl Phillips's A Distant Shore Lars BERNAERTS The Straitjacket of Normality The Interaction which will be indispensable for students and scholars of German literature and all those interested in women's and gender studies

The American Biographical Novel Michael Lackey, 2016-04-07 Before the 1970s there were only a few acclaimed biographical novels. But starting in the 1980s there was a veritable explosion of this genre of fiction leading to the publication of spectacular biographical novels about figures as varied as Abraham Lincoln, Ludwig Wittgenstein, Friedrich Nietzsche, Emily Dickinson, Virginia Woolf, Henry James, and Marilyn Monroe, just to mention a notable few. This publication frenzy culminated in 1999 when two biographical novels, Michael Cunningham's The Hours and Russell Banks' Cloudsplitter, were nominated for the Pulitzer Prize, and Cunningham's novel won the award. In The American Biographical Novel, Michael Lackey charts the shifts in intellectual history that made the biographical novel acceptable to the literary establishment and popular with the general reading public. More specifically, Lackey clarifies the origin and evolution of this genre of fiction, specifies the kind of truth it communicates, provides a framework for identifying how this genre uniquely engages the political, and demonstrates how it gives readers new access to history.

Recasting Historical Women Stephanie Bird, 1998-04 This book presents critical readings of eight contemporary German novels which feature historically documented women as their main protagonist and which reconstruct women's lives by combining source material and invention. Protagonists include Cornelia Goethe, Caroline Schlegel-Schelling, Karoline von Guenderode, and Charlotte Corday. Through a thorough examination of these novels, the wider complexities of female identity, feminism, literary technique, and historiography are illuminated and discussed. The author examines how historical events are used to substantiate ideological positions and how the narrators consider this problematic aspect of their project.

Imagining the Age of Goethe in German Literature, 1970-2010 John David Pizer, 2011 This is the first book-length study devoted to modern German author as character fiction set in the Age of Goethe. It shows for the first time in a sustained manner the powerful hold the Goethezeit continues to exercise on the imagination of many of Germany's leading writers. This inner German dialogue across the ages provides an important corrective to the dominant critical view that contemporary German language literature is composed primarily under the sign of both globalization and the influence of mass American culture.

Anne Duden: a Revolution of Words Heike Bartel, Elizabeth Boa, 2003 Anne Duden's reputation as one of the most innovative writers of her generation, established in 1982 with the experimental stories in bergang, was confirmed in 1985 by Das Judasschaf, a novel interweaving an individual's anguish with the cultural trauma of the German past. In her acclaimed poem cycles Steinschlag (1993) and Hingegend (1999), Duden pushes the limits of language in densely metaphoric evocations of landscapes and places of political and personal remembrance, mixing lament for ruined nature with grotesque comedy, mystic vision with horror. Duden is a distinguished practitioner of short forms. Her essays display the same intense engagement with the visual arts as informs her narrative texts. Her deep interest in music is echoed in the musicality of short prose poems. This volume presents for the first time a comprehensive collection of approaches to Duden's fiction, poetry, and essays by international scholars. Topics include the ethics and aesthetics of Duden's engagement with German history her constructions of female subjectivity her criticism of western dualistic thinking with its devaluation of the body and exploitation of nature her position within a modernist tradition with roots in the Romantic Age the visual arts and poetic influences such as Hölderlin and Celan the dilemmas of translating Duden's highly individual style Three essays on Steinschlag constitute the first systematic reading of this difficult much praised cycle

Neo-Victorian Biofiction, 2020-09-07 This volume explores the many paradoxes of neo Victorian biofiction a genre that yokes together the real and the imaginary biography and fiction and generates oxymoronic combinations like creative facts fictional truth or poetic truthfulness Contemporary biofictions recreating nineteenth century lives demonstrate the crucial but always ethically ambiguous revision and supplementation of the historical archive Due to the tension between ethical empathy and consumerist voyeurism between traumatic testimony and exploitative expos the epistemological response is per force one of hermeneutic suspicion and iconoclasm In the final account this volume highlights neo Victorianism's deconstruction of master narratives and the consequent democratic rehabilitation of over looked microhistories

Biofictional Histories, Mutations and Forms Michael Lackey, 2018-10-03 Biofiction defined as literature that names its protagonist after an actual historical figure first became popular in the 1930s but over the last forty years it has become a dominant literary form Prominent writers such as J M Coetzee Joyce Carol Oates Russell Banks Julia Alvarez Peter Carey Hilary Mantel Colm Tóibín Anne Enright Colum McCann and Michael Cunningham have authored spectacular biographical novels which have won some of the world's most prestigious awards for fiction However in spite of the prominence of these authors works and awards there has been considerable confusion about the nature of biofiction This collection of process pieces and academic essays from authors and scholars of biofiction defines the nature of the aesthetic form clarifies why it has come into being specifies what it is uniquely capable of signifying illustrates how it pictures the historical and critiques the political and suggests potential directions for future studies This book was originally published as a special issue of Auto Biography Studies

The Nineteenth Century Revis(it)ed Ina Bergmann, 2020-12-29 The Nineteenth Century Revis it ed The New Historical Fiction explores the renaissance of the American historical novel at the turn of the twenty first century The study examines the revision of nineteenth century historical events in cultural products against the background of recent theoretical trends in American studies It combines insights of literary studies with scholarship on popular culture The focus of representation is the long nineteenth century a period from the early republic to World War I as a key epoch of the nation building project of the United States The study explores the constructedness of historical tradition and the cultural resonance of historical events within the discourse on the contemporary novel and the theory formation surrounding it At the center of the discussion are the unprecedented literary output and critical as well as popular success of historical fiction in the USA since 1995 An additional postcolonial and transatlantic perspective is provided by the incorporation of texts by British and Australian authors and especially by the inclusion of insights from neo

Victorian studies The book provides a critical comment on current and topical developments in American literature culture and historiography Narrative is the Essence of History John Cameron, 2012-03-15 The historical novel has had a very interesting history itself During the 19th century the historical novels of Scott Hugo Thackeray Dickens Tolstoy and a host of other writers enjoyed both popular success and critical admiration Success has never really died out but admiration has been another matter During the 20th century historical fiction began to be disparaged by critics who looked down on the genre and its elements of romance adventure and swashbuckling This disparagement reached such a pitch that Robert Graves author of I Claudius and Claudius the God felt compelled to say that he wrote these novels only because of pressing financial needs As the century wore on the genre began to move in a variety of interesting ways and reached even larger audiences Some critics have continued to look down on the genre but a growing number of historical novels have begun to receive wide critical praise The Roman historian Ronald Syme once wrote that narrative is the essence of history What is the essence of historical fiction Why does it continue to be such a popular and resilient genre What is the history of historical fiction What is its future Physiognomy in Profile Melissa Percival, Graeme Tytler, 2005 Physiognomy in Profile affirms and assesses Lavater's contribution to European culture in the two hundred years after his death It examines how Lavater's vision of physiognomy as a viable method of interpreting the modern world has been repeatedly affirmed and challenged Previous monographs on Lavater have tended to focus on one particular theme discipline or historical period but this study deliberately adopts a cross disciplinary approach and covers a broad historical time frame Some widely different material is juxtaposed painting photography fiction journalism medical texts in order to explore recurring issues in physiognomical thought Essays are arranged in chronological order so that the reader can gain a sense of the shared preoccupations of Lavater's contemporaries and successors But the book may also be read thematically BOOK JACKET New Books on Women and Feminism, 1999 Bibliographic Guide to Womens Studies 1998 New York Public Library Staff, 1999-08 Geschichte der deutschen Literatur von 1945 bis zur Gegenwart Helmut de Boor, Richard Newald, 2006 Diese renommierte und von der Kritik einhellig gelobte deutsche Literaturgeschichte reichte ursprünglich von 1945 bis zur deutschen Einheit 1989 1990 Für die Neuauflage wurde sie von den Autoren um zusätzliches Kapitel erweitert die den Zeitraum bis etwa 2002 abdecken Das Buch ist nicht nur die umfassendste Geschichte der deutschen Literatur dieses Zeitraums sondern auch die aktuellste Die großen Abschnitte des Bandes sind grundsätzlich gleich aufgebaut Es beginnt jeweils mit einer Darstellung des literarischen Lebens der Gruppierungen Programme Tendenzen Skandale usw Das zweite Kapitel gilt immer der Erzählprosa das dritte der Lyrik dann folgt ein Kapitel über das Hörspiel Den Abschluss bildet jeweils die dramatische Literatur Auf diese Weise fällt es dem Leser leicht Querverbindungen zwischen den einzelnen Kapiteln zu ziehen Andererseits ist von jedem Einzelkapitel aus der Einstieg möglich Reisende durch Zeit und Raum Osman Durrani, Julian Preece, 2001 Feminist Studies, 1998
