Recent Perspectives on European Romanticism Larry H. Peer, 2002      New Perspectives on Contemporary German Science Fiction Lars Schmeink, Ingo Cornils, 2022-04-22 New Perspectives on Contemporary German Science Fiction demonstrates the variety and scope of German science fiction SF production in literature television and cinema The volume argues that speculative fictions and explorations of the fantastic provide a critical lens for studying the possibilities and limitations of paradigm shifts in society Lars Schmeink and Ingo Cornils bring together essays that study the renaissance of German SF in the twenty first century The volume makes clear that German SF is both global and local the genre is in balance between internationally dominant forms and adapting them to Germany's reality as it relates to migration the environment and human rights The essays explore a range of media literature cinema television and relevant political philosophical and cultural discourses      New Perspectives on the Greek War of Independence Yianni

Cartledge, Andrekos Varnava, 2022-11-23 This book marks the 200 year anniversary of uprisings in the Ottoman Balkans between February and March 1821 which became known in the West as the beginnings of the Greek War of Independence 1821 1832 and led to the formation of the modern Greek state It explores the war and its impact on societies involved by delving into the myths that surround it the realities that have often been ignored or suppressed and its lasting legacies on national identities and histories It also explores memory and commemoration in Greece in other countries impacted and the Greek diaspora This book offers a fresh perspective on this pivotal event in Greek Ottoman Balkan Mediterranean European and world histories It presents new research and reflections to connect the war to wider history and to understand its importance across the last 200 years      The Routledge Handbook of Research Methods in Spirituality and

Contemplative Studies Bernadette Flanagan, Kerri Clough, 2024-09-03 The Routledge Handbook of Research Methods in Spirituality and Contemplative Studies provides the first authoritative overview of methodology in this growing field Against the background of the pandemic and other global challenges spirituality is expanding as an agreed term with which to discuss the efforts people make to be fully present to deeper invisible dimensions of their personal identity and external reality but until now there have been few resources exploring the different methodological approaches researchers take This book explores the primary methodologies emerging First Person Second Person and Third Person and provides a systematisation of spirituality research in applied contexts for the first time Comprising 33 chapters by a team of international contributors the book is divided into seven parts Foundations Approaches to Contemplative Research Contemplative Research in Education Contemplative Research in Work and Leadership Contemplative Research in Science Health and Healing Contemplative Research in Social Sciences Contemplative Research and the Way Forward The Handbook provides readers practitioners and policymakers with methods and approaches which can facilitate a spiritual and contemplative stance in research activities It is an essential resource for researchers and students of Religion Spirituality and Research Methods      New Perspectives on Imagology ,2022-11-14 With this volume the editors Katharina Edtstadler Sandra Folie and Gianna Zocco propose an extension of the traditional conception of imagology as a theory and method for studying the cultural construction and literary representation of national usually European characters Consisting of an instructive introduction and 21 articles the book relates this sub field of comparative literature to contemporary political developments and enriches it with new interdisciplinary transnational intersectional and intermedial perspectives The contributions offer 1 a reconsideration and update of the field s methods genres and theoretical frames 2 trans post national migratory and marginalized perspectives beyond the European nation state 3 insights into geopolitical dichotomies such as Orient Occident 4 intersectional approaches considering the entanglements of national images with notions of age class gender sexuality and ethnicity race 5 investigations of the role of national images in visual narratives and music

Authoring the Self Scott Hess,2005-01-01 Drawing upon historicist and cultural studies approaches to literature this book argues that the Romantic construction of the self emerged out of the growth of commercial print culture and the expansion and fragmentation of the reading public beginning in eighteenth century Britain Arguing for continuity between eighteenth century literature and the rise of Romanticism this groundbreaking book traces the influence of new print market conditions on the development of the Romantic poetic self

European Literatures in Britain, 18-15-1832: Romantic Translations Diego Saglia,2019 Sheds new light on the presence and impact of Continental European literary traditions in post Napoleonic Britain

New Perspectives on People and Forests Eva Ritter,Dainis Dauksa,2011-04-29 The aim of this book is to elucidate the role of forests as part of a landscape in the life of people Most landscapes today are cultural landscapes that are influenced by human activity and that in turn have a profound effect on our understanding of and identification with a place The book proposes that a better understanding of the bond between people and forests as integrated part of a landscape may be helpful in landscape planning and may contribute to the discussion of changes in forest cover which has been motivated by land use changes rural development and the global climate debate To this end people s perception of forest landscapes the reasons for different perceptions and future perspectives are discussed Given the wide range of forest landscapes and cultural perspectives which exist across the world the book focuses on Europe as a test case to explore the various relationships between society culture forests and landscapes It looks at historical evidence of the impacts of people on forests and vice versa explores the current factors affecting people s physical and emotional comfort in forest landscapes and looks ahead to how changes in forest cover may alter the present relationships of people to forests Drawing together a diverse literature and combining the expertise of natural and social scientists this book will form a valuable reference for students and researchers working in the fields of landscape ecology and landscape architecture geography social science environmental psychology orenvironmental history It will also be of interest to researchers government agencies and practitioners with an interest in issues such as sustainable forest management sustainable tourism reserve management urban planning and environmental interpretation      Children Born of War Sabine Lee, Heide Glaesmer, Barbara Stelzl-Marx, 2021-07-28 This volume presents research from an international interdisciplinary and intersectoral research project in which 15 doctoral researchers explored a range of issues related to the life course experiences of children born of war in 20th century conflicts Children Born of War CBOW children fathered by foreign soldiers and born to local mothers during and after armed conflicts have long been neglected in the research of the social consequences of war Based on research projects completed under the auspices of the Horizon2020 funded international and interdisciplinary research and training network CHIBOW www.chibow.org this book examines the psychological and social impact of war on these children It focusses on three separate but interrelated themes firstly it explores methodological and ethical issues related to research with war affected populations in general and children born of war in particular Secondly it presents innovative historical research focussing specifically on geopolitical areas that have hitherto been unexplored and thirdly it addresses from a psychological and psychiatric perspective the challenges faced by children born of war in post conflict communities including stigmatisation discrimination within the significant context of identity formation when faced with contested memories of volatile post war experiences The book offers an insight into the social consequences of war for those children associated with the enemy by virtue of their direct biological link      Personality and Psychotherapy Jefferson A. Singer, 2005-08-25 Showing how and why contemporary personality science matters in the clinical context this book offers eminently practical tools for psychotherapists from any disciplinary background and will also be of interest to personality and social psychologists It is an ideal text for advanced undergraduate courses and for graduate seminars taught within clinical training programs BOOK JACKET      New Perspectives in Transatlantic Studies Heidi Slettedahl Macpherson, Will Kaufman, 2002-02-07 In the first edition of Transatlantic Studies Heidi Slettedahl Macpherson and Will Kaufman argued that a new field of studies was emerging from the separate fields of insular area studies such as American Studies European Studies and African Studies Now that Transatlantic Studies is a recognized area of inquiry in its own right Macpherson and Kaufman extend their analysis of it New Perspectives in Transatlantic Studies aims to extend the definition of Transatlantic Studies and explore the implications of such a definition by supplying a critical perspective which links the diverse constituents of this interdisciplinary field Therefore it engages with issues of the contact zone in relation to globalization migration and the law examines transatlantic artistic and cultural representation and explores the economic philosophic and political implications of the transatlantic area      Picturing the Romantic Elisabeth Ansel, Johannes Grave, Christin Neubauer, Mira Claire Zadrozny, 2025-09-23 European Romanticism in the visual arts has always been defined by transnational transfer processes It is surprising that international aspects of Romantic movements have been in contrast to literary studies a gap in art historical research Picturing the Romantic addresses this issue and reveals new perspectives on European Romanticism s in the visual arts by reconsidering the phenomenon s traditional canon geographical dimensions and terminology and analysing various examples of the complex and heterogeneous works of Romantic painting In fifteen original essays renowned and early career researchers examine the question of whether to speak of several independently considered Romanticisms or one European Romanticism They adopt a transnational perspective on Romantic art in and beyond Europe focusing on the interconnections between the countries New Perspectives on Language Mobility Sarah Josefine Schaefer,2023-11-16 The diffusion of English and the increasing mediatization of our globalized world have significant impacts on our perceptions of language and culture Beginning with an overview of how the conceptualization of language is currently debated in sociolinguistics and related fields this book highlights the need for a new perspective on language mobility Through examining the use of English on German radio morning shows the book explores the dynamics of language use in times of accelerated globalization and provides insights into how the media operate within the global flows of messages and linguistic resources that characterize our mediatized societies In doing so it demonstrates how combining the different perspectives of a sociolinguistics of mobility and contact linguistics allows for a thorough investigation of language practices in society and advances the theoretical and practical approaches to the study of language mobility as a result

Renaissance? Perceptions of Continuity and Discontinuity in Europe, c.1300- c.1550,2010-09-24 At least since the publication of Burckhardt's seminal study the Renaissance has commonly been understood in terms of discontinuities Seen as a radical departure from the intellectual and cultural norms of the Middle Ages it has often been associated with the revival of classical Antiquity and the transformation of the arts and has been viewed primarily as an Italian phenomenon In keeping with recent revisionist trends however the essays in this volume explore moments of profound intellectual artistic and geographical continuity which challenge preconceptions of the Renaissance Examining themes such as Shakespearean tragedy Michelangelo's mythologies Johannes Tinctoris's view of music the advent of printing Burgundian book collections and Bohemian renovation this volume casts a revealing new light on the Renaissance Contributors include Klara Benešová Robert Black Stephen Bowd Matteo Burioni Ingrid Ciulisová Johannes Grave Luke Houghton Robin Kirkpatrick Alexander Lee Diotima Liantini Andrew Pettegree Rhys W. Roark Maria Ruvoldt Jeffrey Chipps Smith Robin Sowerby George Steiris Rob C. Wegman and Hanno Wijsman A Companion to the British and Irish Short Story David Malcolm, Cheryl Alexander

Malcolm,2009-01-30 A Companion to the British and Irish Short Story provides a comprehensive treatment of short fiction writing and chronicles its development in Britain and Ireland from 1880 to the present Provides a comprehensive treatment of the short story in Britain and Ireland as it developed over the period 1880 to the present Includes essays on topics and genres as well as on individual texts and authors Comprises chapters on women's writing Irish fiction gay and lesbian writing and short fiction by immigrants to Britain The Last Romantic Jeffrey W. Barbeau,2025-01-28 In this theological and literary investigation Jeffrey Barbeau explores the influence of nineteenth century Romanticism on C. S. Lewis's writing in three essays Drawing on extensive reading of the marginalia Lewis's personal library Barbeau offers a fresh understanding of modern theology Romantic poetry and Lewis's most beloved works      A Companion to Modernist Literature and Culture David Bradshaw, Kevin J. H. Dettmar, 2008-10-20 The Companion combines a broad grounding in the essential texts and contexts of the modernist movement with the unique insights of scholars whose careers have been devoted to the study of modernism An essential resource for students and teachers of modernist literature and culture Broad in scope and comprehensive in coverage Includes more than 60 contributions from some of the most distinguished modernist scholars on both sides of the Atlantic Brings together entries on elements of modernist culture contemporary intellectual and aesthetic movements and all the genres of modernist writing and art Features 25 essays on the signal texts of modernist literature from James Joyce's Ulysses to Zora Neal Hurston's Their Eyes Were Watching God Pays close attention to both British and American modernism      "Was deutsch und echt..." Kasper Bastiaan van Kooten, 2019-03-25 By examining theoretical debates about the nature of nineteenth century German opera and analyzing the genre's development and its international dissemination this book shows German opera's entanglement with national identity formation The thorough study of German opera debates in the first half of the nineteenth century highlights the esthetic and ideological significance of this relatively neglected repertoire and helps to contextualize Richard Wagner's attempts to define German opera and to gain a reputation as the German opera composer par excellence By interpreting Wagner's esthetic endeavors as a continuation of previous campaigns for the emancipation of German opera this book adds an original and significant perspective to discussions about Wagner's relation to German nationalism      The Routledge Companion to Jane Austen Cheryl A. Wilson, Maria H. Frawley, 2021-10-13 First published anonymously as a lady Jane Austen is now among the world's most famous and highly revered authors The Routledge Companion to Jane Austen provides wide ranging coverage of Jane Austen's works reception and legacy with chapters that draw on the latest literary research and theory and represent foundational and authoritative scholarship as well as new approaches to an author whose works provide seemingly endless inspiration for reinterpretation adaptation and appropriation The Companion provides up to date work by an international team of established and emerging Austen scholars and includes exciting chapters not just on Austen in her time but on her ongoing afterlife whether in the academy and the wider world of her fans or in cinema new media and the commercial world Parts within the volume explore Jane Austen in her time and within the literary canon the literary critical and theoretical study of her novels unpublished writing and her correspondence and the afterlife of her work as exemplified in film digital humanities and new media In addition the Companion devotes special attention to teaching Jane Austen      [Catalog of Copyright Entries.
