John Robert Lee has been described as the foremost Caribbean Christian writer of his generation with a truly incarnational view of faith anchored in the reality of human experience and expressed in richly textured images of Caribbean landscapes dress street life music dance and his native Creole language The selected poems in Sighting and other poems of faith mark the pilgrims progress of this writer over three decades In the poems he sees his life and experiences through the lens of the Christian faith yet in the words of Nobel laureate Derek Walcott his Saint Lucian contemporary you dont get in the poetry anything that is in a sense preachy or self advertising in terms of its morality His is a poetry that is rooted in the flesh and blood reality of his times even as he looks beyond to the transcendent promises of his faith St Lucia Boston the Haitian earthquake of 2010 are the scenes to which he turns his perceptive gaze with a poetry that is remarkably mature The poetry is accessible to anyone who loves a craftsman who turns the language into startling and provocative images New

Directions in Contemporary Australian Poetry Dan Disney, Matthew Hall, 2021-10-04 This book sets out to navigate questions of the future of Australian poetry Deliberately designed as a dialogue between poets each of the four clusters presented here Indigeneities Political Landscapes Space Place Materiality Revising an Australian Mythos models how poetic communities in Australia continue to grow in alliance toward certain constellated ideas Exploring the ethics of creative production in a place that continues to position capital over culture property over community each of the twenty essays in this anthology takes the subject of Australian poetry definitively beyond Eurocentrism and white privilege By pushing back against nationalizing mythologies that have over the last 200 years since colonization not only narrativized the logic of instrumentalization but rendered our lands precarious this book asserts new possibilities of creative responsiveness within the Australian sensorium The Birds and Other Poems Lewis Ellingham, 2009 Poetry San Francisco poet and longtime resident Lew Ellingham presents a selection of poems which unites cultural interests with the adventures of an expert bird watcher Samuel R Delany says This is astonishing poetry lucid inventive at once deeply civilized and wonderfully sensitive to the marvelous The Oxford Handbook of Modern and Contemporary American Poetry Cary Nelson, 2012-02-16 The

Shifting Ground Bonnie. COSTELLO, Bonnie Costello, 2009-06-30 Just as the look of the American landscape has changed since the nineteenth century so has our idea of landscape Here Bonnie Costello reads six twentieth century American poets who have reflected and shaped this transformation and in the process renovated landscape by drawing new images from the natural world and creating new forms for imagining the earth and our relation to it

In the Process of Poetry William Watkin, 2001 This is the first major theoretical study of the four main figures of the New York School John Ashbery Frank O Hara Kenneth Koch and James Schuyler Proposing a reinterpretation of the definition of the avant garde William Watkin describes it as a movement typified by its commitment to art in process over the final art product In a series of in depth and wide reaching readings he then goes on to test this assertion in detailed relation to the poetry of the New York School while also examining how the poets own work further develops and analyses the concept of the avant garde in contemporary culture

Ethics and Politics in Modern American Poetry John Wrighton, 2012-06-25 From the Objectivists to e poetry this thoughtful and innovative book explores the dynamic relationship between the ethical imperative and poetic practice revitalizing the study of the most prominent post war American poets in a fresh provocative way Contributing to the turn to ethics in literary studies the book begins with Emmanuel Levinas philosophy proposing that his reorientation of ontology and ethics demands a social responsibility In poetic practice this responsibility for the other it is argued is both responsive to the traumatized semiotics of our shared language and directed towards an emancipatory social activism Individual chapters deal with Charles Olson s The Maximus Poems including reproductions of previously unpublished archive material Gary Snyder s environmental poetry Allen

Ginsberg's Beat poetics Jerome Rothenberg's ethnopoetics and Bruce Andrews' Language poetry Following the book's chronological and contextual approach their work is situated within a constellation of poetic schools and movements and in relation to the shifting socio-political conditions of post-war America In its redefinition and extension of the key notion of poethics and as guide to the development of experimental work in modern American poetry this book will interest and appeal to a wide audience

Poetry, Architecture, and the New York School Mae Losasso, 2023-12-20 Poetry Architecture and the New York School Something Like a Liveable Space examines the relationship between poetics and architecture in the work of the first generation New York School poets Frank O'Hara John Ashbery Barbara Guest and James Schuyler Reappraising the much debated New York School label Mae Losasso shows how these writers constructed poetic spaces structures surfaces and apertures and sought to figure themselves and their readers in relation to these architextual sites In doing so Losasso reveals how the built environment shapes the poetic imagination and how in turn poetry alters the way we read and inhabit architectural space Animated by archival research and architectural photographs Poetry Architecture and the New York School marks a decisive interdisciplinary turn in New York School studies and offers new frameworks for thinking about postmodern American poetry in the twenty-first century

Modern Poetry after Modernism James Longenbach, 1997-11-27 In this book James Longenbach develops a fresh approach to major American poetry after modernism Rethinking the influential breakthrough narrative the oft-told story of postmodern poets throwing off their modernist shackles in the 1950s Longenbach offers a more nuanced perspective Reading a diverse range of poets John Ashbery Elizabeth Bishop Amy Clampitt Jorie Graham Richard Howard Randall Jarrell Robert Lowell Robert Pinsky and Richard Wilbur Longenbach reveals that American poets since mid-century have not so much disowned their modernist past as extended elements of modernism that other readers have suppressed or neglected to see In the process Longenbach allows readers to experience the wide variety of poetics written in our time without asking us to choose between them

Archiving Caribbean Identity John Aarons, Jeannette A. Bastian, Stanley Hazley Griffin, 2022-06-12 Archiving Caribbean Identity highlights the Caribbeanization of archives in the region considering what those archives could include in the future and exploring the potential for new records in new formats Interpreting records in the broadest sense the 15 chapters in this volume explore a wide variety of records that represent new archival interpretations The book is split into two parts with the first part focusing on record forms that are not generally considered archival in traditional Western practice The second part explores more traditional archival collections and demonstrates how these collections are analysed and presented from the perspective of Caribbean peoples As a whole the volume suggests how colonial records can be repurposed to surface Caribbean narratives Reflecting on the unique challenges faced by developing countries as they approach their archives the volume considers how to identify and archive records in the forms and formats that reflect the postcolonial and decolonized Caribbean how to build an archive of the people that documents contemporary society and reflects Caribbean memory and how to repurpose the colonial archives so that they assist the Caribbean in reclaiming its history Archiving Caribbean Identity demonstrates how non textual cultural traces function as archival records and how folk centred perspectives disrupt conventional understandings of records The book should thus be of interest to academics and students engaged in the study of archives memory culture history sociology and the colonial and postcolonial experience

Planets on Tables Bonnie Costello, 2018-07-05 Poets have long been drawn to the images and techniques of still life Artists and poets alike present intimate worlds where time is suspended in the play of form and color and where history disappears amid everyday things The genre of still life with its focus on the domestic sphere seemed to some a retreat from the political and economic pressures of the last century Yet many American artists and writers found in the arrangement of local objects a way to connect the individual to larger public concerns Indeed the debates over still life reveal just what is at stake in the long standing quarrel over poetry's meaning and usefulness By exploring literary works of still life by Wallace Stevens William Carlos Williams Elizabeth Bishop and Richard Wilbur as well as the art of Joseph Cornell the eminent critic Bonnie Costello considers how exchanges between the arts help to establish vital thresholds between the personal and public realms In her view Stevens and Williams bring the turmoil of history into their struggle for local aesthetic order Bishop studies history in the intimate objects and arrangements she finds in her travels Cornell an artist inspired by poetry and loved by poets links his dream boxes to contemporary events and Richard Wilbur seeks to mend a broken postwar world within the hospitable spheres of art and home In Planets on Tables Costello describes a period when some of America's greatest poets and artists found in still life a way to contemplate the good in the midst of confusion to bring the distant near and to resist rather than escape the pressures of their times

The Ecopoetics of War Sylvain Belluc, Isabelle Brasme, Guillaume Tanguy, 2024-12-30 The Ecopoetics of War explores the

interrelationality of human and nonhuman entities in the context of conflict as recorded in literature and culture This collection of essays demonstrates the specific and fertile role of literature in representations of war as it foregrounds the manifold ways in which the borders between human and nonhuman including flora fauna and technology become porous thus questioning traditional onto epistemological and ethical categories Bringing together British American and postcolonial studies The Ecopoetics of War covers a variety of historical periods geographical areas and literary genres Interdisciplinary in its outlook it intertwines war studies ecocriticism literary theory philosophy and cultural studies By analyzing the stylistic and discursive strategies devised by writers to translate the sensory experience of the battlefield the contributors shed light on the unique capacity of literature to foreground the entanglement of human and nonhuman in the context of armed conflict and thus unveil an ecopoetics of war This collection will interest scholars of literature specialists of war studies and ecocriticism and any reader interested in such issues such as ecowar ecocide the Anthropocene or environmental justice It can inspire interdisciplinary teaching or research projects especially in the current context of global environmental crisis
