Riding Old Trails James Curtis, 1983-06-01 Riding Old Trails James Curtis, 1976 The National Old Trails Road Joseph Macaulay Lowe, 1924 Riding My Bike - A bikepacker's tales from the trails Mike Raine, A bikepacker's tales from the trails Bikepacking has been an activity since bikes were invented but in recent years it has really grown in popularity The UK has proven itself to be an exceptional place for bike bound off road adventures In this book Mike takes you on his journey to becoming a competent bikepacker and it's filled with top tips and good advice It contains tales from some of our greatest bikepacking routes including the Highland Trail 550 the Trans Cambrian and the Lakeland 300 routes The centrepiece of the book is Mike's own Cylchdaith Cymru Welsh 550 journey around his adopted home of Wales Mike is a naturalist mountaineer and educator and as such he comments knowledgeably on the countryside and how it is being managed He tells tales of the people he meets the people he cycles with and the places he visits This is a bikepacking travelogue for our times An engaging account of bikepacking as it should be done with head up and eyes open Jethro Jessop Bikepacker and YouTuber I love how Mike has added the nature writing and history into his personal story of bikepacking This book emphasises the importance of being outside in nature and of movement through the environment It contains great practical and technical information for those starting out but it is a personal journey from naive beginnings to travelling and exploring the natural world the unconscious competency This book is so much more interesting than simply going faster going stronger Rosie Baxendine she her Bikepacking Guide This is a book full of information anecdotes and useful insights written by a man who has climbed walked and biked around most of the UK and Ireland Mike's beautifully written travelogue clearly indicates his intimate knowledge of ecology geology history travel and a sense of place A cracking read Iolo Williams Naturalist and Broadcaster

Ride the Dark Trail Louis L'Amour, 2003-09-30 In Ride the Dark Trail Louis L'Amour tells the story of Logan Sackett a cynical drifter who changes his ways to help a widow keep her land Logan Sackett is wild and rootless riding west in search of easy living Then he meets Emily Talon a fiery old widow who is even wilder than he is Tall and lean Em is determined to defend herself against the jealous locals who are trying to take her home Logan doesn't want to get involved until he finds out that Em was born a Sackett Em is bucking overwhelming odds but Logan won't let her stand alone For even the rebellious drifter knows that part of being a Sackett is backing up your family when they need you Old Trails on the Niagara Frontier Frank Hayward Severance, 1899 Following Old Trails Arthur L. Stone, 1913 Originally a series of newspaper features in the Missoulian A number of events in Flathead history are discussed Hell Gate Treaty Delaware Water Gap National Recreation Area, Trails Plan, 1999 Hiawatha National Forest (N.F.), Revised Land and Resource Management Plan, 2006 The Valley of Opportunity Steven F. Mehls, 1982 This publication represents the latest Class I History to be written for the western slope of Colorado Our three districts in this region of Colorado now have histories specifically for them Such works provide a valuable and needed synthesis of history and literature for these areas and also gives our managers data that are used on a daily basis for land use decision making Multiple land use is a Bureau mission that is being met Oil and gas coal oil shale and other energy minerals not to mention rights of ways grazing programs recreation projects and land use planning are all supported by histories such as this Resource Management Plans and subsequent Environmental Impact Statements that are produced for the Bureau s Area Offices are the foundations for long term land use management The Glenwood Springs Colorado Resource Management Plan Environmental Impact Statement is a Bureau pilot document and serves as a management tool for the Glenwood Springs Resource Area This history Volley of Opportunity supports the Resource Management Plan In addition a history provides background and support for the upcoming Grand Junction Resource Area Management Plan Environmental Impact Statement The Volley of Opportunity has already been used for Oil Shale Environmental Statements and for the Federal Coal Leasing Program in the Grand Junction Colorado District Truly such histories are not only multiple use in scope but are also management tools that provide basic understanding for land use decisions Additionally this history represents an ongoing effort to provide the public reader with a work that is not only interesting but is also well researched In this way another sector is satisfied These histories are used by schools libraries universities and of course the general public Again multiple use is served Finally as the Volley of Opportunity was being prepared it happened that the City of Grand Junction s Centennial would occur in 1982 Coincidentally the Glenwood Springs Resource Management Plan will be published in November 1982 Since this history serves several purposes it is appropriate that it also is the Bureau s contribution to Grand Junction s Centennial celebration
