Riding the Currents Charles Halpern, 2008-01-21 This book is about working for a more just compassionate and sustainable world while cultivating the wisdom that supports and deepens this work Charles Halpern is a social entrepreneur with a remarkable record of institutional innovation He founded the Center for Law and Social Policy the nation's first public interest law firm litigating landmark environmental protection and constitutional rights cases As founding dean of the new City University of New York School of Law he initiated a bold program for training public interest lawyers as whole people Later as president of the 400 million Nathan Cummings Foundation he launched an innovative grant program that drew together social justice advocacy with meditation and spiritual inquiry In his years of activism he had a growing intuition that something was missing and he sought ways of developing inner resources that complemented his cognitive and adversarial skills. These explorations led him to the conviction that what he calls the practice of wisdom is essential to his effectiveness and well being and to our collective capacity to address the challenges of the 21st century successfully. With wit and self-deprecating humor Halpern shares candid and revealing lessons from every stage of his life describing his journey and the teachers and colleagues he encountered on the way. A cast of characters that includes Barney Frank and Ralph Nader, Ram Dass and the Dalai Lama. Making Waves and Riding the Currents vividly demonstrates the life-enhancing benefits of integrating a commitment to social justice with the cultivation of wisdom. It is a real world guide to effectively achieving social and institutional change while maintaining balance, compassion, and hope.

My Life Now and Then Dana Hawkins Jr., 2011-01-04. This book is about a boy raised in the streets of East Cleveland, one of the most impoverished cities in the country, with out either parent that had been incarcerated since he was 3 and did over 10 years a piece. Adapting to the criminal elements that surrounded him at an early age forced him to grow up fast and see a lot of things that gave him different views than the average street guy. Through trials and tribulation he began to see the light at the lowest point of his life, being incarcerated and dedicating his life to changing for the better. Forced back in the streets witnessing deaths, family members turning against him, people snitching, going through the average street problems he got tired of the game and came up with a plan to help his people. From him being in the streets so long and being apart of the problem he was able to fix it and save our children from the same underprivileged living that most predominantly black communities are forced in.

The Story of My Life Mary Ashton Rice Livermore, 1899. Riding Pardis Mahdavi, 2025-02-07. In Riding Pardis Mahdavi meditates on the lessons learned over a lifetime of horseback riding and the falling, failing, and joy it brings. At once a history of Caspian horses, an exploration of Mahdavi's Iranian-American identity and family history, and a consideration of the capacity for self-reflection and self-compassion through human-animal relationships, Riding offers a roadmap for learning to live in harmony with the self and the environment around us. Mahdavi shows how her relationship with horses gives her insights into intergenerational strength and tools for healing intergenerational trauma. Riding from the mountains of Iran to the beaches of California, Mahdavi shares her love affair with horses, rediscovers a homeland she longs for, and ultimately finds her strength.
