Reaching the Bar Robin Sax, 2009-03-10 Women account for 30% of the 1 14 million attorneys currently practicing in the U S and in 2007 48% of all juris doctor degrees were awarded to women Despite the growing appearance of women at the bar the law is still a profession dominated by older white men While some of the challenges an aspiring lawyer faces are the same regardless of gender other issues are particular hurdles for woman attorneys Reaching the Bar provides the perspectives of women lawyers to their peers and to women just getting started in their legal careers From their first torts class to their final case studies women at law have to make choices about what specialty degrees to pursue whether or when to have children and how they are going to respond to sexism in the workplace and the courtroom These books provide a forum for women at all levels to describe and examine those choices Reaching the Bar features stories from each stage of a lawyer s career beginning with the law school students and clerks through the corporate stages from junior associate to senior partner then on to late stage careers like judges or professors Reaching the Bar blends inspirational funny and dramatic stories with the constant theme of seasoned women looking back at their experiences and sharing what they ve learned Army Logistician , 2003 The official magazine of United States Army logistics A Thrice-Told Tale Margery Wolf, 1992-04 A Thrice Told Tale is one ethnographer s imaginative and powerful response to the methodological issues raised by feminist and postmodernist critics of traditional ethnography The author a feminist anthropologist uses three texts developed out of her research in Taiwan a piece of fiction anthropological fieldnotes and a social science article to explore some of these criticisms Each text takes a different perspective is written in a different style and has different outcomes yet all three involve the same fascinating set of events A young mother began to behave in a decidedly abhorrant perhaps suicidal manner and opinion in her village was sharply divided over the reason Was she becoming a shaman possessed by a god Was she deranged in need of physical restraint drugs and hospitalization Or was she being cynically manipulated by her ne'er do well husband to elicit sympathy and money from her neighbors In the end the woman was taken away from the area to her mother's house For some villagers this settled the matter for others the debate over her behavior was probably never truly resolved The first text is a short story written shortly after the incident which occurred almost thirty years ago the second text is a copy of the fieldnotes collected about the events covered in the short story the third text is an article published in 1990 in American Ethnologist that analyzes the incident from the author's current perspective Following each text is a Commentary in which the author discusses such topics as experimental ethnography polyvocality authorial presence and control reflexivity and some of the differences between fiction and ethnography The three texts are framed by two chapters in which the author discusses the general problems posed by feminist and postmodernist critics of ethnography and presents her personal exploration of these issues in an argument that is strongly self reflexive and theoretically rigorous She considers some feminist concerns over colonial research methods and takes issues with the insistence of some feminists that the topics of ethnographic research be set by those who are studied The book concludes with a plea for ethnographic responsibility based on a less academic and more practical perspective

FRAGILE PATHS, STRONG HEARTS: STORIES OF REBIRTH Mehmet Akpak, Advocates of Silenced Turkey, 2024-07-25 The story you will read below is based on real people and events Farzona an epitome of selflessness consumed by a desire to explore distant lands when she was a young girl Driven by this yearning she left her home and family to attend college thousands of miles away eventually spending her life dedicated to Hizmet across three countries on three different continents Aram following the footsteps of his teachers who have worked tirelessly to showcase the beauty of life the joy of cooperation and the critical role of nurturing minds in a foreign country where ongoing political conflicts and wars have claimed hundreds of thousands of lives and left a ravage behind Inspired by his dedicated teachers Aram had only one goal Living life to the fullest to contribute to the world and humanity Finally the story of a young academician who got married in a country far away from her homeland While pursuing her dreams in that country which was so dear to her her life took a dramatic turn and her dreams were abruptly interrupted She didn't know what was waiting for her a husband imprisoned unjustly a baby she gave birth to who was denied citizenship and police raids at her home The innocent woman was left with no other choice but to contact human smugglers and flee the country taking a very difficult and dangerous journey risking her life and her baby's life

Advertising Mara Einstein, 2017-07-03 3000 That's the number of marketing messages the average American confronts on a daily basis from TV commercials magazine and newspaper print ads radio commercials pop up ads on gaming apps pre roll ads on YouTube videos and native advertising on mobile news apps These commercial messages are so pervasive that we cannot help but be affected by perpetual come ons to keeping buying Over the last decade advertising has become more devious more digital and more deceptive with an increasing number of ads designed to appear to the untrained eye to be editorial content It s easy to see why As we have become smarter at avoiding ads advertisers have become smarter about disguising them Mara Einstein exposes how our shopping political and even dating preferences are unwittingly formed by brand images and the mythologies embedded in them Advertising What Everyone Needs to Know helps us combat the effects of manipulative advertising and enables the reader to understand how marketing industries work in the digital age particularly in their uses and abuses of Big Data Most importantly it awakens us to advertising s subtle and not so subtle impact on our lives both as individuals and as a global society What ideas and information are being communicated to us and to what end
