De Musica Verballi Libri Duo Gaspar Stoquerus, 1988-01-01 Gaspar Stoquerus's treatise De musica verballi ca 1570 is the only Renaissance treatise as yet discovered that is devoted entirely to the problem of text placement in vocal polyphony. Salient portions of Stoquerus's treatise were first discussed in 1961 by Edward E. Lowinsky and a more detailed synthesis of Stoquerus's treatise is contained in one chapter of Don Harran's Word Tone Relations in Musical Thought from Antiquity to the Seventeenth Century 1986. The present volume of Greek and Latin Music Theory offers the first critical edition of Stoquerus's entire treatise preceded by an extensive introduction and accompanied by a translation and annotations facing the Latin text. Indexes of terms, names and subjects are also included. The critical edition of the text provides a precise reading and comprehension of its contents while the translation enables readers to examine more closely the contents of the entire treatise especially Stoquerus's contextual arguments justifying his subject in general and his fifteen rules for text placement in particular. The introduction and annotations reveal Stoquerus's immersion in his historical milieu as a scholar, humanist and pedagogue. As a pedagogue in particular, Stoquerus is deeply immersed in the scholastic method of argumentation and advances his thought with precision and logic culminating in his closely reasoned set of fifteen rules for text placement and a simplification of the Guidonian method of solmization already in progress in Renaissance choir instruction books. This volume offers the first critical edition of Stoquerus's entire treatise, the only Renaissance treatise as yet discovered that is devoted entirely to the problem of text placement in vocal polyphony. Also included are an extensive introduction, a translation and annotations facing the Latin text and indexes of terms, names and subjects.

Ethics at War
Deane-Peter Baker, Rufus Black, Roger Herbert, Iain King, 2023-12-20 This book debates competing approaches to ethical decision making for members of the armed forces of liberal democratic states. In this volume four prominent thinkers propose and debate competing approaches to ethical decision making for military personnel. Deane Peter Baker presents and expounds the Ethical Triangulation model, an ethical decision making method he has employed through much of his career as an applied military ethicist. Rufus Black advocates for a natural law based approach, one which has heavily influenced the framework formally adopted by the Australian Defence Force. Roger Herbert outlines the Moral Deliberation Roadmap, the moral reasoning framework recently adopted by the US Naval Academy. Iain King then sets out a model of quasi-utilitarian decision making developed in several post-conflict settings and refined at the UK's Royal College of Defence Studies. After the opening chapters in which each author outlines their favoured decision making approach, the four contributors then evaluate each other's proposals, often critically. Philosopher David Whetham offers some concluding thoughts in which he summarizes areas of agreement between the authors, identifies key areas of difference and suggests directions for future research. This book will be of great interest to students of military ethics, the ethics of war, moral philosophy and International Relations as well as military professionals.

Aristotle and The Philosophy of Law: Theory, Practice and Justice Liesbeth Huppes-Cluysenaer, Nuno M.M.S.
