Right Thinking and Sacred Oratory in Counter-Reformation Rome Frederick J. McGinness, 2014-07-14 At the end of the sixteenth century when painters writers and scientists from all over Europe flocked to Rome for creative inspiration the city was also becoming the center of a vibrant and assertive Roman Catholic culture Closely identified with Rome the Counter Reformation church sought to strengthen itself by building on Rome's symbolic value and broadcasting its cultural message loudly and skillfully to the European world In a book that captures the texture and flavor of this rhetorical strategy Frederick McGinness explores the new emphasis placed on preaching by Roman church leaders Looking at the development of a sacred oratory designed to move the heart he traces the formation of a long lasting Catholic worldview and reveals the ingenuity of the Counter Reformation in the transformation of Renaissance humanism McGinness not only describes the theory of sermon writing but also reconstructs the circumstances social and physical in which sermons were delivered The author considers how sermons blended spirituality with pious legends for example stories of the early martyrs and evocative metaphors to fashion a respublica christiana of loyal Catholics Preachers projected a right view of history social relationships and ecclesiastical organization while depicting a spiritual topography upon which Catholics could chart a path to salvation At the center of this topography was Rome a vast stage set for religious pageantry which McGinness brings to life as he follows the homiletic representations of the city from a bastion of Christian militancy to a haven of harmony light and tranquility Originally published in 1995 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Hillis Miller and the Possibilities of Reading* Eamonn Dunne,2010-05-06 J Hillis Miller is undoubtedly one of the most important literary critics of the past century For well over five decades his work has been at the forefront of theoretical and philosophical thinking and writing From his earliest work with Georges Poulet and the so called Geneva School which introduced a generation of North American critics to the concept of a phenomenological literary hermeneutic to a deconstructive rhetorical philology and an ethically motivated textual analysis Miller s readings have not only reflected major movements in literary theory they have also created them Surprisingly Eamonn Dunne s J Hillis Miller and the Possibilities of Reading is the first book devoted exclusively to examining Miller s work Dunne argues that an appreciation of Miller is crucial to an informed understanding about the radical changes occurring in critical thinking in the humanities in recent years This book the first of its kind will be a vital and enabling avenue for further research into J Hillis Miller s exemplary and prolific output Law of Torts - II Mr. Rohit Manglik,2024-03-11 EduGorilla Publication is a stimulating introduction to the subject Jenny Steele provides a sound analysis of the key principles before exploring a wide range of critical perspectives through an extensive selection of cases and materials In the Image of God Shirley Mayhood, 2022-05-02 We were created in the image of our Creator It was a perfect and loving relationship but when Adam and Eve chose evil over that relationship with their Creator that image of God we were created with was lost to us In our world today many Christians are more attuned to the world than to God's Word Many seem to have the attitude that because they are in the world they must be like the world But this world is not anything like God and Christians need to come to the certain knowledge that they are in the world but not of the world We as God's kids are not to live in the image of a lost world careening into a dark and bottomless pit of pure evil Jesus Christ became our atoning sacrifice so that you and I can return to that original image of God that we were created to be This ought to be our goal in life to be like God to do our very best to live in the image of God This book is a daily devotional of biblical attitudes characteristics of Jesus Christ the deep meaning and example of God's amazing precepts and loving actions God gave us a book to show us His right and loving law but when Jesus came He condensed all of the Father's law into just two Jesus said to him You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart with all your soul and with all your mind This is the first and great commandment And the second is like it You shall love your neighbor as yourself On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets Matthew 22 37 40 It is my sincere hope that this book of devotions will help all who read it to know God better to love Him more and to understand what the true image of God means 451
