Sermons and Addresses Marc Saperstein, 2023-04-28 When a respected scholar with a career at three major American universities moves to a position as principal of an important institution in UK there is likely to be considerable interest in what he has to say not only to his students but to many others as well The two most important formats for such communication were the sermon and the academic lecture Historically the sermon has been an extremely important form of communication first as verbal communication to a specific group of listeners and then as a written text made available to many more readers Marc Saperstein was a member of Beth Shalom Reform Congregation in Cambridge where religious services were directed and sermons delivered not by the rabbi of the synagogue which never had a rabbi but by members of the congregation During the five years from 2006 2011 Marc Saperstein delivered 29 sermons in Beth Shalom He also was asked to deliver sermons at 15 other congregations The texts of these sermons are now accessible in the book A Text Book Of Professional Communication Subhash Ranade,2006
