Ringtail Other Stories:

Ringtail Paul S. Haughey, 1955 The Fluffpocalypse and Other Stories Ian Madison Keller, 2019-08-01 A collection of horror short stories by Ian Madison Keller centered around a very furry apocalypse Read about a park ranger who needs to escape from intelligent forest creatures out for her blood a house cat who must decide between revenge or helping her friends a girl trying to remember who she is with the help of her ghost dog a vampire who steals the wrong artifact and ends up in over her head and a half bat girl out to solve a series of brutal murders Collection includes The Fluffpocalypse Escape from the Wild Survivors of the Holocene So That They May Rule Clary s Asylum Romancing the Tombstone and Poppy and the Great Expo A Life Outside 4: More Stories from the Outdoors Matt Artz, 2013-08-24 From the wilds of Africa to local trails and boulders the fourth installment in the A Life Outside series is the perfect companion for those unfortunate times when you can t do what you really want to do get outside and enjoy the natural world An American myth perpetuated in the Botswana wilderness Wildlife in the wild and even wilder wildlife in wild dreams Interviews with rock climbing royalty Bouldering Bikes Beer Injuries More Bouldering More bikes And more beer Compassion Love Death It s all here In the end A Life Outside 4 is about finding your place in the outdoors the place that defines you the place where you could spend your life and the place where you could die Killing Time and Other Stories Joel Townsley Rogers, 2007-11 From THE JURY BOX Jon Breen s critical column in ELLERY QUEEN Mystery Magazine Joel Townsley Rogers Killing Time and Other Stories with introduction and afterword by Alfred Jan Ramble House Six longish pulp stories dating from 1934 to 1947 represent an undervalued writer The title story about a disabled World War II veteran trying to break into mystery writing offers affectionate parody and fair play detection while the magazine version of the classic The Red Right Hand captures its offbeat flavor only slightly less effectively than at full length The outre plots often involve coincidence though not to the fantastical extent of Harry Stephen Keeler whose complete works are offered by Ramble House An indispensable companion is the earlier Rogers collection Night of Horror and Other Stories Ramble House including the much anthologized minor classic The Murderer and a Rogers bibliography compiled by son Tom Rogers expanded by Francis M Nevins And here s what four of America s favorite authors about town have to say about Ramble House s two Joel Townsley Rogers collections NIGHT OF HORROR and KILLING TIME Rogers was the real deal author of a true masterpiece The Red Right Hand and a pulp man who could and did do it all If you want the strong heady thrill of genuine pulp and not the pale imitation that came later latch on to both of these collections immediately Ed Gorman Killing Time collects six pulp novellas by Joel Townsley Rogers including the original version of the classic The Red Right Hand along with a story about a pulp writer and a story with a character named Captain Sparrow whom I like to think is a distant cousin to the famous Pirate of the Caribbean Highly recommended Bill Crider The six tales gathered here are among Joel Townsley Rogers most accomplished pulp magazine contributions of the 30s and 40s cleverly plotted highly atmospheric suspenseful and dripping with menace The original magazine version of his classic crime novel The Red Right Hand and Alfred Jan's insightful analyses of Rogers work are the highlights Killing Time is a must for every connoisseur of vintage crime fiction Bill Pronzini Ramble House has specialized in bringing neglected and sometimes alternative geniuses back into print First came the great Harry Stephen Keeler then the so clever Norman Berrow More recently Ramble House has been sparking the rehabilitation of Joel Townsley Rogers a versatile and prolific author who seemed to be totally forgotten save for one novel The Red Right Hand Killing Time is the second Ramble House collection of Rogers's shorter fiction and every story in it from the 1934 Murder of the Dead Man to the 1947 title story hits with a wallop and a sting Bravo Bravissimo Richard A Lupoff 1745-1945 Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2000-01-30 There has been a dramatic resurgence of interest in early African American writing Since the accidental rediscovery and republication of Harriet Wilson s Our Nig in 1983 the works of dozens of 19th and early 20th century black writers have been recovered and reprinted There is now a significant revival of interest in the Harlem Renaissance of the 1920s and in the last decade alone several major assessments of 18th and 19th century African American literature have been published Early African American literature builds on a strong oral tradition of songs folktales and sermons Slave narratives began to appear during the late 18th and early 19th century and later writers began to engage a variety of themes in diverse genres A central objective of this reference book is to provide a wide ranging introduction to the first 200 years of African American literature Included are alphabetically arranged entries for 78 black writers active between 1745 and 1945 Among these writers are essayists novelists short story writers poets playwrights and autobiographers Each entry is written by an expert contributor and provides a biography a discussion of major works and themes an overview of the author's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies The volume concludes with a selected general bibliography

California Riparian Systems Richard E. Warner, Kathleen M. Hendrix, 2023-11-15 In California's semi arid environment the narrow lush strips of riparian habitats that border watercourses springs and seeps are critical ecosystems supporting a remarkable abundance of plant and animal life These rich environments once thrived across the state from the Central Valley to the deserts of the Great Basin providing essential habitats for wildlife and acting as vibrant corridors in otherwise dry landscapes However over time the expansion of agriculture and development has drastically altered these ecosystems Today less than 10 percent of the original riparian vegetation remains with much of it degraded through logging grazing and water diversion This volume explores the unique ecological importance of California's riparian systems discussing the delicate balance between productive land use and the conservation of these critical habitats California Riparian Systems brings together the latest research and insights from experts in ecology conservation and land management to provide a comprehensive look at the challenges facing these fragile ecosystems The book highlights the essential role riparian systems play in supporting diverse wildlife from the Yellow billed Cuckoo and Bell's Vireo which nest exclusively in riparian thickets to aquatic mammals reptiles amphibians and fish that depend on the shelter and food provided by streamside vegetation With growing public awareness and appreciation of the beauty and value of these areas this volume serves as both a call to action and a guide for sustainable management offering strategies to preserve and protect California's riparian systems while balancing agricultural and economic needs This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1984

Time of Grace Ken Lamberton, 2015-11-01 I hole up in my own cozy cubicle and write considering ways to make the approaching Thanksgiving holiday not just another day in this place In prison hope faces east time is measured in wake ups Time of Grace is a remarkable book written with great eloquence by a former science teacher who was incarcerated for twelve years for his sexual liaison with a teenage student Far more than a prison memoir it is an intimate and revealing look at relationships with fellow humans and with the surprising wildlife of the Sonoran Desert both inside and beyond prison walls Throughout Ken Lamberton reflects on human relations as they mimic and defy those of the natural world whose rhythms calibrate Lamberton's days and years behind bars He writes with candor about his life while observing desert flora and fauna with the insight and enthusiasm of a professional naturalist While he studies a tarantula digging her way out of the packed earth and observes Mexican freetail bats sailing into the evening sky Lamberton ruminates on his crime and on the wrenching effects it has had on his wife and three daughters He writes of his connections with his fellow inmates some of whom he teaches in prison classes and with the guards who control them sometimes with inexplicable cruelty And he unflinchingly describes a prison system that has gone horribly wrong a system entrapped in a self created web of secrecy fear and lies This is the final book of Lamberton's trilogy about the twelve years he spent in prison Readers of his earlier books will savor this last volume Those who are only now discovering Lamberton's distinctive voice part poet part scientist part teacher and always deeply achingly human will feel as if they are making a new friend Gripping sobering and beautifully written Lamberton's memoir is an unforgettable exploration of crime punishment and the power of the human spirit Paddy Platypus And The Ring-Tail Squatteroo Tom de Paolo, 2012-10-19 This is the heart warming story of Rollo the Ring Tail Squatteroo who is trying to find another like himself Paddy Platypus the star of the children's book series and his friends try to help him in his search with not much luck In the end Rollo discovers with the help of The Mugwump an all knowing seer that being the one and only of his kind is not so bad He is The One and Only Ring Tail Squatteroo
