Asian Diaspora and East-West Modernity Sheng-mei Ma, 2012 In this book Asian Diaspora and East West Modernity Sheng mei Ma analyzes Asian diaspora and Orientalist discourse and probes into the conjoinedness of West and East and modernity's illusions Drawing from Anglo American Asian American and Asian literature as well as J horror and manga Chinese cinema the internet and the Korean Wave Ma's analyses render fluid the two hemispheres of the globe the twin states of being and nonbeing and things of value and nonentity Suspended on the stylistic tightrope between research and poetry critical analysis and intuition Asian Diaspora restores affect and heart to diaspora in between East and West at homeness and exilic attrition Diaspora by definition stems as much from socioeconomic and collective displacement as it points to emotional reaction This book thus challenges the fossilized conceptualizations in area studies ontology and modernism

Literature, Nature, and Other Patrick D. Murphy, 1995-02-01 The book first establishes a theoretical framework for conceptualizing environmental analysis It then develops a conception of environmental literature with an emphasis on works by women arguing for the need to reconceptualize woman nature and nature culture associations and critiquing the problems of male poetic sex typing of the planet Murphy also elaborates on specific works and authors with an emphasis on literary texts by Hampl Harjo Snyder and Le Guin Additionally he treats issues of canon and pedagogy as well as the possibility of agency in a postmodern era Ranging across diverse fields and incorporating cultural studies post structuralist literary theory and ecofeminist philosophy Literature Nature and Other both defines and critiques the current terrains of literary ecocriticism and nature writing environmental literature Literary examples are drawn from fiction poetry and prose including postmodern metanarratives and works by Native Americans and Chicanas

Reading the Past Across Space and Time Brenda Deen Schildgen, Ralph Hexter, 2017-03-02 Featuring leading scholars in their fields this book examines receptions of ancient and early modern literary works from around the world China Japan Ancient Maya Ancient Mediterranean Ancient India Ancient Mesopotamia that have circulated globally across time and space from East to West North to South South to West Beginning with the premise of an enduring and revered cultural past the essays go on to show how the circulation of literature through translation and other forms of reception in fact long predates modern global society the idea of national literary canons have existed just over a hundred years and emerged with the idea of national educational curricula Highlighting the relationship of culture and politics in which canons are created translated promulgated and preserved this book argues that such nationally defined curricula were challenged by critics and writers in the wake of the Second World War

The Collected Poems of Frank O'Hara Frank O'Hara, 1995-03-31 Available for the first time in paperback The Collected Poems of Frank O Hara reflects the poet's growth as an artist from the earliest dazzling experimental verses that he began writing in the late 1940s to the years before his accidental death at forty when his poems became increasingly individual and reflective Hirsch,2006 A collection of revised and expanded writings culled from the author s popular Washington Post Book World Poet s Choice column demonstrates how poetry responds to world challenges and introduces the work of more than 130 writers Power and the Pursuit of Peace: Theory and Practice in the History of Relations Between States F. H.

Hinsley,Francis Harry Hinsley,1967-10 In the last years of the nineteenth century peace proposals were first stimulated by fear of the danger of war rather than in consequence of its outbreak In this study of the nature and history of international relations Mr Hinsley presents his conclusions about the causes of war and the development of men s efforts to avoid it In the first part he examines international theories from the end of the middle ages to the establishment of the League of Nations in their historical setting This enables him to show how far modern peace proposals are merely copies or elaborations of earlier schemes He believes there has been a marked reluctance to test these theories not only against the formidable criticisms of men like Rousseau Kant and Bentham but also against what we have learned about the nature of international relations and the history of the practice of states This leads him to the second part of his study an analysis of the origins of the modern states system and of its evolution between the eighteenth century and the First World War Poet in Place and Time

Mary Paniccia Carden,Jane Falk,2024-05-15 Poet in Place and Time Critical Essays on Joanne Kyger addresses the work of poet Joanne Kyger from a variety of approaches from her first book The Tapestry and the Web 1965 to her last major work On Time 2015 situating her within various movements of 20th century American poetry Reading The Trail Corey Lee

Lewis,2005-02-15 A provocative new way to read and interpret the classic works of John Muir Mary Austin and Gary Snyder and to bring their ideas into the discussion of ecological values and the current environmental crisis Lewis combines a perceptive discussion of their work and ideas with an engaging account of his own trail experiences as hiker backpacker and volunteer trail builder proposing that such a field based interdisciplinary approach to literary study and outdoors experience can enrich our appreciation for the work of nature writers Modern American Environmentalists George A.

Cevasco,Richard P. Harmond,2009-06-15 Modern American Environmentalists profiles the lives and contributions of nearly 140 major figures during the twentieth century environmental movement Included are iconic environmentalists such as Rachel Carson E O Wilson Gifford Pinchot and Al Gore and important but less expected names including John Steinbeck and Allen Ginsberg The entries recount how each individual became active in environmental conservation detail his or her significant contributions trace the influence of each on future efforts and discuss the person s legacy The individuals selected for the book displayed either an unparalleled commitment to the conservation preservation restoration and enhancement of the natural environment or made a major contribution to the growth of environmentalism during its first century With a
