The End of Two Illusions Hamid Dabashi, 2022-04-19 Dabashi demonstrates how the West was an ideological commodity and civilizational mantra invented during the European Enlightenment serving as an epicenter for the rise of globalized capitalist modernity In turn Orientalist ideologues went around the world manufacturing equally illusory abstractions in the form of inferior civilizations in India China Africa Latin America and the Islamic world The result was the projection of Islam and the West as the prototype of a civilizational hostility that has given false explanations and flawed prognoses of our contemporary history with weaponized Islamophobia on one side and militant Islamism on the other as its most palpable manifestations Dabashi argues it is long past time to dismantle this dangerous liaison expose and overcome its perilous delusions and reimagine the world beyond its shimmering mirage

Jews and Muslims in Seventeenth-Century Discourse Gary K. Waite, 2018-11-16 Jews and Muslims in Seventeenth Century Discourse explores for the first time the extent to which the unusual religious diversity and tolerance of the Dutch Republic affected how its residents regarded Jews and Muslims Analyzing an array of vernacular publications this book reveals how Dutch writers especially those within the nonconformist and spiritualist camps expressed positive attitudes toward religious diversity in general and Jews and Muslims in particular Through covering the Eighty Years War 1568 1648 and the post war era it also highlights how the Dutch search for allies against Spain led them to approach Muslim rulers The Dutch were assisted in this by their positive relations with Jews and were thus able to shape a more affirmative portrayal of Islam Revealing noticeable differences in language and tone between English and Dutch publications and exploring societal attitudes and culture Jews and Muslims in Seventeenth Century Discourse is ideal for students of British and Dutch early modern cultural intellectual and religious history

Jews in Arab Countries Georges Bensoussan, 2019-03-04 In this new history French author Georges Bensoussan retells the story of what life was like for Jews in the Arab world since 1850 During the early years of this time it was widely believed that Jewish life in Arab lands was peaceful Jews were protected by law and suffered much less violence persecution and inequality Bensoussan takes on this myth and looks back over the history of Jewish Arab relations in Arab countries He finds that there is little truth to the myth and forwards a nuanced history of interrelationship that is not only diverse but deals with local differences in cultural religious and political practice Bensoussan divides the work into sections that cover 1850 to the end of WWI from 1919 to the eve of WWII and then from WWII to the establishment of Israel and the Arab Wars A new afterword brings the history of Jewish and Arab relations into the present day Bensoussan has determined that the history of Jews in Arab countries is a history of slowly disintegrating relationships increasing tension violence and persecution

Later Platonists and their Heirs among Christians, Jews, and Muslims Eva Anagnostou, Ken Parry, 2022-12-28 Later Platonists and their Heirs among Christians Jews and Muslims offers a thought provoking exploration of the reception of Platonism among communities of faith from early Christianity to the sixteenth century from the Byzantine East to the Latin West Rare emphasis is placed on the importance of Platonic thought and its diffusion in late antique and medieval Syria Armenia and Georgia but also among Arab and Jewish intellectuals from the seventh century onwards As such the volume makes a statement against the separation of Neoplatonic philosophy from Christianity and the other Abrahamic faiths since all four traditions promoted a life of virtue and goodness despite operating under different divine auspices The volume seeks to establish paths of transmission and modes of adaptation across times and places

The Israeli-Palestinian Conflict Alisa Douer, 2015 We should not argue about who is to blame for the Israeli Palestinian conflict There is enough guilt on both sides Uri Avneri Smoldering since the late 1920s the Israeli Palestinian conflict reached its first climax immediately after the State of Israel was founded on May 15 1948 Devised by European nations as the perfect solution the new state received a large number of displaced Jews who were unwelcome in their countries of origin We can only answer a few of the myriad yet unasked questions What we know for sure is that more than 750 000 Palestinians were expelled or escaped from Israel Palestine after 1948 About 470 000 of them fled to refugee camps in Jordan Syria Lebanon and Egypt The rest scattered all over the world Deprived of citizenship and human rights Palestinians have remained refugees in most of the Arab world until this day Why By 2013 more than 150 settlements and towns populated by more than half a million Jews had been built on confiscated land on the West Bank Even moderate Palestinian leaders consider these confiscations a provocation Israel is increasingly turning into an apartheid state and its political standing is constantly deteriorating The Israeli intellectual elite has always raised its voice against the occupation and the settlements arguing that human rights and equality two pillars of Zionism are being violated Time has come for the voice of reason which calls for a two state solution to be heard
