Studies in the Economic History of Southern Africa Z.A. Konczacki, Jane L. Parpart, Timothy M. Shaw, 2014-01-14 First Published in 1990 Volume Two of Studies of Economic History of South Africa looks at the Lesotho and Swaziland regions The unfolding history and historiography of Southern Africa pose profound challenges for both analysis and praxis in the last decade of the twentieth century These challenges are reflected in the range of investigations and contradictions some of which are treated here which together constitute an intellectual and political conjuncture This collection of studies deals with the countries which were not included in the companion book on the economic history of the Front Line States Most of the space in the present volume is devoted to South Africa primarily because of its importance to the region but also because contributions to the economic history of that country in English are very extensive as compared to the other states of Southern Africa The Rise of the South African Reich Brian Percy Bunting, 1964 Rethinking the Rise and Fall of Apartheid Adrian Guelke, 2017-03-16 Providing a much needed antidote to recent revisionist attempts to rehabilitate apartheid this major new text by a leading authority offers a considered and substantive reassessment of the nature endurance and significance of apartheid in South Africa as well as the reasons for its dramatic collapse Paying particular attention to the international dimension as well as the domestic the author assesses the impact of anti apartheid protest of changing attitudes of Western governments to the apartheid regime and the evolution of South African government policies to the outside world South Africa Nancy L. Clark, William H. Worger, 2016-06-17 South Africa The Rise and Fall of Apartheid examines the history of South Africa from 1948 to the present day covering the introduction of the oppressive policy of apartheid when the Nationalists came to power its mounting opposition in the 1970s and 1980s its eventual collapse in the 1990s and its legacy up to the present day Fully revised the third edition includes new material on the impact of apartheid including the social and cultural effects of the urbanization that occurred when Africans were forced out of rural areas analysis of recent political and economic issues that are rooted in the apartheid regime particularly continuing unemployment and the emergence of opposition political parties such as the Economic Freedom Fighters an updated Further Reading section reflecting the greatly increased availability of online materials an expanded set of primary source documents providing insight into the minds of those who enforced apartheid and those who fought it Illustrated with photographs maps and figures and including a chronology of events glossary and Who's Who of key figures this essential text provides students with a current clear and succinct introduction to the ideology and practice of apartheid in South Africa South Africa,

Past, Present and Future Tony Binns, Alan Lester, Etienne Nel, 2014-09-25 This is the first book to combine a discussion of post apartheid development initiatives with an extended historical analysis of South Africa's dynamic race class gender and ethnic identities Bringing together the research of an historical geographer and two development geographers the book enables us to locate the post apartheid transition in a broad historical and spatial perspective Within this perspective the limitations as well as the achievements of South Africa's current transformation are highlighted Inside South Africa's Foreign Policy John Siko, 2014-06-16 South Africa is a major player in African diplomacy Its economic diplomatic and military resources far outstrip those of other nations on the continent and it has since the country's 1994 democratic transition sought to take a lead role in the continent's relations with other power blocs particularly during the 1999-2008 presidency of Thabo Mbeki While Mbeki's push for greater African engagement in the global political sphere drew widespread praise other positions notably its seeming inaction toward Zimbabwe and perceived abandonment of its stated emphasis on human rights in foreign policy were more controversial both at home and abroad John Siko has had insider access to South Africa's leading foreign policy players and has been able to ask why Pretoria has taken its various stances and who has mattered in influencing those decisions a topic little examined since 1994 In addition he examines the foreign policy process over the past century determining that despite ANC promises of greater democratic engagement on foreign policy the process has changed quite little

The Man Who Killed Apartheid: The Life of Dimitri Tsafendas Harris Dousemetzis, 2024-03-04 On 6 September 1966 inside the House of Assembly in Cape Town Dimitri Tsafendas stabbed to death Hendrik Verwoerd South Africa's Prime Minister and so called architect of apartheid Tsafendas was immediately arrested and before he had even been questioned by the authorities they declared him a madman without any political motive for the killing In the Cape Supreme Court Tsafendas was found unfit to stand trial on the grounds that he suffered from schizophrenia and that he had no political motive for killing Verwoerd Tsafendas spent the next 28 years in custody making him the longest serving detainee in South African history For most of his incarceration he was subjected to cruel and inhumane treatment by the prison authorities From 2009 to 2018 Harris Dousemetzis extensively researched the assassination of Verwoerd and the life of Tsafendas For this research he travelled to South Africa Mozambique Greece France and Turkey and interviewed about 150 people who either knew Tsafendas or Verwoerd or were involved with the case of the assassination He discovered about 12 000 pages of documents on the case most of them previously unpublished in archival collections in South Africa Portugal and the UK Dousemetzis collaborated with prominent South African jurists psychiatrists and psychologists and concluded his research by writing the Report to the Minister of Justice in the Matter of Dr Verwoerd's Assassination The report conclusively proved that Tsafendas had assassinated Verwoerd for political reasons and that the apartheid authorities had orchestrated a massive operation to declare him insane and apolitical This ground breaking report and this book corrected the historical record regarding Verwoerd's assassination and Tsafendas The Man Who Killed Apartheid based on Dousemetzis's groundbreaking research chronicles in detail Tsafendas's life and conclusively demonstrates that he was a perfectly sane and deeply political person with a long history of political activism. At the same time the book exposes the lie at the heart of apartheid's posture on the assassination of Hendrik Verwoerd and provides a rare picture of how the racist regime operated and what it was like to live and die under apartheid.

The Oxford Handbook of Business Groups Asli M. Colpan, Takashi Hikino, James R. Lincoln, 2010-08-05 Business groups large diversified often family controlled organizations with pyramidal ownership structure such as the Japanese zaibatsu the Korean chaebol and the grupos economicos in Latin America have played a significant role in national economic growth especially in emerging economies. Earlier variants can also be found in the trading companies often set up in Britain which operated in Asia Africa and Latin America. Business groups are often criticized as premodern forms of economic organization and occasionally as symptomatic of corrupt crony capitalism but many have shown remarkable resilience navigating and adjusting to economic and political turbulence international competition and technological change. This Handbook provides a comprehensive analysis of business groups around the world. It examines the adaptive and competitive capabilities of business groups and their evolutionary dynamics. 16 individual country chapters deal with business groups from Asia to Africa the Middle East to Latin America while overarching chapters consider the historical and theoretical context of business groups. With contributions from leading experts The Oxford Handbook of business groups provides a comprehensive empirically and theoretically rich guide for scholars and policy makers.

Africa in World Affairs Rajen Harshé, 2019-04-03 Africa finds itself at the centre stage of world politics in the twenty first century. To truly determine its rising influence and role in world affairs would mean unravelling the politics of imperialism the Cold War and globalisation. Going beyond Euro American perspectives this book presents a comprehensive study of Africa and its role in world politics. Africa in World Affairs Closely examines the transition of Africa in its colonial and post colonial phases. Explores the intellectual history of modern Africa through liberation struggles social movements leaders and thinkers. Investigates the continent's relationships with former colonial powers such as Britain France and Portugal. Untangles complexities of French neo colonialism and sheds light on the role of the superpower such as the USA and major and rising powers like China and India. Highlights complex and wide ranging diversities of the region and the ways in which it continues to negotiate with issues of modernity racism and globalisation. A core text on Africa and the world this book will be indispensable for students of African studies politics and international relations and history. It will also be a must read for policymakers diplomats and government think tanks.

Holocaust Scholarship Michael R. Marrus, Milton Shain, Christopher R. Browning, Susannah Heschel, 2015-07-13 Leading international Holocaust scholars reflect upon their personal experiences and professional trajectories over many decades of immersion in the field. Changes are examined within the context of individual odysseys including shifting cultural milieus and robust academic conflicts.
