Theology as Science in Nineteenth-Century Germany Johannes Zachhuber, 2013-10-03 This study describes the origin development and crisis of the German nineteenth century project of theology as science Its narrative is focused on the two predominant theological schools during this period the Tübingen School and the Ritschl School Their work emerges as a grand attempt to synthesize historical and systematic theology within the twin paradigms of historicism and German Idealism Engaging in detail with the theological historical and philosophical scholarship of the story's protagonists Johannes Zachhuber reconstructs the basis of this scholarship as a deep belief in the eventual unity of human knowledge This idealism clashed with the historicist principles underlying much of the scholars actual research The tension between these paradigms ran through the entire period and ultimately led to the disintegration of the project at the end of the century Drawing on a wealth of primary sources many of which have never been used in English speaking scholarship before Zachhuber embeds the essentially theological story he presents within broader intellectual developments in nineteenth century Germany In spite of its eventual failure the project of theology as science in nineteenth century Germany is here described as a paradigmatic intellectual endeavour of European modernity with far reaching significance beyond the confines of a single academic discipline

Hinlicky, 2010-05-17 Is Christian belief tenable today Is it possible to be a creedal Christian With the help of Martin Luther Paul Hinlicky here explores classical Christian beliefs regarding the person and work of Christ and human nature and destiny He also counters contemporary objections to creedal faith from the so called new perspective on Paul to Pope Benedict's rejection of the Augsburg Confession to the continuing challenge of Marx Luther and the Beloved Community does not present Luther's medieval thought as a possibility for today but does make him available for the future as a teacher of the faith and a help for tackling contemporary questions of Christian belief According to Hinlicky Luther is misused and misunderstood by those of his own tradition and needs to be understood not as hero of the faith but rather as the proponent of a beloved community that does not yet fully exist In performing this makeover Hinlicky reveals genuine new insights concealed within Luther's rhetoric

Niehaus, 2023-10-11 The first volume of this three volume work reviews the history of efforts to define biblical righteousness Modern views are engaged and critiqued from the seminal article 1860 by Ludwig Diestel God's righteousness as the agreement of his will and purpose to others in the theological stream known as the New Perspective Scholars discussed include Walther Eichrodt Gerhard von Rad Elizabeth Achtemeier James D G Dunn and N T Wright Other perspectives are also engaged including H H Schmid's definition of righteousness as conformity to the created order Weltordnung John Piper's view that God's righteousness is God's concern for his own glory and the traditional view championed by C L Irons that God's righteousness is his iustitia distributiva The author examines these views all of which have been supported by inductive studies in light of a proposed alternative that righteousness is conformity to God's Being and doing That definition will be explored further in Volumes II OT and III NT Unlike previous studies the present work proceeds deductively and experimentally and thereby seeks to avoid the pitfalls of a dogmatic approach Extra biblical patristic medieval and reformation views of righteousness are also considered as background to the modern study of righteousness How Luther
