

THE LAST ALLIANCE OF ELVES AND MEN

The ancient legend has long faithfully warned the Free Peoples of Middle-earth, and the Elven-masters of the North, of the evil that would come to the world with a Last Alliance of Elves and Men, under the leadership of an Elf-king and a mortal King. But King is mortal, and he must die. The Elf-king, however, is immortal.

For the Elves of Middle-earth, their great work was done long ago, and they have since then spent their lives in the service of the world. They have been the keepers of the world, and the world has been their home. They have been the keepers of the world, and the world has been their home. They have been the keepers of the world, and the world has been their home.

"He was a King..."

There the One King should have been destined, but instead he was a mortal man, and he was a mortal man. He was a mortal man, and he was a mortal man. He was a mortal man, and he was a mortal man. He was a mortal man, and he was a mortal man.

For that was the Dark Lord of the World, the Dark Lord of the World. He was the Dark Lord of the World, the Dark Lord of the World. He was the Dark Lord of the World, the Dark Lord of the World. He was the Dark Lord of the World, the Dark Lord of the World.

"He who remained the Last King... remained all"
