

The background of the cover features a close-up, shallow depth-of-field photograph. In the foreground, the edges of several old, thick books with worn, light-brown covers are visible, stacked horizontally. A dark string is tied around one of the books. Below the books, a portion of a vintage black and white photograph is visible, showing a dark, textured landscape. The overall lighting is soft and warm, creating a sense of history and nostalgia.

A Journey Through New Mexico History (Hardcover) Donald Lavash, 2006-07 Many conditions, cultures and events have played a part in the history of New Mexico. The author, a recognized authority, guides the reader from the earliest land formations into the present time and has illustrated the narrative with photographs, maps and artwork depicting various changes that took place during the many stages of New Mexico's development. Donald R. Lavash taught New Mexico junior and senior high school history for 13 years and at the college level for two years. This book is the outgrowth of his teaching experiences and his feeling of a strong need for a New Mexico history text. Dr. Lavash was also the Southwest Historian for the New Mexico State Records Center and Archives for five years. He is the author of numerous articles and books on history and archeology.

The Leading Facts of New Mexican History, Vol. I (Hardcover) Ralph Emerson Twitchell, 2007 Historians have long admired Ralph Emerson Twitchell's The Leading Facts of New Mexican History, considered the first major history of the state. Put succinctly by former State Historian Robert J. Trez, Twitchell's work of which this is one of the first two volumes, Sunstone Press is reprinting in its Southwest Heritage Series has become the standard by which all subsequent books on New Mexico history are measured. As Twitchell wrote in the preface of his first volume, his goal in writing The Leading Facts was to respond to the pressing need for a history of New Mexico with a commitment to accuracy, simplicity of style and impartiality of treatment. Ralph Emerson Twitchell was born in Ann Arbor, Michigan, on November 29, 1859. Arriving in New Mexico when he was twenty-three, he immediately became involved in political and civic activities. In 1885 he helped organize a new territorial militia in Santa Fe and saw active duty in western New Mexico. Later appointed judge advocate of the Territorial Militia, he attained the rank of colonel, a title he was proud to use for the rest of his life. By 1893 he was elected the mayor of Santa Fe and thereafter district attorney of Santa Fe County. Twitchell probably promoted New Mexico as much as any single New Mexican of his generation. An avid supporter of New Mexico statehood, he argued the territory's case for elevated political status, celebrated its final victory in 1912 and even designed New Mexico's first state flag in 1915. Just as Twitchell's first edition in 1911 helped celebrate New Mexico's entry into statehood in 1912, the newest edition of the text and illustrations, including the Subscriber's Edition page of Number 1, 156 of 1,500, serves as a tribute to the state's centennial celebration of 2012. In the apt words of an editorial in the Santa Fe New Mexican at the time of Twitchell's death in 1925: "As press agent for the best things of New Mexico—her traditions, history, beauty, glamour, scenery, archaeology and material resources—he was indefatigable and efficient."
