Wells, 2010-04-18 Until now there has been no single comprehensive resource on the status of North America's most threatened birds and what people can do to help protect them. Birder's Conservation Handbook is the only book of its kind written specifically to help birders and researchers understand the threats while providing actions to protect birds and their habitats. Jeffrey Wells has distilled vast amounts of essential information into a single easy-to-use volume required reading for anyone who loves birds and wants to ensure they are protected. At a glance, species accounts cover in detail North America's one hundred most at risk birds; each account is beautifully illustrated by today's top bird artists. Chapters discuss birds as indicators of environmental health, the state of North American bird populations, major conservation issues, and initiatives now underway to improve the health of North America's birds. Birder's Conservation Handbook is an indispensable resource for birdwatchers, researchers, naturalists, and conservationists. The Numinous Site Julio Marzán, 1995 Luis Pales Matos, a white man who began the poesia negra movement in Latin America in 1925, is the subject of The Numinous Site. Julio Marzán's latest book. Unlike its English language counterpart, poesia negra refers to its subject and not the poet's race, so white poets are credited with writing poesia negra. Pales's poesia afroantillana popularized the dark forces, African roots, and unprestigious language that were the white society's antimatter, an antipoetic consciousness that complemented and refined by other poesia negra. Pales opened the Latin American poem. Perhaps influenced by Heidegger throughout his work, Pales reiterated his obsession with the frontier where the mundane touches the spiritual or metaphysical. His poems take the reader on a passage to an encounter with the imagistic representation of that force informing the soul of the individual, the collectivity, and the physical world. All his poems take us on that passage, including his socially conscious Afro-Antillean poems, because they originate from Pales's sense that language, including Boricua, is synonymous with time and our sense of being. For Luis Pales Matos, poesia was an altar and style, a liturgy that, whether performed in drumbeats or words, invoked the poetic essence that he called the numen. BOOK JACKET Title
