If anybody cares to read a simple tale told simply I John Ridd of the parish of Oare in the county of Somerset yeoman and churchwarden have seen and had a share in some doings of this neighborhood which I will try to set down in order God sparing my life and memory And they who light upon this book should bear in mind not only that I write for the clearing of our parish from ill fame and calumny but also a thing which will I trow appear too often in it to wit that I am nothing more than a plain unlettered man not read in foreign languages as a gentleman might be nor gifted with long words even in mine own tongue save what I may have won from the Bible or Master William Shakespeare whom in the face of common opinion I do value highly In short I am an ignoramus but pretty well for a yeoman My father being of good substance at least as we reckon in Exmoor and seized in his own right from many generations of one and that the best and largest of the three farms into which our parish is divided or rather the cultured part thereof he John Ridd the elder churchwarden and overseer being a great admirer of learning and well able to write his name sent me his only son to be schooled at Tiverton in the county of Devon For the chief boast of that ancient town next to its woollen staple is a worthy grammar school the largest in the west of England founded and handsomely endowed in the year 1604 by Master Peter Blundell of that same place clothier Here by the time I was twelve years old I had risen into the upper school and could make bold with Eutropius and C sar by aid of an English version and as much as six lines of Ovid Some even said that I might before manhood rise almost to the third form being of a persevering nature albeit by full consent of all except my mother thick headed But that would have been as I now perceive an ambition beyond a farmer s son for there is but one form above it and that made of masterful scholars entitled rightly monitors
