Losing North Musings On Land Tongue And Self:

Losing North Nancy Huston, 2002 A brilliant series of essays examining the life and language of cultural exile The Routledge Handbook of Literary Translingualism Steven G. Kellman, Natasha Lvovich, 2021-09-30 Though it might seem as modern as Samuel Beckett Joseph Conrad and Vladimir Nabokov translingual writing texts by authors using more than one language or a language other than their primary one has an ancient pedigree The Routledge Handbook of Literary Translingualism aims to provide a comprehensive overview of translingual literature in a wide variety of languages throughout the world from ancient to modern times The volume includes sections on translingual genres with chapters on memoir poetry fiction drama and cinema ancient medieval and modern translingualism global perspectives chapters overseeing European African and Asian languages Combining chapters from lead specialists in the field this volume will be of interest to scholars graduate students and advanced undergraduates interested in investigating the vibrant area of translingual literature Attracting scholars from a variety of disciplines this interdisciplinary and pioneering Handbook will advance current scholarship of the permutations of languages among authors throughout time Humour in Self-Translation Margherita Dore, 2022-10-15 This book explores an important aspect of human existence humor in self translation a virtually unexplored area of research in Humour Studies and Translation Studies Of the select group of international scholars contributing to this volume some examine literary texts from different perspectives sociological philosophical or post colonial while others explore texts in more extraneous fields such as standup comedy or language learning This book sheds light on how humour in self translation induces thoughts on social issues challenges stereotypes contributes to recast individuals in novel forms of identity and facilitates reflections on our own sense of humour This accessible and engaging volume is of interest to advanced students of Humour Studies and Translation Studies The Mysteries of Bilingualism François Grosjean, 2022-03-28 Eleven critical issues in the study of bilingualism Insightful analyses by renowned expert François Grosjean The majority of people living around the world today are able to speak more than one language yet many aspects of the nature and experience of bilingualism raise unresolved questions for researchers Who exactly is bilingual What is the extent of bilingualism How do infant bilinguals who acquire two languages at the same time manage to separate them Does language processing work differently when bilinguals are interacting with monolinguals and with bilinguals When a speaker changes their language do they also change aspects of their personality In The Mysteries of Bilingualism eminent scholar François Grosjean provides a comprehensive examination of individual bilingualism that delves into unanswered questions and challenges many of the myths and misconceptions surrounding bilingualism Through insightful analyses of eleven key questions this book offers a unique combination of personal reflection literature review personal testimony and case studies to explore these mysteries Altogether this text offers Comprehensive explorations of the linguistic aspects of bilingualism including who is bilingual describing bilinguals accented speech and language loss Practical discussions of speech and language processing including language choice and mixed speech perception and production In depth examinations of personality and culture in relation to bilingualism and biculturalism Perfect for undergraduate and graduate students of bilingualism multilingualism second language acquisition and applied linguistics The Mysteries of Bilingualism offers an up to date view of the leading research questions in the study of bilingualism today Edward Said's Rhetoric of the Secular Mathieu E. Courville, 2011-10-20 Edward Said's Rhetoric of the Secular provides an important new reading of Edward W Said's work emphasizing not only the distinction but also the fuzzy borders between representations of the religious and the secular found within and throughout his oeuvre and at the core of some of his most customary rhetorical strategies Mathieu Courville begins by examining Said's own reflections on his life before moving on to key debates about Said's work within Religious Studies and Middle Eastern Studies and his relationship to French critical theorists Through close attention to Said's use of the literal and the figurative when dealing with religious national and cultural matters Courville discerns a pattern that illuminates what Said means by secular Said's work shows that the secular is not the utter opposite of religion in the modern globalized world but may exist in a productive tension with it

University of Toronto Quarterly University of Toronto, 2003 Trauma and Meaning Making Danielle Schaub, Elspeth McInnes, 2023-10-20 Trauma and Meaning Making highlights multiple practices of meaning making after traumatic events in the lives of individuals and communities Meaning making consists both in a personal journey towards a new way to exist and live in a world shattered by trauma and in public politics locating and defining what has happened In both perspectives the collection evaluates the impact achieved by naming the victim's and thus the right of the victim's to suffer from its aftermath or by refusing to recognise the traumatic event and thus the right of the victim's to respond to it A range of paradigms and techniques invite readers to consider anew the specificities of context and relationship while negotiating post traumatic survival By delineating how one makes sense of traumatic events this volume will enable readers to draw links between practices grounded in diverse disciplines encompassing creative arts textual analysis public and collective communication psychology and psychotherapy memory and memorial Self-Translation Anthony Cordingley, 2013-01-17 Self Translation Brokering originality in hybrid culture provides critical historical and interdisciplinary analyses of self translators and their works It investigates the challenges which the bilingual oeuvre and the experience of the self translator pose to conventional definitions of translation and the problematic dichotomies of original and translation author and translator Canonical self translators such as Samuel Beckett Vladimir Nabokov and Rabindranath Tagore are here discussed in the context of previously overlooked self translators from Japan to South Africa from the Basque Country to Scotland This book seeks therefore to offer a portrait of the diverse artistic and political objectives and priorities of self translators by investigating different cosmopolitan post colonial and indigenous practices Numerous contributions to this volume extend the scope of self translation to include the composition of a work out of a multilingual consciousness or society They demonstrate how production within hybrid contexts requires the negotiation of different languages within the self generating powerful experiences from crisis to liberation and texts that offer key insights into our increasingly globalized culture

Comparative Literature for the New Century Giulia De Gasperi, Joseph Pivato, 2018-09-30 Since its beginning Comparative Literature has been characterized as a discipline in crisis But its shifting boundaries are its strength allowing for collaboration and growth and illuminating a path forward In Comparative Literature for the New Century a diverse group of scholars argue for a distinct North American approach to literary studies that includes the promotion of different languages Chapters by senior scholars such as George Elliott Clarke E D Blodgett and Sneja Gunew are placed in dialogue with those by younger scholars including Dominique H tu Maria Cristina Seccia and Ndeye Fatou Ba The writers many of whom are multilingual discuss problems with translation identity and belonging the modern epic the role of tradition minority writing Francophone and Anglophone novels in Africa and politics in literature Engaging with theory history media studies psychology translation studies post colonial studies and gender studies chapters exemplify how the knowledge and tools offered by Comparative Literature can be applied in reading exploring and understanding not only literary productions but also the world at large Presenting some of the most current work being carried out by academics and scholars actively engaged in the field in Canada and abroad Comparative Literature for the New Century promotes the value of Comparative Literature as an interdisciplinary study and assesses future directions it might take Contributors include George Elliott Clarke University of Toronto Dominique H tu Alberta Montreal Monique Tschofen Ryerson Jolene Armstrong Athabasca E D Blodgett Alberta Ndeye Fatou Ba Ryerson Maria Cristina Seccia Hull Sneja Gunew UBC Deborah Saidero Udine Elizabeth Dahab CSULB Gaetano Rando Wollongong Anna Pia De Luca Udine Mark A McCutcheon Athabasca Giulia De Gasperi PEI and Joseph Pivato Athabasca

Bilingual François Grosjean, 2010-04-15 Whether in family life social interactions or business negotiations half the people in the world speak more than one language every day Yet many myths persist about bilingualism and bilinguals In a lively and entertaining book an international authority on bilingualism explores the many facets of life with two or more languages

The Fictions of Translation Judith Woodsworth, 2018-02-15 In The Fictions of Translation emerging and seasoned scholars from a range of cultures bring fresh perspectives to bear on the age old practice of translation The current movement of people knowledge and goods around the world has made intercultural communication both prevalent and indispensable Consequently the translator has become a more prominent figure and translation an increasingly present theme in works of literature Embedding translation in a fictional setting and considering its most extreme forms pseudotranslation or self translation for example are fruitful ways of conceptualizing the act of translating and extending the boundaries of translation studies Taken together the various translational fictions examined in this collection yield new insights into questions of displacement migration and hybridity all characteristic of the modern world The Fictions of Translation will thus be of interest to practising translators students and scholars of translation and literary studies as well as a more general readership Interpreting Cultures J. Hart, 2016-09-23 This book focuses on how we perceive know and interpret culture across disciplinary boundaries The study combines theoretical and critical contexts for close readings in culture through discussions of literature philosophy history psychology and visual arts by and about men and women in Europe the Americas and beyond Life as a Bilingual François Grosjean, 2021-06-03 About half the world's population knows and uses two or more languages in everyday life and an increasing number of parents are raising their children bilingual This makes a resource on what it means to become and be bilingual all the more necessary This book brings together a selection of posts from the author's highly successful Psychology Today blog grouped by topic into 15 chapters The topics covered include among others what it means to be bilingual the extent of bilingualism how someone becomes bilingual how bilingualism is fostered in the family the bilingual mind and brain and bilingualism across the lifespan It also includes the author's lively interviews with other experts delving into their research and their own experience as bilinguals Written in a highly engaging readable style this book is suitable for anyone who wants to better understand those who live with two or more languages (M)Other Tongues Juliane Prade, 2020-05-15 M Other Tongues Literary Reflexions on a Difficult Distinction examines a key problem of literary criticism the differentiation between languages is at the same time necessary and impossible It is indispensable in order to read a text yet literary texts are precisely those that question this distinction articulating the link between languages and cultures as well as the inherent strangeness of even one's own mother tongue M Other Tongues explores texts from the 16th century to the 21st century focusing on different aspects of one main feature of literary texts formally as well as semantically they transcend the rules and conventions of the language they speak Crossing cultural borders is commonly discussed in historical social linguistic and psychoanalytical terms whether it be as post colonialism exilic or diasporic identities creoles or the displaced other within the own M Other Tongues argues that rather than being mere evidence in the theoretical analysis of cultural transitions literary texts are a unique medium to reflect such processes as they challenge and modify the notion of language itself The book discusses texts written mainly in English French and German but also in Spanish and the complex formerly known as Yugoslavian M Other Tongues shows that such distinctions between languages are precise since they can be exemplified with an indefinite number of words and rules and still remain uncertain because they cannot be abstracted from these examples What separates the mother tongue from other tongues is indeed precise uncertainty Memory Speaks Julie Sedivy, 2021-10-12 From an award winning writer and linguist a scientific and personal meditation on the phenomenon of language loss and the possibility of renewal As a child Julie Sedivy left Czechoslovakia for Canada and English soon took over her life By early adulthood she spoke Czech rarely and badly and when her father died unexpectedly she lost not only a beloved parent but also her firmest point of connection to her native language As Sedivy realized more is at stake here than the loss of language there is also the loss of identity Language is an important part of adaptation to a new culture and immigrants everywhere face pressure to assimilate

Recognizing this tension Sedivy set out to understand the science of language loss and the potential for renewal In Memory Speaks she takes on the psychological and social world of multilingualism exploring the human brain's capacity to learn and forget languages at various stages of life But while studies of multilingual experience provide resources for the teaching and preservation of languages Sedivy finds that the challenges facing multilingual people are largely political Countering the widespread view that linguistic pluralism splinters loyalties and communities Sedivy argues that the struggle to remain connected to an ancestral language and culture is a site of common ground as people from all backgrounds can recognize the crucial role of language in forming a sense of self Distinctive and timely Memory Speaks combines a rich body of psychological research with a moving story at once personal and universally resonant As citizens debate the merits of bilingual education as the world's less dominant languages are driven to extinction and as many people confront the pain of language loss this is badly needed wisdom

Worldwide Women Writers in Paris Alison Rice,2021-12-16 Worldwide Women Writers in Paris examines a new literary phenomenon consisting of an unprecedented number of women from around the world who have come to Paris and become authors of written works in French It takes as its starting point a series of filmed interviews conducted in the French capital a set of recorded conversations motivated by a desire to pay homage to these discrete voices and images at a moment characterized by impressive diversity Their individual paths to France and to French are noteworthy and these authors of different generations and varying places of origin emphasize their singularity However the juxtaposition of their reflections reveals that many have faced similar difficulties when learning the French language adapting to life in France and many have encountered forms of prejudice in the publishing world related to their ethnicity or gender These challenges have led them each in an idiosyncratic manner to tackle tough topics in their work and to respond to adversity by finding effective creative expressions Taken together the innovations and interventions in oral and written form of these authors collectively contribute to significant change in the specialized score that is the Parisian literary landscape H l ne Cixous Algeria Zahia Rahmani
