Loss Of A Marriage:

Divorce and Loss Joshua Ehrlich, 2014-05-15 Divorce and Loss Helping Adults and Children Mourn When a Marriage Comes Apart places loss and mourning at the center of the divorce experience and details how therapists can facilitate mourning through individual therapy and through interventions with parents The book offers detailed clinical vignettes to illuminate family members reactions to divorce and to highlight interventions Ehrlich also explores how failures of mourning in response to divorce create difficulties for people including bitter high conflict divorces. He examines how therapists can intervene more effectively with difficult divorces and avoid ethical and clinical pitfalls In addition the book examines the very strong feelings that divorce elicits in therapists and how to deal with these constructively Sometimes God Savs No Carol T. Sauceda, 2010-07 What happens when God does not seem to be showing you favor in the midst of tragedy What happens when God says No Author Carol Sauceda approaches these questions in her book Sometimes God Says No In this poignant book Sauceda reflects on how having faith in God even in the most difficult of times can bring fruitful rewards For anyone who is a serious Christian or who is interested in questions revolving around God this book will be very beneficial and certain to inspire and encourage Understanding Loss and Grief for Women Robert W. Buckingham, Peggy A. Howard Ph.D., 2017-05-18 This book can enhance everyone s understanding of how women experience loss and grief and how they transition to resolution It is an invaluable resource to women and everyone who supports them spouses partners and family members as well as community and government Women's grief is often a complex phenomenon a natural normal experience but one that can seriously impact everyone female or male at every stage of life Understanding Loss and Grief for Women A New Perspective on Their Pain and Healing provides a way to look at how women experience loss through the lens of their socially constructed roles and in light of the theories and practice of grief therapy and support The book begins by explaining the social construction of women's traditional transitional and modern postmodern roles and then addresses the social construction of grief theory and practice in past eras and modern society Several case studies enable readers to see how social constructs shape women s responses to various causes of grief such as the death of a spouse or partner child marriage divorce and career retirement The final section of the book examines the health impacts of grief offers suggestions to ameliorate negative health impacts and emphasizes how loss and grief for women can be used as opportunities for self growth This book serves all members of the general population as well as educators academics scientists and students of disciplines such as psychology psychotherapy medicine sociology and women s studies It will enable all women to better understand deal with and heal from their loss and grief experience Male readers will empathize with what their spouses partners mothers grandmothers siblings and friends are experiencing in loss and grief and understand how to support healthy transition through grief to resolution The community at large and care providers will learn how to create a more nurturing and supportive environment for women's grief response A Personal Guide to Living with Progressive Memory
