Lost in the Supermarket Georgios Kyroglou, 2024-12-17 Political consumerism refers to citizens use of boycotting and buycotting as they seek to influence political outcomes within the marketplace rather than through more traditional routes such as voting It is commonly understood as reflective of the progressively converging roles of the citizens and the consumers in late modernity In the aftermath of the Recession young people in particular are attempting to harness their individual consumer power to collectively express their political ethical and environmental considerations via their consumer choices The expansion of political consumerism among young people across several advanced liberal democracies has been theorised as a result of a wider cultural shift towards cosmopolitanism and postmaterialist value orientations and therefore as an outcome of affluence However the persistence of political consumerism as a preferred form of political participation among young people who were socialised under conditions of neoliberal austerity during and after the 2008 Global Financial Crisis calls for a re evaluation of these assumptions In particular given the susceptibility of political consumerism to a neoliberal modus operandi that attempts to commercialise citizenship itself the lack of literature problematising its emergence within a neoliberal socioeconomic context is indeed surprising This book addresses this gap by offering a detailed re evaluation of the underlying motivations values and identity orientations of young political consumers in a country of the European north United Kingdom as opposed to one of the European south Greece It will be of interest to academic specialists working in the areas of Political Sociology Youth Studies and Consumer Studies and scholars interested in political participation and political engagement Lost in the New West Mark Asquith,2021-10-07 Lost in the New West investigates a group of writers John Williams Cormac McCarthy Annie Proulx and Thomas McGuane who have sought to explore the tensions inherent to the Western where the distinctions between old and new myth and reality authenticity and sentimentality are frequently blurred Collectively these authors demonstrate a deep seated attachment to the landscape people and values of the West and offer a critical appraisal of the dialogue between the contemporary West and its legacy Mark Asquith draws attention to the idealistic young men at the center of such works as Williams s Butcher s Crossing 1960 McCarthy s Blood Meridian 1985 and Border Trilogy Proulx s Wyoming stories and McGuane s Deadrock novels For each writer these characters struggle to come to terms with the difference between the suspect mythology of the West that shapes their identity and the reality that surrounds them They are in short lost in the new West Lost in the Freudian Forest G. Singer,M. Wallace,2013-10-22 Lost in the Freudian Forest A Tragedy of Good Intentions describes the concept of permissive child rearing practices and the role of every family member This book is composed of 10 chapters that highlight the tragic breakdown of a woman Marigold Golem trapped by her own obsession with a theory and the expectations derived from it that did not match reality Marigold is a psychiatrist who it appeared was able to combine the role of wife mother and professional with great success The family of Marigold and her husband Trevor Golem consisted of a boy and girl fraternal twins born two years after their marriage Before her marriage Marigold developed a theory of child rearing derived from Freud and became firmly committed to the view that the rigorous application of this theory would produce enlightened men and women with superior insight who would be everything that her own generation was not The story presented in this book is an account of the authors interviews with Marigold s twins Susan and Fred extracts from Marigold s diary and some relevant documents that have come into the authors possession This book will be of value to psychiatrists and researchers Lost in the Midnight Tides Anniebella Marie,2022-02-25 A collection of poetry both rich and sparse Lost in the Midnight Tides explores the truths of human attraction and the ways that love can lift us up or sink us to the deepest depths Highlighted with beautiful line drawings that echo the spare lines of its poetry Anniebella s writing follows the trajectory of a woman s journey through love reaching her lowest point after a breakup learning to move on forgive and heal and finding an unexpected dawn of new love and happiness It travels from loss to love from pain to harmony and from the midnight tides to finding the lighthouse through the storm Lost In The Darkness Of Thought Robert R. Blondin,2017-05-31 The book was concocted solely using some of my poetry and enhanced into a story telling venture wherein I am lost in the darkness of thought There are characters suggested in this book however they are indirect

"Lost in Transition". Finding an own Identity as a Transsexual in Iran Linda Hewitt, 2020-02-20 Seminar paper from the year 2015 in the subject Cultural Studies Middle Eastern Studies grade 1-3 Lund University language English abstract This paper describes how transsexuals in Iran negotiate their everyday life within social and cultural boundaries and how post operation transsexuals are recognised by others It gives an overview of the legal situation the transition process and describes socio cultural issues of transsexuals while finding their own identity in Iranian society Since Ayatollah Khomeini published a fatwa that permitted sex reassignment surgery SRS for hermaphrodites the Iranian government uses methods to enforce adherence of gender roles and defines transsexuals as people with a Gender Identity Disorder GID who need to be treated The aim of the fatwa was to correct the true sex in order to prevent same sex desire and maintain society's heteronormative morality The illegality of homosexual acts supported the development of sex change operations in Iran because transsexuality became a more accepted way of being non heteronormative as they are perceived to be born in the wrong body However despite the legalisation of SRS social oppression towards transsexuals is still prevalent in Iranian society Prejudices and discrimination create a transphobic discourse within the society Many transsexuals have to deal with identity issues social oppression and often challenge the essential discourse of gender sex while seeking for recognition within their social environment Transsexuals do not seek for recognition of identity politics but rather for recognition of status in society in order to become an equal social participant The legalisation of SRS is not progressive but rather reinforces gender apartheid and homophobia as many homosexuals are forced to change in order to escape punishments of homosexual acts
