Lost Voices Sophia M. Connell, Frederique Janssen-Lauret, 2023-09-12 This book aims to redress the balance in the field of Contemporary Philosophy considered predominantly male by highlighting the philosophical achievements of various female figures during the period 1870-1970 Contemporary Philosophy is generally presented by its historians as a field founded entirely by men with no prominent female contributors Historical investigation of the development of contemporary analytic philosophy for example usually centres around Frege Russell and Wittgenstein with occasional ventures into Moore or the Vienna Circle Such accounts leave out vast swathes of the historical record from early 19th century to 20th century in particular the women including Christine Ladd Franklin Sophie Bryant E. E. C. Jones Susan Stebbing Dorothy Wrinch Alice Ambrose Margaret MacDonald Martha Kneale Ruth Barcan Marcus and Ayda Ignez Arruda publishing on themes central to analytic philosophy logic language realism and relations It is noteworthy that this pattern in historiography is not unique to one strand of philosophy or one part of the world but reappears again and again In the continental tradition the development of Schopenhauer's philosophy leaves out significant contributions of women such as Olga Plmacher The chapters in this book examine central themes from the perspective of female philosophers to provide a fuller picture of Philosophy of this period This volume will be a great resource for academics researchers and advanced students of Philosophy and Women's Studies and for everyone interested in the contribution of women philosophers It was originally published in the British Journal for the History of Philosophy
