Lost Worlds Of Aotearoa:

Aotearoa Lost Worlds Dave Gunson, 2021-06-14 Describes the transformation of Gondwanaland into Aotearoa New Zealand Introduces the animals and plants that once thrived here but are now extinct Extinct animals include types of dinosaur amphibian fish rodent and bird The Lost Worlds of Aotearoa Dave Gunson, 2005 This stunning illustrated book describes the animals and plants that once thrived in New Zealand but have now become lost to us for a variety of reasons Covering the last 120 million years this book is divided into three sections the reign of the dinosaurs after the dinosaurs and the ice ages and beyond Within these sections there are several vivid double page spreads illustrating related animals and plants in an active setting either the coast plains swamp bush forest or the sea The Lost Worlds of Aotearoa stars the dinosaurs that would have lived in NZ including megalosaurs sauropods ankylosaurs and pterosaurs among others the New Zealand crocodile the giant gecko the giant shark several species of moa the Haast's eagle as well as some more recent extinct species such as the huia the Northland skink and the bush wren Simply and directly written this book opens up a window into New Zealand's far distant past tracking its evolution from being part of Gondwanaland to its present state

The Lost World of the Moa T. H. Worthy, Richard N. Holdaway, 2002 An investigation of the rich and unusual fauna of prehistoric New Zealand telling of one of the most dramatic extinctions of modern times The moa a giant flightless bird was among the animals lost the authors summarize what is known about the bird reconstructing its life and ecology Lost World of Rēkohu Jeffrey D. Stilwell, Chris Mays, 2020-10-15 Lost World of Rēkohu explores the extraordinary fossil record of one of the most remote regions of the planet the Chatham Islands Once the home of the mysterious Moriori people this archipelago approximately 850km east of mainland New Zealand preserves a rock archive from a dynamic time in Earth's history when the southern continents were land locked together near the South Pole 100 million years ago Isolated for 83 million years we now know since the dawn of the new millennium that this ancient region was heavily forested with both avian and non avian dinosaurs and the warm waters hosted the largest sea monsters marine reptiles that ever lived This diversity of life on land and in the sea tells a tale never told before in Zealandia the Moriori's magical land of the Misty Skies

North New Zealand Peter Hadden, 2014-09-01 In this book the natural history of New Zealand's North Island from Lake Taupo up is described including geology soils climate flora and fauna Chapters on different habitats are included including forests shrublands wetlands and the coast Contested Worlds Martin Phillips, 2017-09-29 Contested Worlds provides an introduction both to a multitude of geographical worlds which are currently being actively constructed and contested and to a range of different perspectives on these worlds being adopted and contested by geographers It is unique in its focus on the role of contestation in both the construction of geographical studies and in the geographies these studies seek to address These issues are explored through a combination of general theoretical discussion and detailed international case studies The areas discussed range in scale from the global through the regional and national to the local worlds of the inner city the neighbourhood and the village with connections drawn between these scales The book concludes that geography is being made in quite different ways It asserts that geography is intrinsically a contested enterprise and that this should be embraced as part of geographers becoming more critically involved in the making and studying of new contemporary human geographies Reparative Aesthetics Susan Best,2016-10-20 By offering a new way of thinking about the role of politically engaged art Susan Best opens up a new aesthetic field reparative aesthetics The book identifies an innovative aesthetic on the part of women photographers from the southern hemisphere who against the dominant modes of criticality in political art look at how cultural production can be reparative The winner of the Art Association of Australia and New Zealand best book award in 2017 Reparative Aesthetics contributes an entirely new theory to the interdisciplinary fields of aesthetics affect studies feminist theory politics and photography Conceptually innovative and fiercely original this book will move us beyond old political and cultural stalemates and into new terrain for analysis and reflection The Official Amazing Race Travel Companion Elise Doganieri,2022-10-04 Written by co creator and executive producer of the show Elise Doganeiri this guide to the series contains a wealth of information that highlights unique travel plans through the lens of the show allowing travel fans and fans of the show alike to level up their vacation plans with a dash of excitement and adventure Risk Communication and COVID-19 Ioana A. Coman,Miloš Gregor,Darren Lilleker,2024-12-31 Risk Communication and COVID 19 explores the risk communication responses by national governments to the outbreak and global spread of the COVID 19 strain of coronavirus The book focuses on 17 country case studies representing countries all around the world covering a range of democratic and authoritarian systems styles of leadership and political contexts The chapters analyze communication drawing on a modified risk communication framework to determine what patterns governmental risk communication followed in several areas messenger attributes consistency and clarity of communication communication methods message attributes and public trust in government The book also analyzes how these attributes changed and developed over time from 2020 to 2022 The analyzed period is divided into several parts representing different pandemic milestones such as the first cases the second wave of the pandemic vaccination and adaptation to the endemic logic of dealing with the COVID 19 virus Importantly the book draws out key lessons which can inform communication strategies during crises particularly when the crisis necessitates public behavioral adjustments The lessons are framed to further understanding of the challenges faced within the field of political risk communication during crises in the twenty first century This book will be of great interest to students and researchers of politics communication and public relations specifically on courses and modules relating to current affairs risk communication crisis communication and strategic communication as well as practitioners working in the field of health crisis communication A New Zealand Book of Beasts Annie Potts,Philip Armstrong,Deidre Brown,2014-03-01 Touching on indigenous Maori relationships with the now extinct flightless moa the attitudes of Pakeha or European settlers toward sheep the iconography of whales and dolphins the problems of pest control and the pleasures of pet keeping this modern day bestiary is a fascinating study of human animal relations In the book s four parts the authors unravel the contradictory ways New Zealanders nurture and eradicate glorify and demonize cherish and devour and describe and imagine animals The study brings together insights from New Zealand s arts and literature popular culture historiography media and everyday life to describe and analyze their interactions with nga kararehe and nga manu the beasts and birds of the land In doing so it illuminates fundamental aspects of New Zealand society how New Zealanders understand their own identities and those of others how they regard inhabit and make use of the natural world and how they think about what they buy eat wear watch and read Rich multifaceted and engaging A New Zealand Book of Beasts satisfyingly explores how culture both shapes and is shaped by the beasts of Aotearoa Only in Australia William Coleman,2016-06-17 This edited volume is about the Australian difference and how Australia s economic and social policy has diverged from the approach of other countries Australia seems to be following a special path of its own that it laid down more than a century ago Australia s distinctive bent is manifested in a tightly regulated labour market a heavy reliance on means testing and income taxation a geographical centralization of political power combined with its dispersal amongst autonomous authorities and electoral singularities such as compulsory and preferential voting In seeking to explain this Australian Exceptionalism the book covers a diverse range of issues the strength and weakness of religion democratic and undemocratic tendencies the poverty of public debate the role of elites the exploitation of Australian sports stars the politics of railways the backwardness of agriculture deviation from the Westminster system the original encounter between European and Aboriginal cultures and the heavy taxation of tobacco Bringing together contributions from economists economic historians and political scientists the volume seeks to understand why Australia is different It offers a range of explanations from the historical legacy to material factors historical chance and personalities Extinction and Memorial Culture Hannah Stark,2023-06-23 This book considers how we encounter and make meaning from extinction in diverse settings and cultures It brings together an international and interdisciplinary range of scholars to consider how extinction is memorialised in museums and cultural institutions through monuments in literature and art through public acts of ritual and protest and in everyday practices In an era in which species are becoming extinct at an unprecedented rate we must find new ways to engage critically creatively and courageously with species loss Extinction and Memorial Culture Reckoning with Species Loss in the Anthropocene develops the conceptual tools to think in complex ways about extinctions and their aftermath along with providing new insights into commemorating and mourning more than human lives This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of the environmental humanities extinction studies memorial culture and the Anthropocene World Yearbook of Education 2017 Julie Allan,Alfredo J. Artiles,2016-12-01 This latest volume in the World Yearbook of Education series examines the relationship between assessment systems and efforts to advance equity in education at a time of growing inequalities It focuses on the political motives behind the expansion of an assessment industry the associated expansion of an SEN industry and a growth in consequential accountability systems Split into three key sections the first part is concerned with the assessment industry and considers the purpose and function of assessment in policy and politics and the political context in which particular assessment practices have emerged Part II of the book on assessing deviance explores those assessment and identification practices that seek to classify different categories of learners including children with Limited English Proficiency with special needs and disabilities and with behavioural problems The final part of the book considers the consequences of assessment and the possibility of fairer and more equitable alternatives examining the production of inequalities within assessment in relation to race class gender and disability Discussing in detail the complex historical intersections of assessment and educational equity with particular attention to the implications for marginalised populations of students and their families this volume seeks to provide reframings and reconceptualisations of assessment and identification by offering new insights into economic and cultural trends influencing them Co edited by two internationally renowned scholars Julie Allan and Alfredo J Artiles World Yearbook of Education 2017 will be a valuable resource for researchers graduates and policy makers who are interested in the economic trends of global education assessment

Contemporary Art and Unforgetting in Colonial Landscapes Kate McMillan, 2019-07-22 This book explores the work of artists based in the global south whose practices and methods interrogate and explore the residue of Empire In doing so it highlights the way that contemporary art can assist in the unforgetting of colonial violence and oppression that has been systemically minimized The research draws from various fields including memory studies postcolonial and decolonial strategies of resistance activism theories of the global south the intersection between colonialism and the Anthropocene as well as practice led research methodologies in the visual arts Told through the author's own perspective as an artist and examining the work of Julie Gough Yuki Kihara Megan Cope Yhonnie Scarce Lisa Reihana and Karla Dickens the book develops a number of unique theories for configuring the relationship between art and a troubled past

British Merchant Ships Sunk by U-boats in World War One A. J. Tennent, 2006-03 Containing 258 pages this is a tennents reference book on the loss of every British merchant ship sunk by German submarine in the great war

Book Review Index, 2006 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation

Encyclopedia of Islands Rosemary G. Gillespie, David Clague, 2009-08-19 Islands have captured the imagination of scientists and the public for centuries unique and rare environments their isolation makes them natural laboratories for ecology and evolution This authoritative alphabetically arranged reference featuring more than 200 succinct articles by leading scientists from around the world provides broad coverage of all the island sciences But what exactly is an island The volume editors define it here as any discrete habitat isolated from other habitats by inhospitable surroundings The Encyclopedia of Islands examines many such insular settings oceanic and continental islands as well as places such as caves mountaintops and whale falls at the bottom of the ocean This essential one stop resource extensively illustrated with color photographs clear maps and graphics will introduce island science to a wide audience and spur further research on some of the planet's most fascinating habitats

Book Jacket Settler and Creole Reenactment V. Agnew, J. Lamb, 2009-12-28 Explores the uncalculated and incalculable elements in historical reenactment unexpected emotions unplanned developments and locates them in countries where settlers were trying to establish national identities derived from metropolitan cultures inevitably affected by the land itself and the people who had been there before them

Guns and Utu Matthew Wright, 2011-08-01 So they went forth and they were given over to death by the guns Rangipito of Ngati Rahiri In the two decades before the Treaty of Waitangi New Zealand was ripped asunder by island spanning waves of warfare extreme violence and cannibalism Great war parties surged the length of the land to avenge historic grievances killing and burning as they went Whole peoples were uprooted and found new homes Despite the name given them by history one thing we can be certain about is that these dramatic conflicts were not simply musket wars This was an age of courage of heroism of great character and of astonishing deeds And they are not dead history Twenty first century New Zealand has been profoundly shaped by them not least in the location of most of the major cities In Guns and Utu historian Matthew Wright disputes the many mythologies of these wars examining some of the whys and wherefores of this generation long culture collision A spectacular book Don Rood Radio New Zealand National

Anthropocene Antarctica Elizabeth Leane, Jeffrey McGee, 2019-10-02 Anthropocene Antarctica offers new ways of thinking about the Continent for Science and Peace in a time of planetary environmental change In the Anthropocene Antarctica has become central to the Earth's future Ice cores taken from its interior reveal the deep environmental history of the planet and warming ocean currents are ominously destabilising the glaciers around its edges presaging sea level rise in decades and centuries to come At the same time proliferating research stations and tourist numbers challenge stereotypes of the continent as the last wilderness The Anthropocene brings Antarctica nearer in thought entangled with our everyday actions If the Anthropocene signals the end of the idea of Nature as separate from humans then the Antarctic long considered the material embodiment of this idea faces a radical reframing Understanding the southern polar region in the twenty first century requires contributions across the disciplinary spectrum This collection paves the way for researchers in the Environmental Humanities Law and Social Sciences to engage critically with the Antarctic fostering a community of scholars who can act with natural scientists to address the globally significant environmental issues that face this vitally important part of the planet
