Naturalism In The European Novel New Critical Perspectives:

Naturalism in the European Novel B. Nelson,1992-06-02 Naturalism was the dominant movement in European literary culture during the second half of the 19th century This book focuses on the poetics thematics and reception of naturalism and stresses modern methods of literary analysis The Cambridge Companion to the Fin de Siècle Gail

Marshall,2007-08-02 Publisher description Critical Perspectives on Literature and Culture in the New World

Order Washima Che Dan,Jason Sanjeev Ganesan,Noritah Omar,2012-11-15 The fifteen chapters in this volume explore both new and tested theoretical perspectives on literature and culture at large this multiplicity of discourses is a reflection of the implicit discontent in conforming to the New World Order and a contestation against hierarchical relationships between countries which inform the social cultural and political climates of weaker nations With the political and economic hegemony of stronger nations weaker nations run the risk of being dominated or at the very least having their own national identity and sovereignty steeped in ambivalence in the face of a globalised culture This volume hopes to bring together critical views in relation to the construction of cultural studies in the Western framework the application of literary theory in the readings of vernacular literature contestation of the mainstream scientific methodology of cultural evaluation the role of English literature in Asian cultures the application of postcolonial theory in literature literary ethics in relation to Islamic literature as well as the Islamic and Western conceptions of democracy More than half of the articles in this collection centre on Islam as a guiding principle or as a context through which critical perspectives are made on literature and culture in today s globalised world order This inadvertent foregrounding of Islam reflects a continuing dialogue on and with Islam and its significant impact on existing academic discourses founded upon Western style scholarship Unamuno's Theory of the Novel C. A. Longhurst,2017-07-05 Miguel de Unamuno 1864 1936 is widely regarded as Spain s greatest and most controversial writer of the first half of the twentieth century Professor of Greek and later Rector at the University of Salamanca and a figure with a noted public profile in his day he wrote a large number of philosophical political and philological essays as well as poems plays and short stories but it is his highly idiosyncratic novels for which he coined the word nivola that have attracted the greatest critical attention Niebla Mist 1914 has become one of the most studied works of Spanish literature such is the enduring fascination which it has provoked In this study C A Longhurst a distinguished Unamuno scholar sets out to show that behind Unamuno s fictional experiments there lies a coherent and quasi philosophical concept of the novelesque genre and indeed of writing itself Ideas about freedom identity finality mutuality and community are closely intertwined with ideas on writing and reading and give rise to a new and highly personal way of conceiving fiction

The Cambridge Companion to European Novelists Michael Bell,2012-06-14 A survey of 25 major European novelists from Cervantes to Kundera highlighting their contributions to the genre Money Émile Zola,2014-03-13 The irresistible power of money a lever that can lift the world Love and money are the only things Aristide Rougon known as Saccard is a failed property speculator determined to make his way once more in Paris Unscrupulous seductive and with unbounded ambition he schemes and manipulates his way to power Financial undertakings in the Middle East lead to the establishment of a powerful new bank and speculation on the stock market Saccard meanwhile conducts his love life as energetically as he does his business and his empire is seemingly unstoppable Saccard last encountered in The Kill La Cur e in Zola's Rougon Macquart series is a complex figure whose story intricately intertwines the worlds of politics finance and the press The repercussions of his dealings on all levels of society resonate disturbingly with the financial scandals of more recent times This is the first new translation for more than a hundred years and the first unabridged translation in English The edition includes a wide ranging introduction and useful historical notes ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more

Writing the City Desmond Harding, 2004-06 This work examines and challenges the traditional transatlantic axis London Paris New York that marks the intersection between western thinking about the City and the advent of literary modernism

Intersections of Race, Class, Gender, and Nation in Fin-de-siècle Spanish Literature and Culture Jennifer Smith, Lisa Nalbone, 2016-09-01 This volume focuses on intersections of race class gender and nation in the formation of the fin de si cle Spanish and Spanish colonial subject Despite the wealth of research produced on gender social class race and national identity few studies have focused on how these categories interacted frequently operating simultaneously to reveal contexts in which dominated groups were dominating and vice versa Such revelations call into question metanarratives about the exploitation of one group by another and bring to light interlocking systems of identity formation and consequently oppression that are difficult to disentangle The authors included here study this dynamic in a variety of genres and venues namely the essay the novel the short story theater and zarzuelas These essays cover canonical authors such as Benito P rez Gald s and Emilia Pardo Baz n and understudied female authors such as Rosario de Acu a and Bel n S rraga The authors included here study this dynamic in a variety of genres and venues namely the essay the novel the short story theater and zarzuelas The volume builds on recent scholarship on race class gender and nation by focusing specifically on the intersections of these categories and by studying this dynamic in popular culture visual culture and in the works of both canonical and lesser known authors

Literature as History Simon Barker, Jo Gill, 2011-10-27 Literature as History presents a selection of specially commissioned essays by a range of key contemporary thinkers on the interdisciplinary study of literature and history The unifying theme is the interrelationship between literary cultural production and its historical moment The essays in the collection are astute and exciting in terms of their engagement with ever changing developments in critical and theoretical practice while retaining an invaluable focus on familiar and engaging texts and authors The contributors offer a reappraisal of the nature of literary studies today looking back over the thirty five years of Peter Widdowson s career a career which has coincided with the emergence of challenges to and reformulations of critical theory and ask what the future holds particularly for the interdisciplinary ways of working which Widdowson pioneered Bringing together distinguished scholars in the interdisciplinary study of English and History it seizes the opportunity to take stock of the current field of literary studies and to ask searching questions about its future development

America's Asia Colleen Lye, 2009-05-24 What explains the perception of Asians both as economic exemplars and as threats America's Asia explores a discursive tradition that affiliates the East with modern efficiency in contrast to more familiar primitivist forms of Orientalism Colleen Lye traces the American stereotype of Asians as a model minority or a yellow peril two aspects of what she calls Asiatic racial form to emergent responses to globalization beginning in California in the late nineteenth century when industrialization proceeded in tandem with the nation s neocolonial expansion beyond its continental frontier From Progressive efforts to regulate corporate monopoly to New Deal contentions with the crisis of the Great Depression a particular racial mode of social redress explains why turn of the century radicals and reformers united around Asian exclusion and why Japanese American internment during World War II was a liberal initiative In Lye s reconstructed archive of Asian American racialization literary naturalism and its conventions of representing capitalist abstraction provide key historiographical evidence Arguing for the profound influence of literature on policymaking America's Asia examines the relationship between Jack London and leading Progressive George Kennan on U S Japan relations Frank Norris and AFL leader Samuel Gompers on cheap immigrant labor Pearl S Buck and journalist Edgar Snow on the Popular Front in China and John Steinbeck and left intellectual Carey McWilliams on Japanese American internment Lye s materialist approach to the construction of race succeeds in locating racialization as part of a wider ideological pattern and in distinguishing between its different and sometimes opposing historical effects The Changing Image of Theodor Fontane

Helen Chambers, 1997 Wide ranging survey of the criticism devoted to Theodor Fontane with particular emphasis on more recent theoretical trends This study of the literary scholarship on Fontane s narrative works is the first to present a systematic review of the ever growing body of criticism on Germany s major realist novelist Significant developments in Fontane criticism are traced in historical context from their beginnings in contemporary commentary to the present day The author places special emphasis on scholarship since 1980 analysing the influence of new literary critical trends in this period she also considers the effect upon traditional literary criticism of feminism psychoanalysis and comparatist approaches and the fresh developments in reception history translation and media studies Complicity in Fin-de-siècle Literature

Helen Craske, 2025-05-17 Complicity in Fin de si cle Literature examines late nineteenth century French understandings of literature as a morally collusive medium which implicates readers writers and critics in risqu or illicit ideas and behaviour It considers definitions of complicity from the period s evolving legal statutes critical debates about literary bad influence and modern theories of reader response in order to achieve a deeper understanding of how cultural production of the period forged relationships of implication and collusion While focusing on fin de siècle French culture the book's theoretical discussions provide a new terminology and conceptual framework through which to analyse literary influence and reception applicable to different historical periods and national settings Interdisciplinary in nature the study draws on methods associated with close reading literary history law and literature studies cultural studies and sociology of literature Each of the book's chapters highlights how particular literary themes or techniques encouraged readers' identification with transgression and facilitated alternative forms of solidarity The analysis draws on a range of case studies from different media forms including Naturalist Decadent and psychological novels biographically revealing fiction romans clef little magazines petites revues and saucy magazines revues l g res Texts written by well-known literary figures such as Émile Zola Octave Mirbeau and Rachilde appear alongside previously overlooked periodical and archival sources The book's varied corpus reveals the widespread appeal of risqué topics and illicit solidarity across the literary spectrum

Figures of the World Christopher Laing Hill, 2020-07-15 Figures of the World: The Naturalist Novel and Transnational Form overturns Eurocentric genealogies and globalizing generalizations about world literature by examining the complex contradictory history of naturalist fiction Christopher Laing Hill follows naturalism's emergence in France and circulation around the world from North and South America to East Asia His analysis shows that transnational literary studies must operate on multiple scales combine distant reading with close analysis and investigate how literary forms develop on the move The book begins by tracing the history of naturalist fiction from the 1860s into the twentieth century and the reasons it spread around the world Hill explores the development of three naturalist figures: the degenerate body the self-liberated woman and the social milieu through close readings of fiction from France Japan and the United States Rather than genealogies of European influence or the domination of cultural peripheries by the center novels by Émile Zola Tayama Katai Frank Norris and other writers reveal conspicuous departures from metropolitan models as writers revised naturalist methods to address new social conditions Hill offers a new approach to studying culture on a large scale for readers interested in literature the arts and the history of ideas

The Kill Émile Zola, 2008-07-10 It was the time when the rush for spoils filled a corner of the forest with the yelping of hounds the cracking of whips the flaring of torches The appetites let loose were satisfied at last shamelessly amid the sound of crumbling neighbourhoods and fortunes made in six months The city had become an orgy of gold and women The Kill La Curée is the second volume in Zola's great cycle of twenty novels Les Rougon-Macquart and the first to establish Paris the capital of modernity as the centre of Zola's narrative world Conceived as a representation of the uncontrollable appetites unleashed by the Second Empire 1852-70 and the transformation of the city by Baron Haussmann the novel combines into a single powerful vision the twin themes of lust for money and lust for pleasure The all-pervading promiscuity of the new Paris is reflected in the dissolute and frenetic lives of an unscrupulous property speculator Saccard his neurotic wife Ren e and her dandified lover Saccard s son Maxime ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World s Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford s commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more

Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies Gaetana Marrone,Paolo Puppa,2006-12-26 The Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies is a two volume reference book containing some 600 entries on all aspects of Italian literary culture It includes analytical essays on authors and works from the most important figures of Italian literature to little known authors and works that are influential to the field The Encyclopedia is distinguished by substantial articles on critics themes genres schools historical surveys and other topics related to the overall subject of Italian literary studies The Encyclopedia also includes writers and subjects of contemporary interest such as those relating to journalism film media children s literature food and vernacular literatures Entries consist of an essay on the topic and a bibliographic portion listing works for further reading and in the case of entries on individuals a brief biographical paragraph and list of works by the person It will be useful to people without specialized knowledge of Italian literature as well as to scholars The Belly of Paris Émile Zola,2007-11-08 Respectable people What bastards Unjustly deported to Devil s Island following Louis Napoleon s coup d tat in December 1851 Florent Quenu escapes and returns to Paris He finds the city changed beyond recognition The old March des Innocents has been knocked down as part of Haussmann s grand programme of urban reconstruction to make way for Les Halles the spectacular new food markets Disgusted by a bourgeois society whose devotion to food is inseparable from its devotion to the Government Florent attempts an insurrection Les Halles apocalyptic and destructive play an active role in Zola s picture of a world in which food and the injustice of society are inextricably linked The Belly of Paris Le Ventre de Paris is the third volume in Zola s famous cycle of twenty novels Les Rougon Macquart It introduces the painter Claude Lantier and in its satirical representation of the bourgeoisie and capitalism complements Zola s other great novels of social conflict and urban poverty ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World s Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford s commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more Decadent Poetics J. Hall,A.

Murray,2013-08-23 Decadent Poetics explores the complex and vexed topic of decadent literature s formal characteristics and interrogates previously held assumptions around the nature of decadent form Writers studied include Oscar Wilde Charles Baudelaire and Algernon Charles Swinburne as well as A E Housman Arthur Machen and Hubert Crackanthorpe

Scarlet Letters Naomi Segal,Nicholas White,1997-06-12 Scarlet Letters explores the fascination exerted by adultery throughout the long history of western cultures Critics from the UK USA and Australia working in a variety of specialisms

have contributed to this substantial new collection of close readings and wider contextualisations As well as focusing on the bourgeois nineteenth century as the high age of representations of adultery the book offers historicist and psychoanalytic analyses of texts ranging from the Amphitryon myth to Fatal Attraction and The Piano The World Republic of Letters Pascale Casanova, 2004 The world of letters has always seemed a matter more of metaphor than of global reality In this book Pascale Casanova shows us the state of world literature behind the stylistic refinements a world of letters relatively independent from economic and political realms and in which language systems aesthetic orders and genres struggle for dominance Rejecting facile talk of globalization with its suggestion of a happy literary melting pot Casanova exposes an emerging regime of inequality in the world of letters where minor languages and literatures are subject to the invisible but implacable violence of their dominant counterparts Inspired by the writings of Fernand Braudel and Pierre Bourdieu this ambitious book develops the first systematic model for understanding the production circulation and valuing of literature worldwide Casanova proposes a baseline from which we might measure the newness and modernity of the world of letters the literary equivalent of the meridian at Greenwich She argues for the importance of literary capital and its role in giving value and legitimacy to nations in their incessant struggle for international power Within her overarching theory Casanova locates three main periods in the genesis of world literature Latin French and German and closely examines three towering figures in the world republic of letters Kafka Joyce and Faulkner Her work provides a rich and surprising view of the political struggles of our modern world one framed by sites of publication circulation translation and efforts at literary annexation

Nana Émile Zola, 2020-03-26 She was the golden beast an unconscious force the very scent of her could bring the world to ruin Nana daughter of a drunk and a laundress is the Helen of Troy of Paris A sexually magnetic high class prostitute and actress she becomes a celebrity rapidly conquering society ruining all men who fall under her spell especially Count Muffat Chamberlain to the Empress Nana herself meets a terrible fate consumed by her own dissipation and extravagance just as the disastrous war with Prussia is declared Nana is the ninth instalment in the twenty volume Rougon Macquart series The novel opens in 1867 the year of the World Fair when Paris thronged by a cosmopolitan lite was la Ville Lumi re the glittering setting and object of Zola s scathing denunciation of society s hypocrisy and moral corruption Nana comes to symbolize the Second Empire regime itself in all its excesses but in the final chapters the narrator seems to suggest that the coming disaster is not so much a result of the corruption of the Empire as of rampant female sexuality
