Nature Key Ideas In Geography:

Key Concepts in Geography Nicholas Clifford, Sarah Holloway, Stephen P Rice, Gill Valentine, 2008-12-12 This book clearly outlines key concepts that all geographers should readily be able to explain. It does so in a highly accessible way. It is likely to be a text that my students will return to throughout their degree. Dr Karen Parkhill Bangor University The editors have done a fantastic job. This second edition is really accessible to the student and provides the key literature in the key geographical terms of scale space time place and landscape. Dr Elias Symeonakis Manchester Metropolitan University An excellent introductory text for accessible overviews of key concepts across human and physical geography. Professor Patrick Devine Wright Exeter University Including ten new chapters on nature globalization development and risk and a new section on practicing geography this is a completely revised and updated edition of the best selling standard student resource. Key Concepts in Geography explains the key terms space time place scale landscape that define the language of geography. It is unique in the reference literature as it provides in one volume concepts from both human geography and physical geography. Four introductory chapters on different intellectual traditions in geography situate and introduce the entries on the key concepts. Each entry then comprises a short definition a summary of the principal arguments a substantive 5 000 word discussion the use of real life examples and annotated notes for further reading. Written in an accessible way by established figures in the discipline the definitions provide thorough explanations of all the core concepts that undergraduates of geography must understand to complete their degree.

Nature Noel Castree, 2005-11-17 Exploring the shifting ways in which geographers have studied nature this book emphasizes the relationships and differences between human geography physical geography and resource and hazards geography. The first to consider the topic of nature in modern geography as a whole this distinctive text looks at all its major meanings from the human body and psyche through to the non human world and develops the argument that student readers should abandon the idea of knowing what nature is in favour of a close scrutiny of what agendas lie behind competing conceptions of it. It deals with amongst others the following areas the idea of nature the nature of geography de naturalization and re naturalization after nature. As everything from global warming to GM foods becomes headline news the use and abuse of nature is on the agenda as never before. Synthesizing a wealth of diverse and complex information this text makes the significant theories debates and information on nature accessible to students of geography environmental studies sociology and cultural studies.

Knowledge David Guile, David Lambert, Michael J. Reiss, 2017-08-07 This volume brings together an international set of contributors in education research policy and practice to respond to the influence the noted academic Professor Michael Young has had on sociology curriculum studies and professional knowledge over the past fifty years and still has on the field to this day It provides a critical analysis of his work and the uses to which it has been put in the UK and internationally discussing implications for debates on the purpose of education and how school curricula as well as programmes in other educational settings could be run and teaching undertaken based on his contribution Following Michael's long and distinguished career dating back to before Knowledge and Control New Directions for the Sociology of Education which Michael edited in 1971 recent years have seen an upsurge in both academic and policy interest in his work including the new concern he expressed for knowledge in his 2007 book Bringing Knowledge Back In The book concludes with an appreciation and a response to the authors from Michael Young and a Coda from Charmian Cannon who was on the Institute of Education panel that appointed Michael to his post in 1967 This timely book is a unique critique and celebration written by experts whose own careers have been affected by Michael and will appeal to all those with an interest in the work of Michael Young

Keeping God's Earth Noah Toly, Noah J. Toly, Daniel I. Block, 2010-05-26 Diversity of life Water resources Global climate change Cities and global environmental issues We all know being a Christian involves ethical responsibility But what exactly are our environmental obligations This unique volume teams up scientists with biblical scholars to help us discern just not that question What does the Lord require of us Tourism and the Consumption of Wildlife Brent Lovelock, 2007-10-25 Consumptive forms of wildlife tourism hunting shooting and fishing have become a topic of interest both to the tourism industry in terms of destinations seeking to establish or grow this sector and to other stakeholders such as environmental organisations animal rights groups and the general public Hunting tourism in particular has come under fire with accusations that it is contributing to the demise of some species Practices such as canned hunting within fenced safari parks or the use of hounds are described as unethical and fishing tourism too has attracted recent negative publicity as it is said to be cruel At the same time however many peripheral and indigenous communities around the world are strategising how to capitalise on consumptive forms of wildlife tourism This book addresses a range of contentious issues facing the consumptive wildlife tourism sector across a number of destinations in Europe North America Africa India Arabia and Oceania Practices such as baited bear hunting trophy hunting of threatened species and hunting for conservation are debated along with the impact of this type of tourism on indigenous communities and on wider societies Research on all aspects of consumptive wildlife tourism is included which for the purposes of the book is defined to include all tourism that involves the intended killing of wildlife for sport purposes and may include the harvest of wildlife products This includes among others recreational hunting big game hunting and safari operations traditional indigenous hunting game bird shooting hunting with hounds freshwater angling and saltwater game fishing etc This is the first book to specifically address tourist aspects of consumption of wildlife It will appeal to tourism and recreation academics and students tourism industry operators community tourism planners and wildlife managers

Mobilities of Self and Place Mahni Dugan,2019-11-16 When it comes to migration there is no level playing field Some people are privileged advantaged and supported and others are marginalised persecuted and traumatised The extension of the rights and equalities for which many people advocate and provision of other extrinsic conditions are insufficient for wellbeing This work asks what is sufficient What is it that people do and can do to change their experience from suffering to wellbeing when handling challenges of migration and other mobilities What helps people when they are migrating What have migrants experienced and learned that could be useful to others facing challenges of mobility and change How can this learning be applied to promote greater social wellbeing and care of environments in an increasingly mobile world Mobilities of Self and Place documents rich conversations with regular migrants and refugees to critically consider migration history human rights place self and mobilities studies The work explores ontological and epistemological questions of sense of self sense of place identity and agency Mahni Dugan helps us understand how the relationship between sense of place and sense of self affects the ability of migrants to relocate with wellbeing The movement from global to local social to personal intellectual to experiential offers a broad societal understanding of the phenomena and challenges of contemporary mobilities

Energy and Rhythm Gordon Walker,2021-04-07 Rhythms animate our lives and the worlds we inhabit Rhythms of getting things done of working technologies of day and night and the seasons and of shared patterns of work home life and moving around Rhythms are also intrinsically about flows of energy heat light motion from the smallest movements of muscles to the petrol fuelled rhythms of the rush hour the spinning of wind turbines and shifting cycles of solar radiation This book sets out to energise Lefebvre s rhythmanalysis in order to develop a novel and far reaching polyrhythmic conceptualisation of the beats and pulses of our relations with energy in both its natural and technological forms Social theory thermodynamic thinking and diverse streams of energy oriented research are brought together to trace how the climate crisis has the rhythmic patterning of big power energy systems at its core and how transitioning to a just low carbon future means transforming energy systems and our everyday dependencies on them into new rhythmic patterns and interrelations

Themes in Geographic Thought (Routledge Revivals) Milton Harvey,Brian Holly,2014-03-18 Themes

in Geographic Thought first published in 1981 explores in breadth and depth the interrelationships among the history of Geography geographic thought and methodology specifically focusing on the interactions between geographical research and various contemporary philosophical schools positivism pragmatism functionalism phenomenology existentialism idealism realism and Marxism An attempt is made to synthesise Geography's historically rich tradition with the current diversity in approaches to the discipline based on the belief that geographic thought at any point in time is a manifestation of the mutual influence between the prevailing philosophical viewpoints and the major methodological approaches in vogue Each chapter presents an overview of the concrete ideas of a particular school of philosophy and stresses its relevance and impact on various aspects of Geography

Second World War British Military Camouflage Isla Forsyth, 2017-03-09 Second World War British Military Camouflage offers an original approach to the cultures and geographies of military conflict through a study of the history of camouflage Isla Forsyth narrates the scientific biography of Dr Hugh Cott 1900 1987 eminent zoologist and artist turned camoufleur and entwines this with the lives of other camouflage practitioners to trace the sites of camouflage's developments Moving through the scientists fieldsite the committee boardroom the military training site and the soldiers battlefield this book uncovers the history of this ambiguous military invention and subverts a long dominant narrative of camouflage as solely a protective technology This study demonstrates that as camouflage transformed battlefields into unsettling theatres of war there were lasting consequences not only for military technology and knowledge but also for the ethics of battle and the individuals enrolled in this process
