A Korean Theology of Human Nature Jung Sun Oh, 2005-01-31 This remarkable study articulates a Korean Confucian Christian theory of human nature theory of justification sanctification and salvation by means of a reformed concept of filial piety The book investigates in depth the theological anthropology of Robert C Neville and the inclusive humanism of Tu Wei-ming Neville and Tu represent contemporary Christian and Confucian approaches to religious anthropology Furthermore they have engaged in an extended and productive dialogical encounter on the themes of comparative thought and religious renewal in Asia and North America This book argues that Neville's and Tu's insights into human nature have great relevance for a comparative contemporary Korean theology by focusing on the role of a reformed version of filial piety as a new component of Korean theology The articulation of filial piety as a potential key of contemporary Korean theology is an example of creative appropriation of a Confucian theme of the Christian praxis of sanctification and ultimately the soteriology of divine grace and transformation This study construes human nature to be such that any living theology will reflect the creative engagement of Christian theologians as public intellectuals in search of the articulation of the gospel

The Epochal Nature of Process in Whitehead's Metaphysics F. Bradford Wallack, 1980-06-30 While my book attempts to reflect the full range of scholarly debate I have also attempted to make it useful to anyone interested in Whitehead To this end I have introduced the Whiteheadian terms one by one explaining each in the light of my interpretation and I have used examples wherever possible I try to show that Whitehead intended his philosophy have a place in our lives by reshaping our common conceptions and that he did not intend it to be relegated to purely abstract or esoteric application F Bradford Wallack The twentieth century has seen the greatest innovations in philosophical cosmology since Newton and Descartes and Alfred North Whitehead was the first and greatest of the philosophers to work out these innovations in systematic ways In a book that will be controversial in the philosophical community F Bradford Wallack argues that interpretations widely accepted by Whiteheadians need revaluation because these interpretations are based on materialist and substantialist assumptions that Whitehead sought to replace Specifically she proposes a thorough revision of accepted interpretations of Whitehead's concept of the actual entity Wallack then elucidates Whitehead's ideas in order of their increasing dependence upon other basic Whiteheadian terms to complete the study of Whiteheadian time and to clarify its purpose within the cosmology of Process and Reality Whitehead's philosophy then emerges as more intelligible and cohesive than is generally believed
