Nautical Astronomy In New Zealand The Voyages Of James Cook:

Exploring the History of New Zealand Astronomy Wayne Orchiston, 2015-12-08 Dr Orchiston is a foremost authority on the subject of New Zealand astronomy and here are the collected papers of his fruitful studies in this area including both those published many years ago and new material The papers herein review traditional Maori astronomy examine the appearance of nautical astronomy practiced by Cook and his astronomers on their various stopovers in New Zealand during their three voyages to the South Seas and also explore notable nineteenth century New Zealand observatories historically from significant telescopes now located in New Zealand to local and international observations made during the 1874 and 1882 transits of Venus and the nineteenth and twentieth century preoccupation of New Zealand amateur astronomers with comets and meteors New Zealand astronomy has a truly rich history extending from the Maori civilization in pre European times through to the years when explorers and navigators discovered the region up to pioneering research on the newly emerging field of radio astronomy during WWII and in the immediate post war years A complete survey of a neglected but rich national astronomical history this does the subject full and comprehensive justice Nautical Astronomy in New Zealand Wayne Orchiston, D. Wayne Orchiston, 1998 The aim of this study is to describe the various astronomers involved in Cook's three voyages to the South Seas their scientific instruments and their New Zealand based astronomical observations before placing eighteenth century New Zealand astronomy in historical perspective In Chapter 5 we show the other face of New Zealand astronomy during the 1770s by briefly examining Maori astronomy Introduction p 12 Highlighting the History of Astronomy in the Asia-Pacific Region Wayne Orchiston, Tsuko Nakamura, Richard G. Strom, 2011-08-27 With just 400 pages this title provides readers with the results of recent research from some of the world's leading historians of astronomy on aspects of Arabic Australian Chinese Japanese and North and South American astronomy and astrophysics Of particular note are the sections on Arabic astronomy Asian applied astronomy and the history of Australian radio astronomy and the chapter on Peruvian astronomy This title is of particular appeal to those with research interests in applied historical astronomy archaeoastronomy calendars manuscripts and star charts historical instruments and observatories and the history of radio astronomy Transits of Venus (IAU C196) International Astronomical Union.
