Antique Trader Book Collector's Price Guide Richard Russell, 2009-11-13 This new edition of Antique Trader Book Collector's Price Guide provides readers with the information and values to carve a niche for themselves in a market where rare first editions of Jane Austen's Emma and J K Rowling's Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone recently sold at auction for 254 610 dollars and 40 355 dollars respectively Organized in 13 categories including Americana banned paranormal and mystery this guide discusses identifying and grading books and provides collectors with details for identifying and assessing books in 8 000 listings Antiquarian Bookman, 1963 Native American Life-history Narratives Susan Berry Brill de Ramírez, 2007 The author provides methods for the study of American Indian ethnographic texts and disputes some previous assumptions about the sources of the stories in Son of Old Man Hat Native North American Art Janet Catherine Berlo, Ruth Bliss Phillips, 2015 This lively introductory survey of indigenous North American arts from ancient times to the present explores both the shared themes and imagery found across the continent and the distinctive traditions of each region Focusing on the richness of artwork created in the US and Canada Native North American Art Second Edition discusses 3 000 years of architecture wood and rock carvings basketry dance masks clothing and more The expanded text discusses twentieth and twenty first century arts in all media including works by James Luna Kent Monkman Nadia Myre Jaune Quick to See Smith Will Wilson and many more Authors Berlo and Phillips incorporate new research and scholarship examining such issues as art and ethics gender representation and the colonial encounter By bringing into one conversation the seemingly separate realms of the sacred and the secular the political and the domestic and the ceremonial and the commercial Native North American Art shows how visual arts not only maintain the integrity of spiritual and social systems within Native North American societies but have long been part of a cross cultural experience as well Weaving a Navajo Blanket Gladys A. Reichard, 2013-01-02 This guide was written by a noted ethnologist who learned the principles of weaving directly from Navajo artisans She shares their materials and methods commenting on history patterns symbolism more 97 illustrations Book Prices: Used and Rare, 1994 Edward N. Zempel, 1994 Women Ethnographers and Native Women Storytellers Susan Berry Brill de Ramírez, 2015-11-19 This book focuses on the collaborative work between Native women storytellers and their female ethnographers and or editors but the book is also about what it is that is constitutive of scientific rigor factual accuracy cultural authenticity and storytelling signification and meaning Regardless of discipline academic ethnographers who conducted their field work research during the twentieth century were trained in the accepted scientific methods and theories of the time that prescribed observation objectivity and evaluative distance In contradistinction to such prescribed methods regarding the ethnographic work conducted among Native Americans it turns out that the intersubjectively relational work of women both ethnographers and the Indigenous storytellers with whom they worked has produced far more reliably factual historically accurate and tribally specific Indigenous autobiographies than the more scientifically objective approaches of most of the male ethnographers This volume provides a close lens to the work of a number of women ethnographers and Native American women storytellers to elucidate the effectiveness of their relational methods Through a combined rhetorical and literary analysis of these ethnographies we are able to differentiate the products of the women s working relationships By shifting our focus away from the surface level textual reading that largely approaches the texts as factually informative documents literary analysis provides access into the deeper levels of the storytelling that lies beneath the surface of the edited texts Non Native scholars and editors such as Franc Johnson Newcomb Ruth Underhill Nancy Lurie Julie Cruikshank and Noel Bennett and Native storytellers and writers such as Grandma Klah Mar a Chona Mountain Wolf Woman Mrs Angela Sidney Mrs Kitty Smith Mrs Annie Ned and Tiana Bighorse help us to understand that there are ways by which voices and worlds are more and less disclosed for posterity The results vary based upon the range of factors surrounding their production but consistent across each case is the fact that informational accuracy is contingent upon the the degree of mutual respect and collaboration in the women s working relationships And it is in their pioneering intersubjective methodologies that the work of these women deserves far greater attention and approbation

Weaving a Navajo Blanket Gladys Amanda Reichard,1974-01-01 Spinning carding and dyeing yarns constructing a loom tension and the weaving processes are discussed in this guide to the art of blanket and saddleblanket weaving Women, Language and Linguistics Julia S. Falk,2002-01-31 Rather than the standard American story of an increasingly triumphant march of scientific inquiry towards structural phonology Women Language and Linguistics reveals linguistics where its purpose was communication the appeal of languages lay in their diversity and the authority of language lay in its speakers and writers Julia S Falk explores the vital part which women have played in preserving a linguistics based on the reality and experience of language this book finally brings to light a neglected perspective for those working in linguistics and the history of linguistics Mathematical Outreach: Explorations In Social Justice Around The Globe Hector Rosario,2019-10-30 The presentations gathered in this book offer plenty of ideas and advice for anyone seeking to start a program or affiliate with an existing one In general the authors do not compare their programs to those described in other chapters but readers of the whole volume will identify significant commonalties across the various audiences processes obstacles and outcomes described Summing up Recommended All readers CHOICE This groundbreaking anthology is a collection of accounts from leaders in mathematical outreach initiatives The experiences range from prison education programs to alternative urban and Indian reservation classrooms across the United States traversing the planet from the Americas to Africa Asia and the Indian subcontinent Their common theme is the need to share meaningful and beautiful mathematics with disenfranchised communities across the globe Through these stories the authors share their educational philosophy personal experiences and student outcomes They incorporate anecdotal vignettes since research articles in mathematics education often exclude them The inclusion of these stories is an element that adds immeasurable value to the larger narratives they tell
