Naval Review 1985:

Inadvertent Escalation Barry R. Posen, 2014-01-13 In this sobering book Barry R Posen demonstrates how the interplay between conventional military operations and nuclear forces could in conflicts among states armed with both conventional and nuclear weaponry inadvertently produce pressures for nuclear escalation Knowledge of these hidden pressures he believes may help some future decision maker avoid catastrophe Building a formidable argument that moves with cumulative force he details the way in which escalation could occur not by mindless accident or by deliberate preference for nuclear escalation but rather as a natural accompaniment of land naval or air warfare at the conventional level Posen bases his analysis on an empirical study of the east west military competition in Europe during the 1980s using a conceptual framework drawn from international relations theory organization theory and strategic theory The lessons of his book however go well beyond the east west competition Since his observations are relevant to all military competitions between states armed with both conventional and nuclear weaponry his book speaks to some of the problems that attend the proliferation of nuclear weapons in longstanding regional conflicts Optimism that small and medium nuclear powers can easily achieve stable nuclear balances is he believes unwarranted

The Gulf Tanker War Nadia El-Sayed El-Shazly, 2016-07-27 In the 1984 Tanker War Iraq used its superiority in airpower as an instrument in naval warfare in a strategy designed to end combat Iraq hoped to weaken Iran's economy and internationalize the war to force it to cease fighting or remove the government negotiations would follow with Baghdad in a position of strength Although the Iran Iraq War was first and foremost a ground war an argument can be made that the Tanker War contributed to the 1988 ceasefire

The ANZUS Crisis, Nuclear Visiting and Deterrence Michael Pugh, 1989 The development of nuclear weapons has been a critical problem for the NATO alliance In the Pacific a region of increasing strategic interest for the United States and Soviet Union nuclear weapons have been an environmental concern since the bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki Opposition to nuclear tests has now been taken a step further with the creation of a South Pacific Nuclear Free Zone and the decision by a New Zealand Government to ban port visits by vessels believed to be carrying nuclear weapons New Zealand's proposal to back its policy with legislation had been seen by the Reagan and Thatcher administrations as a threat to the principle of neither confirm nor deny the presence of nuclear weapons on vessels This 1989 study examines the questions of principle at issue the evolution of the ANZUS crisis its implications for the Western alliance structure as a whole and the degree to which the nuclear free virus in the South Pacific might be catching

The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
