Nea A Young Emmanuelle:

Nea Emmanuelle Arsan, 1978 Perverse Titillation Danny Shipka, 2011-07-25 The exploitation film industry of Italy Spain and France during the height of its popularity from 1960 to 1980 is the focus of this entertaining history With subject matter running the gamut from Italian zombies to Spanish werewolves to French lesbian vampires the shocking and profoundly entertaining motion pictures of the Eurocult genre are discussed from the standpoint of the films and the filmmakers including such internationally celebrated auteurs as Mario Bava Jess Franco Jean Rollin and Paul Naschy The Eurocult phenomenon is also examined in relation to the influences that European culture and environment have had on the world of exploitation cinema The author's insight and expertise contribute to a greater understanding of what made these films special and why they have remained so popular to later generations Women's Pictures Annette Kuhn, 1994-09-17 Examination of film theory and feminism The Cinematic Enfant Terrible Karolina Westling, 2025-06-26 The Cinematic Enfant Terrible is a groundbreaking study of rule breakers in French cinema The book approaches the concept of the enfant terrible in the literal sense of the term young people labelled terrible awful by the adult generation It explores a rich cinematic tradition from Jean Vigo's Zéro de conduite 1933 and François Truffaut's Les quatre cents coups 1959 to Catherine Breillat's 36 fillette 1988 and Ladj Ly's Les Misérables 2019 The book encompasses the cinematic enfants terribles across age groups and genders addressing the differences between unruly boys and rebellious teenage girls The early post war focus on juvenile delinquency and sexual provocations diversifies into filles fatales and angry girls but also precarious boys and parents terribles The book charts the evolution of the enfant terrible concept from a negative label to a sympathetically viewed figure of anti authoritarian resistance reflecting the changing position of children within the family in post war France The films address the ethical paradox of democratic upbringing the dilemma of raising children to become obedient individuals with a mind of their own The asymmetrical relationship between children and parents is seen as a tacit family contract that highlights the importance of an intergenerational perspective for the understanding of generational conflicts Rebellious children and teenagers on screen are seen in the light of wider social transformations The book clarifies the interplay between individual protests and cultural currents such as existentialism feminism and ethnic conflicts This book will be of interest to scholars and students of French culture and cinema childhood and youth studies gender studies and cultural studies Women Film Directors Gwendolyn A.
