News From A Foreign Country Came:

The Body in the Library, 2022-06-08 The body is increasingly understood as being at the centre of colonial and post colonial relationships and textual productions Creating and circulating images of the undisciplined body of the other was and is a critical aspect of colonialism Likewise resistance to colonial practices was also frequently corporeal with indigenous peoples appropriating parodying and subverting those European practices which were used to signify the civilized status of the colonizing body The Body in the Library reads representations of the corporeal in texts of empire case studies include gendered representations of corporeality medical r games ethnography and photography in the Pacific cultural transvestism in theatre disease and colonial knowledge generation freak shows and colonial exhibits cinematic representations of bodies geography and the metaphorization of land as a penetrable body marketing the body organ transplants and the limits of the post colonial paradigm In viewing colonialism and resistance as a bodily phenomenon The Body in the Library enables new perspectives on the process of colonization and resistance It is an important resource for teachers and students of colonial and post colonial literatures

The Other Side Robert (Robert D.) English, Jonathan J. Halperin, 1987-01-01 What do Soviets think of Americans What do they learn from books newspapers and films about life in America How do we as Americans form opinions about life in the U S S R Through the selective use of both Soviet and American materials The Other Side explores these and other provocative questions that are central to public understanding of how perceptions affect U S Soviet relations The Other Side also examines the many differences between Soviet and American media such as the role of the press and offers article by article comparisons of Soviet and American press coverage of the same events Appropriate for citizen of all ages and groups as well as individuals The Other Side includes a Reader s Guide suggested educational projects an annotated bibliography and guidance for discussion leaders Centuries of Meditations Thomas Traherne, 2007-09-01 For more than 200 years Thomas Traherne s Centuries of Meditations was undiscovered and unpublished The manuscript passed through many hands before finally being compiled into a book by bookseller and scholar BERTRAM DOBELL 1842 1914 in 1908 Centuries is a collection of poems written to express the rapture of life lived in accordance with God Yet Dobell is careful to state that even though Traherne was a clergyman there is plenty of beauty to be found in his poetry that does not require specific belief in Christianity or in God Readers of many ages and persuasions will be touched by Traherne s passages on love and belonging English author THOMAS TRAHERNE 1636 1674 received a master s degree in arts and divinity from Brasenose College Oxford He worked as a parish priest in Credenhill and wrote a handful of books including Christian Ethicks 1675 and Roman Forgeries 1673

International News in the Digital Age Judith Clarke, Michael Bromley, 2012-01-25 The new research presented in this volume suggests that general perceptions cultural psychological geographical allied to the customs and values of journalism and underpinned by the uses of technology significantly shape international news This gives rise to a blend of the old and the new traditions of cultural centredness and innovative practices anchorages of place and the rootlessness of globalization Technology per se has not swept all before it On the other hand its uses have altered the means and methods of international news sourcing construction and dissemination Consequently the uptake of technology has contributed to fundamental changes in style and form and has greatly facilitated cross cultural exchanges The category international news is now more of a hybrid as recognized by the BBC and others The chapters in this book demonstrate that this hybridity is unevenly distributed across geo political domains and often across time Nevertheless as the contributors to this volume show the concept of international news relies on tightly interwoven elements of orthodox journalism social media civic expression and public assembly News-Tibet ,1987 News of the World Klaus Bruhn Jensen,2003-12-16 This is the first in depth study of how television viewers around the world respond to the ever increasing mass of information available and is based on interviews in the United States India Mexico Italy Denmark Israel and Belaraus Department of State News Letter United States.
