Poems Poets:

In the Circumstances Peter Robinson, 1992 In the Circumstances is a study of the way people other than their authors contribute to poems Discussing work by Wordsworth Browning Hardy Pound Eliot Montale Auden Lowell and Hill the book explores how other people's lives and wider circumstances can influence the textual contexts of the poems and be felt within the works themselves These circumstances emerge in such things as allusions to political events of the day the inclusion of proper names and above all in the citation or absorption of the words of others The book asks how the poets themselves worked these circumstances into the fabric of their poems and what bearing this has on subsequent acts of revision and translation These are current issues for all those involved with poetry as readers or writers this book will provide pleasure and stimulus After his first collection of poetry Overdrawn Account 1980 Peter Robinson was described by Eric Griffiths in PN Review as the finest poet of his generation His second volume This Other Life 1988 won the Cheltenham Prize With Marcus Perrymen he has translated the complete poems of Vittorio Sereni a selection of which appeared in 1990 A new book of his own poems is due in 1992

The Music of what Happens Helen Vendler, 1988 This is a collection of previously published book reviews of modern poetry The poets discussed include John Ashbery Donald Davie Allen Ginsberg Seamus Heaney Ted Hughes Sylvia Plath Anne Sexton and Wallace Stevens

Romantic Poetry Angela Esterhammer, 2002-01-01 Romantic Poetry encompasses twenty seven new essays by prominent scholars on the influences and interrelations among Romantic movements throughout Europe and the Americas It provides an expansive overview of eighteenth and nineteenth century poetry in the European languages The essays take account of interrelated currents in American Argentinian Brazilian Bulgarian Canadian Caribbean Chilean Colombian Croatian Czech Danish English Estonian Finnish French German Greek Hungarian Irish Italian Mexican Norwegian Peruvian Polish Romanian Russian Serbian Slovak Spanish Swedish and Uruguayan literature Contributors adopt different models for comparative study tracing a theme or motif through several literatures developing innovative models of transnational influence studying the role of Romantic poetry in socio political developments or focusing on an issue that appears most prominently in one national literature yet is illuminated by the international context This collaborative volume provides an invaluable resource for students of comparative literature and Romanticism

SPECIAL OFFER 30% discount for a complete set order 5 vols The Romanticism series in the Comparative History of Literatures in European Languages is the result of a remarkable international collaboration The editorial team coordinated the efforts of over 100 experts from more than two dozen countries to produce five independently conceived yet interrelated volumes that show not only how Romanticism developed and spread in its principal European homelands and throughout the New World but also the ways in which the affected literatures in reaction to Romanticism have redefined themselves on into Modernism A glance at the index of each volume quickly reveals the extraordinary richness of the series total contents Romantic Irony sets the broader experimental parameters of comparison by concentrating on the myriad expressions of irony as one of the major impulses in the Romantic philosophical and artistic revolution and by combining cross cultural and interdisciplinary studies with special attention also to literatures in less widely diffused language streams Romantic Drama traces creative innovations that deeply altered the understanding of genre at large fed popular imagination through vehicles like the opera and laid the foundations for a modernist theater of the absurd Romantic Poetry demonstrates deep patterns and a sharing of crucial themes of the revolutionary age which underlie the lyrical expression that flourished in so many languages and environments Nonfictional Romantic Prose assists us in coping with the vast array of writings from the personal and intimate sphere to modes of public discourse including Romanticism's own self commentary in theoretical statements on the arts society life the sciences and more Nor are the discursive dimensions of imaginative literature neglected in the closing volume Romantic Prose Fiction where the basic Romantic themes and story types the romance novel novella short story and other narrative forms are considered throughout Europe and the New World This enormous realm is seen not just in terms of Romantic theorizing but in the light of the impact of Romantic ideas and narration on later generations As an aid to readers the introduction to Romantic Prose Fiction explains the relationships among the volumes in the series and carries a listing of their tables of contents in an appendix No other series exists comparable to these volumes which treat the entirety of Romanticism as a cultural happening across the whole breadth of the Old and New Worlds and thus render a complex picture of European spiritual strivings in the late eighteenth and the nineteenth centuries a heritage still very close to our age
