The Face on Film Noa Steimatsky, 2017-01-03 The human face was said to be rediscovered with the advent of motion pictures in which it is often viewed as expressive locus as figure and even as essence of the cinema But how has the modern technological mass circulating art revealed the face in ways that are also distinct from any other medium How has it altered our perception of this quintessential incarnation of the person The archaic powers of masks and icons the fashioning of the individual in the humanist portrait the modernist anxieties of fragmentation and de figuration these are among the cultural precedents informing our experience in the movie theatre Yet the moving image also offers radical new confrontations with the face Dreyer s Passion of Joan of Arc Donen s Funny Face Hitchcock s The Wrong Man Bresson s enigmatic Au hasard Balthazar Antonioni s Screen Test Warhol s filmic portraits of celebrity and anonymity are among the key works explored in this book In different ways these intense encounters manifest a desire for transparency and plenitude but especially in post classical cinema they also betray a profound ambiguity that haunts the human countenance as it wavers between image and language between what we see and what we know The spectacular impact of the cinematic face is uncannily bound up with an opacity a reticence But is it not for this very reason that like faces in the world it still enthralls us Art In The Age Of Mass Media John Walker, 2019-04-03 Can fine art survive in an age of mass media If so in what forms and to what purpose And can radical art still play a critical role in today s divided world These are the questions addressed in the Art in the Age of Mass Media as John Walker examines the fascinating relationship between art and mass media and the myriad interactions between h
