Pulse And Repulse Troop Carrier And Airborne Teams In Europe During World War II:

Pulse and Repulse H. Rex Shama, 1995 Troop carrier and airborne teams in Europe during World War II "Men Will Come": A History of the 314th Troop Carrier Group 1942-1945 Colonel Mark C. Vlahos, 2019 Unit history of the 314th Troop Carrier Group U S Army Air Forces 1942 45 European Theater of Operations Air Mobility Robert C. Owen, 2013 Global air mobility is an American invention During the twentieth century other nations developed capabilities to transport supplies and personnel by air to support deployed military forces But only the United States mustered the resources and will to create a global transport force and aerial refueling aircraft capable of moving air and ground combat forces of all types to anywhere in the world and supporting them in continuous combat operations Whether contemplating a bomber campaign or halting another surprise attack American war planners have depended on transport and tanker aircraft Leading the Way to Victory Mark C. Vlahos, 2023-01-10 Leading the Way to Victory is the official history of the 60th Troop Carrier Group featuring unpublished first person accounts by participating veterans and expertly written by retired USAF Colonel Mark C Vlahos combat veteran and former Vice Wing Commander of 314th Airlift Wing at the Little Rock Air Force Base The December 7 1941 surprise attack on Pearl Harbor thrust the United States into World War II Just six months later in May 1942 flying new C 47 transport aircraft the 60th Troop Carrier Group led the way as the first U S TCG to deploy to England and the European Theater of Operations in World War II Leading the way to victory the 60th TCG s first mission dropping U S paratroopers outside of Oran North Africa was not only the first combat airborne mission in U S Army history but also the longest airborne mission of the entire war This drop spearheaded Operation TORCH also known as the Invasion of North Africa by taking key Axis airfields just inland from the amphibious landing zones The 60th TCG went on to fly some of the first combat aeromedical evacuation missions and the first combat mission towing CG 4A Waco gliders during Operation HUSKY the Invasion of Sicily As the new airborne air land aeromedical evacuation and glider missions matured in World War II the 60th TCG continued to play a major role paying in blood for valuable lessons learned in the school of hard knocks The group later flew dramatic missions into Yugoslavia supporting Partisans as part of the secret war in the Balkans an episode of World War II history still all but unknown today and dropped British paratroops in the airborne invasion of Greece The Group was inactivated at the end of the war Drawing on official United States Army Air Forces microfilm records operational records in the National Archives photographs from both collections published historical materials and many personal accounts author Mark C Vlahos expertly written and highly readable volume is certain to become the standard history and go to reference for the 60th TCG This work offers scholars and lay readers alike an authoritative informative and engaging saga of the Group s battles adversity hardships and triumphs from inception through the Allied victory in Europe Invasion Stripes Brian J. Duddy, 2013 From the snows of Alaska to V E Day in Europe this is the biography of US Army Air Forces Captain Robert Uhrig during WWII Told in his own words from extensive diary entries and letters to his wife Toots the story starts in the late 1930s at Patterson Field OH and follows Bob through the war as an aircraft mechanic and then Engineering Officer for the 36th Troop Carrier Squadron and their Douglas C 47s Bob s wartime career took him from the jump school at Ft Benning to supplying British units in North Africa to the Sicily and Normandy invasions and all the other airborne operations in Europe Invasion Stripes is also a deeply personal story of love as Bob and Toots endure almost three years of wartime separation with only their photographs and letters to sustain them across thousands of miles Sometimes hilarious sometimes tragic it is a unique and detailed first person story of the American airlift forces of WWII 248 pages black and white illustrations maps

Four Hours of Fury James M. Fenelon, 2020-05-12 Compellingly chronicles one of the least studied great episodes of World War II with power and authority A riveting read Donald L Miller New York Times bestselling author of Masters of the Air about World War II s largest airborne operation one that dropped 17 000 Allied paratroopers deep into the heart of Nazi Germany On the morning of March 24 1945 more than two thousand Allied aircraft droned through a cloudless sky toward Germany Escorted by swarms of darting fighters the armada of transport planes carried 17 000 troops to be dropped via parachute and glider on the far banks of the Rhine River Four hours later after what was the war s largest airdrop all major objectives had been seized The invasion smashed Germany s last line of defense and gutted Hitler s war machine the war in Europe ended less than two months later Four Hours of Fury follows the 17th Airborne Division as they prepare for Operation Varsity a campaign that would rival Normandy in scale and become one of the most successful and important of the war Even as the Third Reich began to implode it was vital for Allied troops to have direct access into Germany to guarantee victory the 17th Airborne secured that bridgehead over the River Rhine And yet their story has until now been relegated to history s footnotes In this viscerally exciting account paratrooper turned historian James Fenelon details every aspect of the American 17th Airborne Division s role in Operation Varsity inspired The Wall Street Journal Reminiscent of A Bridge Too Far and Masters of the Air Four Hours of Fury does for the 17th Airborne what Band of Brothers did for the 101st It is a captivating action packed tale of heroism and triumph spotlighting one of World War II s most under chronicled and dangerous operations

Valor without arms Michael N. Ingrisano, 2006 Brotherhood of the Flying Coffin Scott McGaugh, 2023-03-02 The first major history of the American glider pilots the forgotten heroes of World War II by a New York Times bestselling author A story of no guns no engines and no second chances This book distills war down to individual young men climbing into defenseless gliders made of plywood ready to trust the towing aircraft that would pull them into enemy territory by a cable wrapped with telephone wire Based on their after action reports journals oral histories and letters home this book reveals every terrifying minute of their missions They were all volunteers for a specialized duty that their own government projected would have a 50 percent casualty rate None faltered In every major European invasion of the war they led the way They landed their gliders ahead of the troops who stormed Omaha Beach and sometimes miles ahead of the paratroopers bound for the far side of the Rhine River in Germany itself From there they had to hold their positions They delivered medical teams supplies and gasoline to troops surrounded in the Battle of the Bulge ahead even of Patton s famous supply truck convoy These all volunteer glider pilots played a pivotal role in liberating the West from tyranny from the day the Allies invaded Occupied Europe to the day Germany finally surrendered Yet the story of these anonymous heroes is virtually unknown Here it is told in full a story which epitomizes courage and sacrifice Valor Without Arms Michael N. Ingrisano, Jr.,2006-06-27 Merriam Press World War 2 History Series A History of the 316th Troop Carrier Group 1942 1945 Complete history utilizing the author s personal recollections and those of his comrades along with extensive archival research Encompasses Headquarters 36th 37th 44th and 45th Squadrons the Group was part of the 52nd Troop Carrier Wing Ninth Air Force participating in the airborne glider operations in Sicily Italy Normandy Holland and Germany 91 photos 30 maps 13 appendices 428 footnotes bibliography index American Book Publishing Record ,1995

Airborne Operations In World War II, European Theater [Illustrated Edition] Dr. John C. Warren,2015-11-06 Includes 12 maps 12 photos and 2 charts THE seminal study of the Allied large scale airdrops of the Second World War in the European Theater The first combat airborne missions in history were flown by the Germans in 1940 Recognizing the possibilities of such operations the British and Americans followed suit The first British mission was flown in February 1941 and the first American mission was flown from England to Oran Algeria on 8 November 1942 as part of the Anglo American invasion of North Africa Other later missions principally in the Mediterranean region provided the American troop carriers with an apprenticeship in airborne warfare However until the summer of 1944 no force larger than a reinforced regimental combat team was flown into action in any Allied mission In World War II the only Allied airborne operations employing more than one division took place in the invasion of Normandy the unsuccessful attempt to win a bridgehead across the Rhine at Arnhem and the successful crossing of the Rhine at Wesel Consequently the study of airborne missions in the European Theater of Operations is of particular importance for the light it throws on the planning and performance of large scale airborne assaults World War II Army Airborne Troop Carriers Turner Publishing,David Polk,1991-12 History of the 306th Troop Carrier Squadron, 442nd Troop Carrier Group, 1943-1945 Christopher Van Valkenburgh,2018-06-25 History of the 306th Troop Carrier Squadron 442nd Troop Carrier Group 1943 1945 covers the creation of the 306th Troop Carrier Squadron at Sedalia Army Air Field Warrensburg Missouri in September 1943 and concludes after VE Day in France July 1945 The book covers all three Airborne Operations Operation Neptune Normandy France Operation Market Holland and Operation Varsity the Rhine River crossing The book also covers the individual history of every Service Member and every aircraft assigned to the squadron from 1943 to 1945 with hundreds of period photographs maps and documents The daily narrative allows the reader to follow what it was like to be part of the 306th Troop Carrier Squadron hauling freight medical evacuation flights and combat flights during Airborne Operations in Europe during World War Two This book is being released for the 75th Anniversary of the Squadron formed on September 1st 1943 Into the Valley Charles

Hutchinson Young,1995      Into Fields of Fire Austin J. Buchanan,W. L. George Collins,2004-11-29 This story is taken from notes Austin Buck Buchanan wrote in notebooks he carried in his pocket all during World War II Buck is no longer with us W L George Collins edited and compiled Bucks notes into a manuscript that became this book Here you will ride with Buck as he flies his plane through a field of fire so intense that one shell blows a hole in the plane big enough for a man to go through and uncountable bullet holes perforated the plane All aircraft controls are shot out except elevator and ailerons You will ride with him as he manages to complete his mission and bring his barely flying plane back to England And you will ride with him through hundreds more such harrowing trips in his C 47 with no armor plate and no guns into other fields of fire and often impossible weather W L George Collins was a pilot in the same Troop Carrier Group as Buck His writings have been published in the United States Europe and the Middle East He was awarded the George Washington Honor Medal by Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge among other writing awards      440th Troop Carrier Group in Operation Varsity Hans Brok,2018-09-10 A detailed account of the 440th Troop Carrier Group during the latest Airborne Operation in Europe during WW2 operation Varsity      Airlift and Airborne Operations in World War II Roger E. Bilstein,2005-01-01 As World War II unfolded in Europe during the late 1930s and early 1940s U S military planners realized the nation s airlift and airborne combat capability was underdeveloped and out of date The U S Army Air Forces relied largely on civil airline equipment and personnel to launch the Air Transport Command s intercontinental routes to overseas combat zones A separate Troop Carrier Command and newly formed airborne divisions hammered out doctrinal concepts and tactical requirements for paratroop engagements Despite operational shortcomings subsequent airborne assaults in North Africa and Italy generated a base of knowledge from which to plan such massive aerial formations and paratroop drops as those for the Normandy invasion and Operation MARKET GARDEN and strategic efforts in the China Burma India theater Airlift routes over the Himalayas demonstrated one of the war s most effective uses of air transport The Air Transport Command emerged as a remarkably successful organization with thousands of aircraft and a global network of communications centers weather forecasting offices airfields and maintenance depots and air age realities influenced a postwar generation of dedicated military air transports operating around the world      Green Light! Martin Wolfe,1993 In World War II the 81st Troop Carrier Squadron dropped paratroopers onto the battlefield often in the face of heavy fire This book relates the exploits of the 81st which mirrored the combat experience of World War II troop carrier units      Green Light! Martin Wolfe,2016-11-11 In Green Light Martin Wolfe gives us the big picture of World War II airborne warfare in Europe through the lens of one unit a squadron typical of some sixty others Troop carrier squadrons delivered paratroopers behind enemy lines tugged gliders into battle zones and between combat operations freighted up to the front everything from food to artillery shells and carried back wounded infantrymen and newly freed slave laborers Wolfe s firsthand account is an engaging and informative narrative that goes beyond the facts to investigate the feelings of the tightly knit unit He also describes the management and training techniques that prepared the squadron for its role in four of the five main invasions of Nazi Europe In all the literature about World War II this is the first account to show how all levels of a squadron functioned clerks as well as pilots maintenance mechanics as well as flying crew chiefs the mess hall as well as headquarters In addition Wolfe s is the first book to show the interplay between unit experience and high command theory what units like the 81st Troop Carrier Squadron could actually accomplish and how concepts of airborne warfare changed at Supreme Headquarters He explains why and how it was not until the last airborne invasion in March 1945 that the full potential of the troop carrier was reached Wolfe melds the recollections of ninety veterans of this squadron with a general history of Allied airborne forces in World War II Through their words Green Light paints vivid portraits of the real men of the war not the Rambos or Sad Sacks of popular culture And through the retelling of their experiences the book shows that the truism war is hell does not hold for all soldiers all the time      Combat Jump Ed Ruggero,2004-06-29 Follows the paratrooper invasion of Sicily in 1943 that set the groundwork for the Fortress Europe attack citing the challenges that were presented to Dwight Eisenhower s troops the consequences had they failed the force s training activities and their encounters with German Wehrmacht Reprint
