Reality Of Place:

A Geographical Guide to the Real and the Good Robert David Sack, 2003 First Published in 2003 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Layamon's Brut Frances Lytle Gillespie, 1914 Reality's Pen Thomas D. Burke, 2000-02-04 This book is the first comprehensive analysis of the thought of Ignacio Ellacur a the Jesuit philosopher theologian martyred for his work on behalf of Latin America's oppressed peoples While serving as president of the Jesuit run University of Central America in the midst of El Salvador's brutal civil war Ellacur a was also a prolific writer

His advocacy on behalf of the country's persecuted majority provoked the enmity of the Salvadoran political establishment. On November 16 1989 members of the Salvadoran military entered the university's campus and murdered Ellacuría along with five other Jesuit priests and two women. Kevin F. Burke SJ shows why Ellacuría is significant not only as a martyr but also as a theologian. Ellacuría effectively integrated philosophy history anthropology and sociopolitical analysis into his theological reflections on salvation spirituality and the church to create an original contribution to liberation theology. Ellacuría's writings directly address one of the most vexing issues in theology today: can theologians account for the demands arising from both the particularity of their various social historical situations and also the universal claims of Christian revelation? Burke explains how Ellacuría bases theology in a philosophy of historical reality: the ground beneath the cross and interprets the suffering of the crucified peoples in the light of Jesus' crucifixion. Ellacuría thus inserts the theological realities of salvation and transcendence squarely within the course of human events and he connects these to the Christian mandate to take the crucified peoples down from their crosses. Placing Ellacuría's thought in the context of historical trends within the Roman Catholic Church particularly Vatican II and the rise of liberation theology in Latin America Burke argues that Ellacuría makes a distinctive contribution to contemporary Catholic theology.

Being and Nothingness Jean-Paul Sartre, 1992

Sartre explains the theory of existential psychoanalysis in this treatise on human reality. Experience, Evidence, and Sense Anna Wierzbicka, 2010-06-24

This book is based on two ideas: first that any language (English no less than any other) represents a universe of meaning shaped by the history and experience of the men and women who have created it; and second that in any language certain culture-specific words act as linchpins for whole networks of meanings and that penetrating the meanings of those key words can therefore open our eyes to an entire cultural universe. In this book Anna Wierzbicka demonstrates that three uniquely English words—evidence, experience, and sense—are exactly such linchpins. Using a rigorous plain language approach to meaning analysis she unpacks the dense cultural meanings of these key words, disentangles their multiple meanings, and traces their origins back to the tradition of British empiricism. In so doing she reveals much about cultural attitudes embedded not only in British and American English but also English as a global language. An interdisciplinary work, Experience, Evidence, and Sense will be of interest to both scholars and students in linguistics and English as well as historians of ideas, sociologists, anthropologists, literary scholars, and scholars of communication.

The Self-Disclosure of God William C. Chittick, 2015-03-26

The Self-Disclosure of God offers the most detailed presentation to date in any Western language of the basic teachings of Islam's greatest mystical philosopher and theologian. It represents a major step forward in making available to the Western reading public the enormous riches of Islamic teachings in the fields of cosmology, mystical philosophy, theology, and spirituality. The Self-Disclosure of God continues the author's investigations of the world view of Ibn al Arab, the greatest theoretician of Sufism and the seal of the Muhammadan saints. The book is divided into three parts dealing with the relation between God and the cosmos, the structure of the cosmos and the nature of the human soul A long introduction orients the reader and discusses a few of the difficulties faced by Ibn al Arab s interpreters Like Chittick s earlier work The Sufi Path of Knowledge this book is based primarily on Ibn al Arab s monumental work al Fut t al Makk yah The Meccan Openings More than one hundred complete chapters and subsections are translated not to mention shorter passages that help put the longer discussions in context There are detailed indices of sources Koranic verses and hadiths The book s index of technical terminology will be an indispensable reference for all those wishing to delve more deeply into the use of language in Islamic thought in general and Sufism in particular
