Poems ,1992      The Poem I Turn To Jason Shinder, Lili Taylor, Michael O'Keefe, 2008 This anthology of classic and modern poetry features works selected and read by celebrated American movie actors and directors      Collected Poems of Mark Strand Mark Strand, 2016-03-01 Longlisted for the 2014 National Book Award Gathered here is a half century's magnificent work by the former poet laureate of the United States and Pulitzer Prize winner whose haunting and exemplary style has influenced an entire generation of American poets Beginning with the limited edition volume Sleeping with One Eye Open published in 1964 Mark Strand was hailed as a poet of piercing originality and elegance and in the ensuing decades he has not swerved from his vision of how a poem should be shaped and what it should deliver As he entered the middle period of his career with volumes such as The Continuous Life 1990 Strand was already well known for his ability to capture the subtle music of consciousness and for creating painterly physical landscapes that could answer to the inner self And here the dark infinitive to feel Which would endure and have the earth be still And the star strewn night pour down the mountains Into the hissing fields and silent towns In his later work from Blizzard of One 1998 which won the Pulitzer Prize through the sly provocative riddles of his recent Almost Invisible 2012 Strand has delighted in reminding us that there is no poet quite like him for a dose of dark wit that turns out to be deep wisdom and self deprecation He has given voice to our collective imagination with a grandeur and comic honesty worthy of his great Knopf forebear Wallace Stevens With this volume we celebrate his canonical work      Self-Portrait with Dogwood Christopher Merrill, 2017-01-16 In the course of researching dogwood trees beloved poet and essayist Christopher Merrill realized that a number of formative moments in his life had some connection to the tree named according to one writer because its fruit was not fit for a dog As he approached his sixtieth birthday Merrill began to compose a self portrait alongside this tree whose lifespan is comparable to a human's and that from an early age he's regarded as a talisman Dogwoods have never been far from Merrill's view at significant moments throughout his life helping to shape his understanding of place in the great chain of being entwined in his experience is the conviction that our relationship to the natural world is central to our walk in the sun The feeling of a connection to nature has become more acute as his life has taken him to distant corners of the earth often to war zones where he has witnessed not only humankind's propensity for violence and evil but also the enduring power of connections that can be forged across languages borders and politics Dogwoods teach us persistence humility and wonder Self Portrait with Dogwood is no ordinary memoir but rather the work of a traveler who has crisscrossed the country and the globe in search of ways to make sense of his time here Merrill provides new ways of thinking about personal history the environment politics faith and the power of the written word In his descriptions of places far and near many outside of the average American's purview a besieged city in Bosnia a hidden path in a Taiwanese park Tolstoy's country house in Russia a castle in Slovakia a blossoming dogwood at daybreak in Seattle the reader's understanding of the world will flourish as well Dark Harbor Mark Strand, 1994-06-28 Pulitzer Prize winner Mark Strand gives us a poem in forty five sections that despite its wide range and shifting mood and tone is all of a piece Here Strand speaks candidly to the reader conversing offering urban wit and surrealist digressions that draw on our innermost sensations and the outermost reaches of our reality Is what exists a souvenir of the time Of the great nought and deep night without stars The time before the universe began When we look at each other and see nothing Is that not a confirmation that we are less Than meets the eye and embody some of The night of our origins A timeless pursuit of timeless questions Dark Harbor centers on uncertainty and the known family and isolation the possible and the real The poems in this book are easily recognizable as the world of one of our most interesting and influential poets The Anatomy of Influence Harold Bloom, 2011-01-01 In this his most comprehensive and accessible study of influence Bloom leads readers through the labyrinthine paths which link the writers and critics who have informed and inspired him for so many years Almost Invisible Mark Strand, 2013-09-03 From Pulitzer Prize winner Mark Strand comes an exquisitely witty and poignant series of prose poems Sometimes appearing as pure prose sometimes as impure poetry but always with Strand's clarity and simplicity of style they are like riddles their answers vanishing just as they appear within reach Fable domestic satire meditation joke and fantasy all come together in what is arguably the liveliest most entertaining book that Strand has yet written Reading Mark Strand J. Nicosia, 2016-04-30 Combining phenomenological ideals with rigorous close reading and antithetical criticism this study assesses the career evolution of the Pulitzer Prize winning former U S poet laureate while providing a methodology for analyzing other poetic careers Faith and Doubt Patrice Vecchione, 2007-04-03 A collection of poems from around the world that explores the many facets of faith and doubt On the Ground O'neil Van Horn, 2023-12-05 A bold theoretical and pragmatic book that looks to soil as a symbol for constructive possibilities for hope and planetary political action in the Anthropocene Climate change is here Its ravaging effects will upend our interconnected ecosystems and yet those effects will play out disproportionately among the planet's nearly 8 billion human inhabitants On the Ground explores how one might account for the many paradoxical tensions posed by the Anthropocene tensions between planetarity and particularity connectivity and contextuality entanglement and exclusion Using the philosophical and theological idea of ground Van Horn argues that ground when read as earth ground as soil offers a symbol for conceiving of the effects of climate change as collective and yet located as communal and yet differential In so doing he offers critical interventions on theorizations of hope and political action amid the crises of climate change Drawing on soil science theopoetics feminist ethics poststructuralism process philosophy and more On the Ground asks In the face of global climate catastrophe how might one theorize this calamitous experience as shared and yet particular as interconnected and yet contextual Might there be a way to conceptualize our interconnected experiences without erasing critical constitutive differences particularly of social and ecological location How might these conceptual interventions catalyze pluralistic anti racist planetary politics amid the Anthropocene In short the book addresses these queries What philosophical and theological concepts can soil create How might soil inspire and help re imagine forms of planetary politics in the midst of climate change On the Ground thus roots us in a robust theoretical symbol in the hopes of producing and proliferating intersectional responses to climate change

Hopper Mark Strand, 2009-03-25 Recent U S poet laureate Mark Strand examines the work of frequently misunderstood American painter Edward Hopper whose enigmatic paintings of gas stations storefronts cafeterias and hotel rooms number among the most powerful of our time Featured in a series of upcoming museum lectures Illustrations throughout
