Porter, 1984 The Rebirth of a Nation, 1915 Rebirth of a Nation John P. Halstead, 1967 Tales of the Nation Lene Bull-Christiansen, 2004 In light of the uses and misuses of history in Zimbabwean politics in recent years this research report focuses on how versions of the country s liberation war history have become a site of struggle over the definition of Zimbabwean national identity As identity politics often do Zimbabwean nationalism draws on a wide field of cultural symbols of identity and political discourses of inclusion and exclusion Therefore the report takes a cross disciplinary approach to the issue of national identity by mapping out the imaginary field of Zimbabwean nationalism This approach opens up the possibility of cross reading the political discourses of the President and the ruling party ZANU PF with opposing voices such as those in the works of the author Yvonne Vera This cross reading shows how Vera's novels and the political discourses participate in the struggle over Zimbabwean national identity by offering different versions of the nation's history in the form of patriotic history feminist nationalism or narratives of difference In this way the research report adds to our understanding of power and resistance in Zimbabwean politics of national identity     The Historical Film Marcia Landy,2001 What is history How do we represent it How do our notions of history change over time The essays in The Historical Film History and Memory in Media probe the roles that cinema and television play in altering and complicating our understanding of historical events The book brings together representative examples of how both media critics and historians write about history as it is created and disseminated through film and television The essays explore what is at stake culturally and politically in media history and how this form of history making is different from traditional historiography The volume is divided into four parts Regarding History History as Trauma History Fiction and Postcolonial Memory and History and Television that progressively deepen our understanding of just how complex the issues are Essays by top scholars analyze many different kinds of film historical film documentary costume drama and heritage films The section on television is equally broad examining phenomena as diverse as news broadcasts and Ken Burns's documentary The Civil War Contributors are Mbye Cham George F Custen Mary Ann Doane Richard Dienst Taylor Downing Gary Edgerton Naomi Greene Miriam Bratu Hansen Sue Harper Sumiko Higashi Anton Kaes Marcia Landy Shawn Rosenheim Robert A Rosenstone Pierre Sorlin Maria Wyke and Ismail Xavier     Music Makes the Nation ,     *D. Narratives of Nation-Building in Korea Sheila Miyoshi Jager,2016-07-08 This book offers new insight on how key historical texts and events in Korea's history have contributed to the formation of the nation's collective consciousness The work is woven around the unifying premise that particular narrative texts events that extend back to the premodern period have remained important albeit transformed over the modern period and into the contemporary period The author explores the relationship between gender and nationalism by showing how key narrative topics such as tales of virtuous womanhood have been employed transformed and re deployed to make sense of particular national events Connecting these narratives and historic events to contemporary Korean society Jager reveals how these sites or reference points were also successfully re deployed in the context of the division of Korea and the construction of Korea's modern consciousness     Managing Domestic Dissent in First World War Britain Brock Millman,2014-01-14 The author argues that the way the British Government managed dissent during World War I is important for understanding the way that the war ended. He argues that a comprehensive and effective system of suppression had been developed by the war's end in 1918 with a greater level in reserve.

America Ascendant Stanley B. Greenberg, 2015-11-03 America is poised to lead the 21st Century as it led the 20th. That will happen because the country is at a tipping point in the battle for its own renewal, a renewal that will allow America to be exceptional again. Our economy is on the move, fueled by revolutions in energy, immigration, innovation, big data, and advanced manufacturing. America's energy independence has set off shockwaves. Just as important are the social transformations that are making the country ever more racially and culturally diverse, younger, a home to immigrants, and the metropolitan centers that foster a rising economic and cultural dynamism. While most other countries struggle profoundly with immigration and religious and racial differences, America is on a path to multicultural identity. Those revolutions in the economy, society, and culture are also producing a new American majority that embraces new values and new politics. Republicans are waging a counter revolution, and that is why America looks gridlocked and why the country is turning to Democrats to take on the country's growing challenges. The economic and social transformations leave people struggling to earn enough and reach the middle class. Families are under stress. Government is corrupted by big money. The American public is demanding the country address the dark side of our progress, and reforms are starting to happen. That is why Democrats will get to lead an era of reform and renewal comparable to the progressive era that mitigated the excesses of the Industrial Revolution. In this incisive book, expert strategist Greenberg draws on years of research and polling to illuminate how America is far from being gridlocked and he articulates a powerful vision of how American politics and America can be renewed.

Rebirth of a Nation Joel Edward Goza, 2024-09-24 Joel Edward Goza dismantles the deep-seated myths that perpetuate white supremacy and makes the case that reparations are necessary to heal America's racial wounds and live up to our democratic ideals. Like many well-intentioned white people, Goza once believed that he could support Black America's struggle for equality without supporting reparations. Reparations, he thought, were altogether irrelevant to the real work of racial justice. This is a book about why he was wrong. In fact, any effort to heal our nation's wounds will fail without reparations. In Rebirth of a Nation, Goza exposes lesser-known aspects of racism in American history and how Black people have consistently been depicted as responsible for their own oppression to justify slavery, Jim Crow, mass incarceration, and gross inequality. Iconoclastic and incisive, Goza exposes how revered figures like Thomas Jefferson and Abraham Lincoln embedded white supremacy deep into our nation's consciousness and how Ronald Reagan manipulated this ideology so that society cheered as he advanced a set of policies that wounded our nation and intensified Black America's suffering. But Rebirth of a Nation is not merely about accountability. It is also about hope. A reparations process is not a utopian dream. Goza offers a practical path toward closing the racial wealth gap. Rebirth of a Nation shows readers how they can join the reparative process, working toward the creation of a more perfect union     Against the Third Reich Paul Tillich,1998-01-01 Paul Tillich one of the greatest Protestant theologians of modern times wrote more than one hundred radio addresses that were broadcast into Nazi Germany from March 1942 through May 1944 The broadcasts were passionate and political urging Germans to recognize the horror of Hitler and to reject a morally and spiritually bankrupt government Largely unknown in the United States the broadcasts have been translated into English for the first time and approximately half of them are presented in this book     A History of Modern Morocco Susan Gilson Miller,2013-04-08 Morocco is notable for its stable and durable monarchy its close ties with the West its vibrant cultural life and its centrality to regional politics This book by distinguished historian Susan Gilson Miller offers a richly documented survey of modern Moroccan history Arguing that pragmatism rather than ideology has shaped the monarchy's response to crisis the book begins with the French invasion of Algeria in 1830 and Morocco's abortive efforts at reform the duel with colonial powers and the loss of independence in 1912 the burdens and benefits of France's forty four year dominion and the stunning success of the nationalist movement leading to independence in 1956 In the post independence era the book traces the monarchy's gradual monopolization of power and the resulting political paralysis with a postscript bringing events up to 2012 This concise readable book will inform and enthral students and all those searching for the background to present day events in the region     Forward Without Fear Derek Taira,2024-06 Derek Taira argues that during the territorial period many Hawaiians neither subscribed nor succumbed to public schools aggressive efforts to assimilate and Americanize but instead engaged with American education to envision and support an alternate future

The Pan-African Nation Andrew Apter,2008-10-01 When Nigeria hosted the Second World Black and African Festival of Arts and Culture FESTAC in 1977 it celebrated a global vision of black nationhood and citizenship animated by the exuberance of its recent oil boom Andrew Apter's The Pan African Nation tells the full story of this cultural extravaganza from Nigeria's spectacular rebirth as a rapidly developing petro state to its dramatic demise when the boom went bust According to Apter FESTAC expanded the horizons of blackness in Nigeria to mirror the global circuits of its economy By showcasing masks dances images and souvenirs from its many diverse ethnic groups Nigeria forged a new national culture In the grandeur of this oil fed confidence the nation subsumed all black and African cultures within its empire of cultural signs and erased its colonial legacies from collective memory As the oil economy collapsed however cultural signs became unstable contributing to rampant violence and dissimulation The Pan African Nation unpacks FESTAC as a historically situated mirror of production in Nigeria More broadly it points towards a critique of the political economy of the sign in postcolonial Africa

Deepfakes Graham Meikle,2022-09-22 What happens when we can no longer believe what we see Show the AI technologies that create deepfakes enough images of a celebrity or a politician and they will generate a convincing video in which that person appears to say and do things they have never actually said or done The result is a media environment in which anyone's face and image can be remixed and manipulated Graham Meikle explains how deepfakes synthetic media are made and used From celebrity porn and political satire to movie mash ups and disinformation campaigns this book explores themes of trust and consent as face swapping software becomes more common Meikle argues that deepfake videos allow for a new perspective on the taken for granted nature of contemporary media in which our capacity to remix and share content increasingly conflicts with our capacity to trust The book analyses how such videos deepen the social media environment in which the public and the personal converge and in which all human experience becomes data to be shared Timely clear and accessibly written this is an essential text for students and scholars of media communication cultural studies and sociology as well as general readers
